Vetter reveals a shift in these writings from classical escapist settings to politically aware explorations of gender spirituality nation and imperialism Impelled by the shocking political crises of the early 1940s and increasingly sensitive to imperialist logics H D began to write about the history of modern Europe using innovative forms and genres She directed her well known interest in mysticism and otherworldly themes toward the material world of empire building and perpetual war Vetter contends that H D s postwar work is essential to understanding the writer s entire career marking her entrance into late modernism and even foretelling crucial aspects of postmodernism
