Love As A Second Language:

When in French Lauren Collins, 2017-11-07 A language barrier is no match for love Lauren Collins discovered this firsthand when in her early thirties she moved to London and fell for a Frenchman named Olivier a surprising turn of events for someone who didn't have a passport until she was in college But what does it mean to love someone in a second language Collins wonders as her relationship with Olivier continues to grow entirely in English Are there things she doesn't understand about Olivier having never spoken to him in his native tongue Does I love you even mean the same thing as je t'aime When the couple newly married relocates to Francophone Geneva Collins fearful of one day becoming a Borat of a mother who doesn't understand her own kids decides to answer her questions for herself by learning French When in French is a laugh out loud funny and surprising memoir about the lengths we go to for love as well as an exploration across culture and history into how we learn languages and what they say about who we are Collins grapples with the complexities of the French language enduring excruciating role playing games with her classmates at a Swiss language school and accidentally telling her mother in law that she's given birth to a coffee machine In learning French Collins must wrestle with the very nature of French identity and society which it turns out is a far cry from life back home in North Carolina Plumbing the mysterious depths of humanity's many forms of language Collins describes with great style and wicked humor the frustrations embarrassments surprises and finally joys of learning and living in French Life as a Bilingual François

Grosjean, 2021-06-03 A book on those who know and use two or more languages Who are they How do they do it The Affective Dimension in Second Language Acquisition Danuta Gabryś-Barker, Danuta Gabryś, Joanna Bielska, 2013-05-03 This volume presents a series of empirical studies which focus on affectivity in relation to both individual learner differences and language learning experiences motivation and attitudes The volume also elaborates on affectivity in various contexts of FL use and in different educational settings such as CLIL or e learning Second Language Teaching Marcel can be read in any order that interests the reader      Second Language Learning and Language Teaching Vivian Cook, 2013-11-26 The fourth edition of this classic textbook has been revised to reflect recent developments in language teaching and learning yet retains the basic structure and approach so popular with its readers Teaching and learning content has been updated particularly taking into account the rise of task based learning Conversational Analysis and social models of second language acquisition changes in national syllabuses and examinations and the increasing controversy over the role of the native speaker target Each chapter has been revised to stand alone enabling the text to be taught and studied out of sequence if preferred A set of focussing questions has also been added to each and further reading sections have been updated In addition icons appear throughout the text signalling where extra information summaries data lecture notes test batteries and more can be found on the author's accompanying website www.routledge.com/cw/cook Second Language Learning and Language Teaching remains the essential textbook for all student teachers of modern languages and TESOL as well as applied linguistics      Using Film and Media in the Language Classroom Carmen Herrero, Isabelle

Pfenninger, Julia Festman, David Singleton, 2023-05-05 Language fundamentally defines and distinguishes us as humans as members of society and as individuals As we go through life our relationship with language and with learning shifts and changes but it remains significant This book is an up to date resource for graduate students and researchers in second language L2 acquisition who are interested in language learning across the lifespan The main goal is to survey and evaluate what is known about the linguistic cognition affect associations that occur in L2 learning from birth through senescence passing through the stages of childhood adolescence adulthood and third age the extent to which L2 acquisition may be seen as contributing to healthy and active aging the impact of the development of personalized technology enhanced communicative L2 environments and how these phenomena are to be approached scientifically and methodologically The effects of certain specific variables such as gender socio economic background and bilingualism are also analyzed as we argue that chronological age does not determine the positioning of L2 learners across the lifespan age is part of a complex web of social distinctions such as psychological and individual factors that intersect in the construction of a learner s relative status and opportunities
