The Death And Life of a Most Extraordinary Ordinary Man: My Dad's Story Stephen Mark Davies, 2014-09 This is a story that had to be told a book that had to be written For it is the description of a man's life lived simply without glory uncomplicated and based solely on the principles of love for family honesty and knowing right from wrong It is the story of my father's life beginning with his death and then looking back on what were the most extraordinary and cherished childhood memories of living with him My father was a strong fun loving man with a great sense of humour and fun He was born in a time of great depression in Northwest England in the late 1920s His father worked dockside in the port of Liverpool pulling horses and traps that transported coal and food stuff all over the county of Lancashire and was similarly a man who enjoyed life and watching their beloved Liverpool FC playing at Anfield on Saturday afternoons My dad only ever loved one woman Marjorie a Scouse lass of strong Irish heritage Together they rode the highs and lows of marriage for nearly sixty years Four children eleven grandchildren and six great grandchildren are the testament to a marriage that he and she made work The lessons he taught me as a boy have helped me to become the man I am today The guidance he gave me as a teenager enabled me to become the father I have become And for all this I thank the Most Extraordinary Ordinary Man who ever lived and hereby present My Dad's Story
