Sweethearts George N. Madison,2017-10-31 Excerpt from Sweethearts A Book of Love Poems Compiled and Edited With an IntroductionWhile it is doubtless true that sighs are the lan guage of Love each lover is a law unto himself and some other means of communication is necessary be tween him and the outside world Love is the highest of the emotions it finds expression in the highest of the arts But in poetry alone has it been voiced at all adequately Of all the emotions love is the one most keenly felt and the poetry that springs from such a source must necessarily be the most vital and most sincere expressing a genuine feeling it shows least artifice and most art Much of it is brief exalted passion does not vent itself in long winded rhapsodies All the world loves a lover because that is a state of being all pass into and some through All the world loves a love song for most of us too have at some time or other experienced the delightful thrill of turning a rhyme in honor of that not impossible she And Though this world is nearly five thousand years old and men have died of many things but none of love still those who have languished in verse are legion About the PublisherForgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.comThis book is a reproduction of an important
