Immortality and the Philosophy of Death Michael Cholbi,2015-12-02 Death comes for us all eventually Philosophers have long been perplexed by how we ought to feel about death Many people fear death and believe that death is bad for the person who dies But is death bad for us and if so how is its badness best explained If we do not survive death if death is simply a state of nothingness how can death be bad for us If death is bad for us do we have good reason to live as long as possible Would an immortal life really be a good human life or would even an immortal life eventually become tedious and make us long for mortality This volume presents fourteen philosophical essays that examine our attitudes toward mortality and immortality The topics addressed have become more urgent as scientists attempt to extend the human lifespan perhaps even indefinitely This book invites the reader to critically appraise his or her own attitudes toward death and immortality by exploring the ethical metaphysical and psychological complexities associated with these issues Strength and refreshment, short counsels and meditations from the works of s. François de Sales François de Sales (st.),Saint Francis (de Sales),1900

Pedagogy of Cinema David R. Cole, Joff P.N. Bradley, 2016-07-23 A Pedagogy of Cinema is the first book to apply Deleuze's concept of cinema to the pedagogic context Cinema is opened up by this action from the straightforward educative analysis of film to the systematic unfolding of image A Pedagogy of Cinema explores what it means to engender cinema thinking from image This book does not overlay images from films with an educational approach to them but looks to the images themselves to produce philosophy This approach to utilising image in education is wholly new and has the potential to transform classroom practice with respect to teaching and learning about cinema The authors have carefully chosen specific examples of images to illustrate such transformational processes and have fitted them into in depth analysis that is derived from the images The result is a combination of image and text that advances the field of cinema study for and in education with a philosophical intent This outstanding new book asks a vital question for our time How can we educate effectively in a digitalized corporatized Orwellian surveillance controlled globalized world This question is equally a challenge asked of our ability to think outside of the limiting parameters of the control society and the forces which daily propel us ever quicker towards worldwide homogenization With great lucidity Cole and Bradley offer us profound hope in Gilles Deleuze's increasingly popular notion of cine thinking They explore and explain the potential that this sophisticated idea holds for learning in an easy going and accessible way and with a range of fantastic films from Suspiria and Performance through to Under the Skin and Snowpiercer This extremely engaging and compelling text is likely to enliven scholars and students everywhere David Martin Jones Film and Television Studies University of Glasgow UK

Metamorphosis David Gallagher, 2009 The origins of selected instances of metamorphosis in Germanic literature are traced from their roots in Ovid's Metamorphoses grouped roughly on an ascending evolutionary scale invertebrates birds animals and mermaids Whilst a broad range of mythological legendary fairytale and folktale traditions have played an appreciable part Ovid's Metamorphoses is still an important comparative analysis and reference point for nineteenth and twentieth century German language narratives of transformations Metamorphosis is most often used as an index of crisis an existential crisis of the subject or a crisis in a society's moral social or cultural values Specifically selected texts for analysis include Jeremias Gotthelf's Die schwarze Spinne 1842 with the terrifying metamorphoses of Christine into a black spider the metamorphosis of Gregor Samsa in Kafka's Die Verwandlung 1915 ambiguous metamorphoses in E.T.A. Hoffmann's Der goldne Topf 1814 Hermann Hesse's Piktors Verwandlungen 1925 Der Steppenwolf 1927 and Christoph Ransmayr's Die letzte Welt 1988 Other mythical metamorphoses are examined in texts by Bachmann Fouqué Fontane Goethe Nietzsche Nelly Sachs Thomas Mann and Wagner and these and many others confirm that metamorphosis is used historically scientifically for religious purposes to highlight identity sexuality a dream state or for metaphoric metonymic or allegorical reasons
