Business As Mission Kidane Araya, 2022-02-03 Business As Mission What does this mean exactly In my opinion business as mission is a broad concept God gives all an opportunity to make an impact in this world through the people we meet the community we engage with and nations we operate in On the other hand business as mission is a powerful way to expand the spiritual kingdom of God Business as mission plays out in many ways in the world It changes based on current events political historical and the economic environment What is consistent is the framework of understanding the world Wherever we are we must serve the kingdom of God That begins by firstly putting your trust in God When something happens unexpectedly in our life a certain gap is created and we can't see how to surpass it overcome it or move through it At these times we must stay close to God and accept His words He said all is good for those who love him and dedicate his life to him In these situations we must trust God wholeheartedly and offer prayers My hope in writing this book is to encourage people to engage in the world of business and to do so in a manner pleasing to God Business can be done in a manner that is honest faithful and right Once we realize everything belongs to God we begin to look at our responsibilities in that light In this book I will expand on how to work out this goal on a step by step basis and explain my reasoning further Dr Kidane Araya

The Bible and Zionism Nur Masalha, 2007-08 This text investigates the Biblical justification for Zionism charts the historical rise of Zionism since its 19th century roots Providing a contribution to the argument for a single democratic secular Israeli state it shows how the biblical language of chosen people promised land is used to justify ethnic division violence

Blessed Are Those Who Mourn Eros Shaw, Mark Larrimore and Michael Clifton, 2022-11-24 Eros opens up how the Good News of Jesus Christ contains amongst its many many implications the possibility of openness and truth telling about love between people of the same sex These are part of the one same communication of grace and mercy coming towards us from God The friends and colleagues who Eros has brought together here show us something of what it looks like to have found yourself forced by love to stand your ground and how the wolf deflates when it is faced with such faith James Alison Theologian priest and author In this book another revolution is underway in gay Christians Describing faith in the light of their sinful sexuality is part of the transformative revolution of the gospel itself As you read this book I hope you will see what I mean by hearing what these writers say Regardless of your own sexual preference if your faith is not deepened by seeing how their faith became more authentic as a result of their existential and social ordeals please read them again Laurence Freeman OSB Director World Community for Christian Meditation In this book you will find stories which reflect the great variety of gay Catholics experiences stories of hurt but also of healing stories of hiding but also of courage to speak the truth stories of conflict between personal experience and official teaching and attempts to bridge that gap I pray that this book will have a wide readership and that all who read it will grow in courage to speak their own truth and to help the Church develop its ministry in this important area Mgr Keith Barltrop Diocese of Westminster chaplain to LGBT people This is a profoundly important book which gives voice to Chinese LGBTQI Catholics living inside and outside of China These testimonies are hugely insightful into the heartfelt desires and hopes and anguishes of Chinese men and women The struggle of coming out of the closet to live an open and authentic life as a gay person is an ongoing battle Their stories which we can all identify with to some degree makes for compulsive reading I cannot recommended this work by Eros highly enough Ruby Almeida Co chair Global Network of Rainbow Catholics The stories in this book may challenge people to look at themselves and their faith in new ways While that may be difficult it is a good thing and should be looked on as a gift from God It is through these sharing of stories that our Church and our faith develop May these stories help to bring light to our Church and to our world Francis DeBernardo Executive director New Ways Ministry

Divine Flesh, Embodied Word Anne-Claire Mulder, 2025-10-01 What has Luce Irigaray s statement that women need a God to do with her thoughts on the relation between body and mind or the sensible and the intelligible Using the theological notion incarnation as a hermeneutical key Anne Claire Mulder brings together and illuminates the interrelations between these different themes in Luce Irigaray s work Seesawing between Luce Irigaray s critique of philosophical discourse and her constructive philosophy Mulder elucidates Irigaray s thoughts on the relations between becoming woman and becoming divine She shows that Luce Irigaray s restaging of the relation between the sensible and the intelligible between flesh and Word is key to her reinterpretation of the relation between woman and God In and through her interpretation of Luce Irigaray s thoughts on the flesh she argues that the relation between flesh and Word must be seen as a dialectical one instead of as a dualistic relation This means that incarnation is no longer seen as a one way process of Word becoming flesh but as a continuing process of flesh becoming word and word becoming flesh For all images and thoughts including those of God are produced by the flesh divine in its creativity inexhaustibility in response to the touch of the other And these images thoughts words in turn become embodied by touching and moving the flesh of the subject

The Identity of Christian Morality Ann Marie Mealey, 2016-03-03 This book argues that moral theology has yet to embrace the recommendations of the Second Vatican Council concerning the ways in which it is to be renewed One of the reasons for this is the lack of consensus between theologians regarding the nature content and uniqueness of Christian morality After highlighting the strengths and weaknesses of the so called autonomy and faith ethic schools of thought Mealey argues that there is little dividing them and that in some instances both schools are simply defending one aspect of a hermeneutical dialectic In an attempt to move away from the divisions between proponents of the faith ethic and autonomy positions Mealey enlists the help of the hermeneutical theory of Paul Ricoeur She argues that many of the disagreements arising from the Christian proprium debate can be overcome if scholars look to the possibilities opened up by Ricoeur's hermeneutics of interpretation Mealey also argues that the uniqueness of Christian morality is more adequately explained in terms of a specific identity self that is constantly subject to change and revision in light of many often conflicting moral sources She advocates a move away from attempts to explain the uniqueness of Christian morality in terms of one specific unchanging context motivation norm divine command or value By embracing the possibilities opened up by Ricoeurian hermeneutics Mealey explains how concepts such as revelation tradition orthodoxy and moral conscience may be understood in a hermeneutical way without being deemed sectarian or unorthodox
