

A woman in a long, flowing, dark-colored dress is captured in a dynamic pose, dancing or twirling on a wet beach. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a strong backlight effect that silhouettes the woman and illuminates the clouds and the water. The dress has long, thin fringe-like details on the sleeves and the hem, which are caught in motion. The water reflects the sunset colors and the woman's figure. The overall mood is romantic and evocative.

Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Love and Women in Early Chinese Fiction Daniel Hsieh, 2009-03-02 In traditional China upper class literati were inevitably strongly influenced by Confucian doctrine and rarely touched upon such topics as love and women in their writings It was not until the mid Tang a generation or two after the An Lushan rebellion that literary circles began to engage in overt discussion of the issues of love and women through the use of the newly emerging genres of zhiguai and chuanqi fiction The debate was carried out with an unprecedented enthusiasm since the topics were considered to be the key to understanding the crisis in Chinese civilization This book examines the repertoire of chuanqi and zhiguai written during the Six Dynasties and Tang periods and analyzes the key themes topics and approaches found in these tales which range from expressions of male fantasy sympathy fear and anxiety to philosophical debate on the place of the feminine in patriarchal Chinese society Many of these stories reflect tensions between masculine and feminine aspects of civilization as seen for example in the conflict of male aspiration and female desire as well as the ultimate longing for reconciliation of these divisions These stories form a crucial chapter in the history of love in China and would provide much of the foundation for further explorations during the late imperial period as seen in seminal works such as The Peony Pavilion and Dream of the Red Chamber Love in the Hebrew Bible Song-Mi Suzie Park, 2023-05-30 Christians insist that love stands at the heart of who God is Yet when we talk about love in the Hebrew Bible how much do we really know Possessing such a belief alone does not mean that we possess a clear understanding of what love is Are we aware of how often divine and human love are tied up with the idea of preference for one individual or group over another Do we know how often descriptions of love involve questions of power authority and gender Do we see that love is connected to suffering betrayal and sometimes death in the Hebrew Scriptures In Love in the Hebrew Bible one of the first book length studies of its kind Suzie Park provides fascinating and essential insights into these questions refreshing our understanding of the meaning of love in the Hebrew Bible Pushing against characterizations of the loving God of the New Testament narrative universe versus the wrathful God of the Old Testament Park shows that love is integral to the ways in which relationships both among people and also between humanity and God are imagined in the Hebrew text Reflecting matrices of meaning and associations love thus is a vital component of the ideology and theology of the Hebrew Scriptures and an understanding of it remains fundamental to our knowledge of the biblical text Women in Song and Yuan China Bret Hinsch, 2020-12-16 This deeply researched book provides an original history of Chinese women during the pivotal Song and Yuan dynasties 960 1368 Bret Hinsch explores the most important aspects of female life in this era political power family work inheritance religious roles and emotions and considers why the status of women declined during this period The Arabian Nights Encyclopedia Ulrich Marzolph, Richard van Leeuwen, 2004-08-24 The most comprehensive treatment of the

Arabian Nights ever published with more than 800 detailed encyclopedic entries and a wealth of authoritative essays and resources The tales of the Arabian Nights have long been the focus of scholarly research and critique but no English language work has ever attempted an all embracing treatment of them The fruit of years of research The Arabian Nights Encyclopedia is the first comprehensive reference work introducing both the Arabian Nights and the context of their genesis and aftermath in Near Eastern European and world culture Editors Ulrich Marzolph one of the world's foremost scholars of Near Eastern narrative culture and Richard van Leeuwen a prominent scholar of the Arabian Nights present detailed authoritative and up to date research on virtually all aspects of the tales including major protagonists themes important translations textual history adaptations reworkings works inspired by the Arabian Nights and aspects of literary theory and provide extensive bibliographies for each tale In addition to the 800 encyclopedic entries and numerous essays the work introduces research that has not previously been published making it an invaluable resource to scholars educators students and the general public as well as an essential addition to the core collection of academic and public libraries

Women Migrants From East to West Luisa Passerini, 2007-11 Based on the oral histories of eighty migrant women and thirty additional interviews with native women in the receiving countries, this volume documents the contemporary phenomenon of the feminisation of migration through an exploration of the lives of women who have moved from Bulgaria and Hungary to Italy and the Netherlands It assumes migrants to be active subjects creating possibilities and taking decisions in their own lives as well as being subject to legal and political regulation and the book analyses the new forms of subjectivity that come about through mobility Part I is a largely conceptual exploration of subjectivity, mobility and gender in Europe The chapters in Part II focus on love, work, home, communication and food themes which emerged from the migrant women's accounts In Part III, based on the interviews with native women, employers, friends or in associations relevant to migrant women, the chapters analyse their representations of migrants and the book goes on to explore forms of intersubjectivity between European women of different cultural origins A major contribution of this book is to consider how the movement of people across Europe is changing the cultural and social landscape with implications for how we think about what Europe means Cover image: Painting by Carla Accardi Reproduced with the kind permission of Luca Barsi of the Galleria Accademia Via Accademia Albertina 3 e 10123 Torino
