Writing the Voice of Pleasure A. Callahan, 2001-11-09 The Voice of Pleasure makes a persuasive and fascinating argument that the romantic couple of Western representation is not heterosexual Nor is it homosexual With insightful new readings of landmarks of Western culture from Tristan and Yseult to Seinfeld Callahan demonstrates that the illusion of heterosexuality is created by a male artist's assumption of a feminine voice to express desire Named the troubadour effect for the first time here this tradition of male femininity in romantic writing results in a cultural model of desire best described as heterosexuality without women The most compelling aspect of the book is its attention to the effect of this paradox on women writers Illuminating her argument with striking examples from the troubadours to Toni Morrison the author shows how women writers inscribe their vagabondage a term she coins to name the consequences of the troubadour effect for women's agency as both writers and lovers

Diaspora Poetics and Homing in South Asian Women's Writing Shilpa Daithota Bhat, 2018-03-14 This anthology of essays deliberates chiefly on the notion of locating home through the lens of the mythical idea of Trishanku implying in between space and homing in diaspora women's narratives associated with the South Asian region The idea of in between space has been used differently in various cultures but gesture prominently on the connotation of hanging between worlds Historically imperialism and the indentured grimit system triggered dispersal of labourers to the various colonies of the British Of course this was not the only cause of international migratory processes The partition of India and Pakistan led to large scale migration There was Punjabi migration to Canada Several Indians particularly the Gujaratis travelled to Africa for business reasons South Indians travelled to the Gulf for employment There were migrations to East Asian countries under the kangani system Again these were not the only reasons The process of demographic movement from South Asia has been complex due to innumerable push pull factors The subsequent generations of migrants included the twice thrice and likewise displaced members of the diaspora Racial denigration and Orientalist perceptions plagued their lives They belonged to various ethnicities and races inhabited marginalized spaces and strived to acculturate in the host society Complete cultural assimilation was not possible creating layered and hyphenated identities These intricate social processes resulted in amalgamation and cross pollination of cultures inter racial relationships and hybridization in all terrains of culture language music fashion cuisine and so on Situated in this matrix was the notion of Home a special personal space which an individual could feel as belonging to very strongly Nostalgia loss of home culture shock and interracial encounters problematized this discernment of belongingness and home These multifarious themes have been captured by women writers from the South Asian region and this book looks at the various aspects related to negotiating home in their narratives Under Mountain Shadows William D. Frank,2024-02-29 From her world famous dude ranch in Washington state s Yakima County Kay Kershaw exerted tremendous influence on conservation efforts in the Pacific Northwest and tangentially on LGBTQ rights in the United States After gaining local renown in sports and aviation she established the ranch at Goose Prairie with her first partner Pat Kane a fraught undertaking in a region closely associated with the John Birch Society Operating under the guise of two spinsters Kershaw and her later life partner Isabelle Lynn guarded their privacy closely but local encroachment by the U S Forest Service and the timber industry forced them into the public arena as environmentalists In partnership with Supreme Court Justice William O Douglas Kershaw and Lynn spearheaded a decades long campaign to save the ancient forests and ecosystem of Washington s Cascade Range In the process Kay and Isabelle s devoted relationship proved a marked contrast to Justice Douglas own turbulent love life perhaps affecting his perception of the law and his precedent setting judicial opinion in Griswold v Connecticut 1965 which provided the basis for major LGBTQ Supreme Court decisions in the twenty first century as well as Roe v Wade in 1973 The Outlook ,1914 History of Scottish Women's Writing Douglas Gifford,2020-03-31 No detailed description available for A History of Scottish Women s Writing The Woman With the Wild-Grown Hair , The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Victorian Women's Writing Lesa Scholl,Emily Morris,2022-12-15 Since the late twentieth century there has been a strategic campaign to recover the impact of Victorian women writers in the field of English literature However with the increased understanding of the importance of interdisciplinarity in the twenty first century there is a need to extend this campaign beyond literary studies in order to recognise the role of women writers across the nineteenth century a time that was intrinsically interdisciplinary in approach to scholarly writing and public intellectual engagement The Six-cornered Snowflake and Other Poems John Frederick Nims,1990 As a preeminent modernist poet and translator of the classics John Frederick Nims s work is an elegant fusion of contemporary sensibility with formalist experimentation But form for this writer of meditative verse is only a helpmeet to the quintessential content of the poem the meaning that gives it value in our time and one hopes beyond Concerning the formal elements of poetry Nims comments One might say they are like the scaffolding at a construction site meant to be thrown away and not regarded once the building is completed In his newest collection The Six Cornered Snowflake his poems range through an astonishing variety of complex structures the shaped poem of the title work the sestina the vocal Pindar s lattice of the First Olympian Ode the nervous galliambics of Catullus 63 just to name a few As William Pritchard writing for The New York Times Book Review so aptly observed Mr Nims has consistently had the nerve to be interested in what language could be made to do rather than what the psyche would be made to reveal Confronting Visuality in Multi-Ethnic Women's Writing A.

Laflen, 2014-08-07 Considering new perspectives on writers such as Toni Morrison Margaret Atwood and Louise Erdrich Confronting Visuality in Multi ethnic Women s Writing traces a cross cultural tradition in which contemporary female writers situate images of women within larger contexts of visuality
