Loves That Bind

Charles H. Kent

Loves That Bind:

Loves That Bind Rios, Mrs, Julian Rios, 1998-04-28 From one of Spain's most distinguished and daring writers comes this intensely erotic and shamelessly literary adventure through the streets of London. Emil, the mysterious narrator, has been abandoned by the woman he loves. Filled with doubt and nostalgia, bent on therapy or distraction or revenge, he wanders the city in search of her. Driven by the anguish of rejection and desire, he writes twenty-six letters to his fugitive lover, each an intricately detailed account of his affairs with twenty-six women who preceded her. Each of these figures bears an uncanny resemblance to a famous literary heroine: from Proust's Albertine to Fitzgerald's Daisy to Nabokov's Lolita to Queneau's Zazie. One by one, in alphabetical order, Emil's letters adopt the tone, style, and substance of the great novelists of the twentieth century, while in recollection, his past love affairs grow increasingly extravagant and hallucinatory. As we follow his physical and creative journey, we try to unravel fact from fantasy, emotion from delusion, while searching for clues to the novel's amorous alphabet, the building blocks of modernist and postmodernist literature. A seductive puzzle saturated with wordplay, Loves That Bind is a linguistic tour de force of remarkable agility and wit. Loves that Bind Julian Rios, 1999 A man abandoned by his lover writes a letter about each of the 26 women he loved before this woman.

A Manual for Young Ladies: With Hints on Love, Courtship, Marriage and the True Objects of Life Charles H. Kent, 2025-07-20 Reprint of the original first published in 1881. The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books. We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage.

The Dynamics of Living Love Charles Sommer, 1994

HARD LOVE April Buchanan, 2020-09-01 In this world, we learn much about love, but it is only in relationship with God that we truly learn what love is and what it is not. On this side of eternity, we will not fully know all there is to know about the love of God. In fact, it is the things we experience in this world that reveal what we have believed about love and how we have allowed our experiences, culture, and relationships to shape our lives and define love for us. We then take that definition of love and write it upon the hearts and lives of others. How important it is then that we know the true definition of love and that we know the Author, God. Jesus summed up all the commandments in this love: God and love one another. It sounds so easy, but most times we find that true love is, in fact, quite the contrary. It is a hard love. This may not sound like what we would expect to hear, though let us pause for a moment and consider what we have learned about love. Consider our relationships in this world, and if we are Christians, then let us consider our relationships with those in the body of Christ. Now let us consider how well we have done in loving God and loving one another. Would we still say that it is always easy? Likely, we could each think of times when we have endured suffering, hurt, loss, brokenness, rejection, abandonment, false accusations, and so much more, or perhaps how we have not only been on the receiving end of these but also we have caused others pain in our own pursuit of love It is my hope that throughout these pages we will examine the truth of each our own hearts and rather than redefining love or passing down a definition of love that we have been taught that is not the love of God that we discover or rediscover the true love of God It is my hope that these words will reach many hearts that are longing for what our hearts were created for fellowship with God to know His love personally and share it with all In order that we have this love it begins first with the examination of our hearts with the truth and the truth of our own condition A heart seeking love must seek truth for we cannot have one without the other Love Letters from the Angels Laurie Hazel,2020-06-09 Love Letters From The Angels is a collection of angelic letters and messages intuitively received by the author Laurie Hazel These letters are based on themes that are universal to people everywhere Each theme contains an angelic letter author s experiences action steps affirmations prayers and journal pages for the reader to learn experience and internalize the loving Divine guidance into their daily lives

The Art of Meditation and the French Renaissance Love Lyric Michael Giordano, 2010-01-01 The Art of Meditation and the French Renaissance Love Lyric examines the poetics of meditation in the French love lyric at the height of the Lyonnais Renaissance as illustrated by one of the country's most prominent writers Maurice Scève's Le Lier is the first French sequence of poems devoted to a single woman in the manner of Petrarch's Rime It is also the first Renaissance work to use emblems in a sustained work on love At their core most amatory lyrics involve a triple relation among lover beloved and the meaning of love Whether the poet lover is a man or woman poetic discourse generally takes the form of an interior monologue frequently intermingled with direct and indirect address to the beloved Though the dominant quality of this lyric is personal introspection Michael Giordano finds Le Lier to be consistent with traditions of Christian meditation He argues that the amatory lyric served as a vehicle for contests of value and paradigm change not only because it was conditioned both by sacred and profane sources but also because it occurred at a time of religious upheaval and scientific revolution
