Loves Compass A Natural History Of The Heart:

More Lasting Unions Stephen Garrard Post, 2000 A powerful reassertion of the social and spiritual significance of marriage and the family Many recent social theorists maintain that marriage and the nuclear family are not particularly important to the fabric of our culture In this powerful refutation grounded in both Christian teaching and social science data Stephen G Post asserts that the bonds of marriage and family are fundamental to our social and spiritual well being Unique in the field for its wide treatment of relevant issues More Lasting Unions also takes up these important topics the special needs of children and of aging parents adoption as an alternative way of family building the perils of family self indulgence and consumerism balancing family commitments and concern for neighbors A Natural History of Love Diane Ackerman, 2011-06-01 The bestselling author of A Natural History of the Senses now explores the allure of adultery the appeal of aphrodisiacs and the cult of the kiss Enchantingly written and stunningly informed this audaciously brilliant romp through the world of romantic love Washington Post Book World is the next best thing to love itself Unlimited Love Stephen G. Post, 2003-05 What if we could prove that love heals mental illness and is vital to successful therapeutic outcomes in all areas of health care What if we could prove that people who live more for others than for self have greater psychological well being Professor Stephen G Post who heads the Institute for Research on Unlimited Love is developing a new positive scientific program that integrates practice with high level empirical research and religious ethical ideas in order to explore these questions The goal is to understand how our complex brains unique imaginations communicative abilities reasoning powers moral sense and spiritual promptings give rise to the remarkable practice of unselfish love for our neighbors or for those we do not even know In Unlimited Love Post examines the question of what we mean by unlimited love his focus is not on falling into love which is altogether natural easy and delusional Rather he focuses on the difficult learned ascent that begins with insight into the need for tolerance of ubiquitous imperfection and matures into unselfish concern gratitude and compassion He considers social scientific and evolutionary perspectives on human altruistic motivations and he analyzes these perspectives in a wide interdisciplinary context at the interface of science ethics and religion Teilhard de Chardin commented that the scientific understanding of the power of unselfish love would be as significant in human history as the discovery of fire In Unlimited Love Stephen Post presents an argument for the creation of a new interdisciplinary field for the study of love and unlimited love engaging great minds and hoping to shape the human future away from endless acrimony hatred and violence Spiritual Literacy Frederic Brussat, Mary Ann Brussat, 1998-08-05 This collection presents more than 650 readings about daily life from present day authors Inside jacket flap The Gate of Darkness Hsia Tsian, 2016-02-16 As one of the few foundational texts to provide a critical overview of the aesthetics and politics of the leftist literary movement in China The Gate of Darkness was previously published by the University of Washington Press in 1968 to great critical acclaim Posthumously edited by the author's brother Professor C T Hsia this book critiques the works of leftist

Espinola,2013-01-31 Catherin Alexander Love on the Internet is about two romantically driven people that have been for the greatest part of their lives unlucky in love They see the romance in the rose opening its bloom for the world to see the beauty held within as well as in the ability for two people with romantic hearts to find each other enjoying the poetic beauty of the world around them However each feels disappointed in the fact that they have not found the person that brings loves star into focus Catherin a hopeful romantic is a woman that craves romance enjoys being a woman and loves being feminine She envisions herself in romantic scenarios with a man that can hold her heart in his hands capable of loving her for the rest of her life On the other hand Alexander is not only a man of action an individual that has always enjoyed adventure never missing an opportunity to feel the adrenaline run through his veins but also a true romantic and a Southern gentleman He believes strength is best found in the way in which a man loves the woman in his life and in the way he lives his life as an example for others to follow After experiencing another bad date he decides to follow the advice of a friend and join an Internet dating site Catherin experiencing a similar situation over six thousand miles away does the same allowing them both to find a love that bridges two completely different worlds uniting their hearts forever together Kirkus Reviews ,1990
