Power, Love and Evil Wayne Cristaudo, 2008 Love and evil are real they are substances of force fields which contain us as constituent parts Of all the powers of life they are the two most pregnant without meaning hence the most generative of what is specifically human Love and evil stand in the closest relationship to each other evil is both what destroys love and what forces more love out of us it is as Augustine astutely grasped privative requiring something to negate but it is also born out of misdirected love Breaking with naive realist and post modern dogmas about the nature of the real this book provides the basis for a philosophy of generative action as it draws upon examples from philosophy literature religion and popular culture While this book has a sympathetic ear for ancient and traditional narratives about the meaning of life it offers a philosophy appropriate for our times and our crises It is particularly directed at readers who are seeking for new ways to think about our world and self making and who are as dissatisfied with post Nietzschean and post Marxian 20th century social theory as they are by more traditional philosophical and naturalistic accounts of human being

A Complete Body of Doctrinal and Practical Divinity; Or, a System of Evangelical Truths, Deduced from the Sacred Scriptures. A New Edition John GILL (D.D., Baptist Minister, at Horsley Down.),1795 Goethe, Nietzsche, and Wagner T. K. Seung,2006-01-01 The author reads Goethe's Faust as the first epic written under Spinoza's influence. He shows how its thematic development is governed by Spinoza's pantheistic naturalism. He further contends that Wagner and Nietzsche have tried to surpass their mentor Goethe's work by writing their own Spinozan epics of love and power in The Ring of the Nibelung and Thus Spoke Zarathustra. These Spinozan epics are designed to succeed the Christian epics in the Western literary tradition. Whereas the Christian epics dared to groom human beings for their destiny in the supernatural world, the Spinozan epics try to reinstate humanity as the children of Mother Nature and overcome their alienation from the natural world which had been dictated by the long reign of Christianity. However, it has been well noted that none of these new epics seems to hang together thematically as a coherent work. By his Spinozan reading, the author not only demonstrates the thematic unity of each of them singly but further illustrates their thematic relation with each other. God's Enduring Love in the Book of Hosea Joy Philip Kakkanattu,2006 Joy Philip Kakkanattu provides an exegetical and theological analysis of an important and difficult text of the Old Testament through a synchronic and diachronic reading. Detailed critical notes which discuss the textual difficulties accompany the translation of the text from Hebrew. In the detailed exegesis, special attention is given to study of the key terms theologically significant in Hos 11:1-11 against the context of the whole book. The exegesis shows that in Hos 11:8-9 it is not the repentance of Yahweh that causes the withholding of His anger against Israel, but Yahweh's constancy in His election of Israel as His son. More than a change of heart, the decision not to execute the deserved judgement witnesses Yahweh's divine nature. Special attention is dedicated to the parent metaphor employed in Hos 11:1-11. It is concluded that more than expressing the Yahweh-Israel relationship as a father-son relationship, the text speaks of it in terms of parent-child relationship. In the diachronic analysis, the author deals with the origin and formation of Hos 11:1-11. A Gorgon's Mask Lewis A. Lawson,2005-01-01 The thesis of A Gorgon's Mask: The Mother in Thomas Mann's Fiction depends upon three psychoanalytic concepts: Freud's early work on the relationship between the infant and its mother and on the psychology of artistic creation; Annie Reich's analysis of the grotesque comic sublimation; and Edmund Bergler's analysis of writer's block. Mann's crisis of sexual anxiety in late adolescence is presented as the defining moment for his entire artistic life. In the throes of that crisis, he included a sketch of a female as Gorgon in a book that would not escape his mother's notice. But to defend himself from being overcome by the Gorgon mother's stare, he employed the grotesque comic sublimation, hiding the mother figure behind fictional characters physically attractive but psychologically repellent. All the while, couching his fiction in an ironic tone that evoked humor, however lacking in humor, the subtext might be: In this manner, he could deny to himself that the mother figure always lurked in his work and, by that denial, deny that he was a victim of oral regression. For as Edmund Bergler argues, the creative writer who acknowledges his oral dependency will inevitably succumb to writer's block Mann's late work reveals that his defense against the Gorgon is crumbling In Doctor Faustus Mann portrays Adrian Leverkühn as ultimately the victim of oral regression but the fact that Mann was able to compete the novel despite severe physical illness and psychological distress demonstrates that he himself was still holding writer's block at bay In Confessions of Felix Krull Confidence Man a narrative that he had abandoned forty years before Mann was finally forced to acknowledge that he was depleted of creative vitality but not of his capacity for irony brilliantly couching the victorious return of the repressed in ambiguity This study will be of interest to general readers who enjoy Mann's narrative art to students of Mann's work especially its psychological and mythological aspects and to students of the psychology of artistic creativity

PROBLEM The false prophets in the world have 98% of believers off course God

s power is not embedded in faith alone but in his love Faith cannot work without LOVE The reason Jesus Christ commanded us to love one another was because love when coupled with a person s FAITH is the true healing power of God The world and the church are one hundred miles off course from a one mile trip Just as the Jews walked mindlessly through the desert for 40 years for an eight day trip even so also is the church today mindlessly marching about As a result of the knowledge of this I knew that I had to write this book so that men everywhere could learn of God s true love for his man and find their way home to God This word of the Lord came unto me with great unrest compelling me to write this book to his specifications The words found herein were derived from the message of love given to me by the Lord who instructed me to write The Commandments of Love The breadth thereof He said was to have twelve 12 parts which represents the twelve tribes of the lost sheep of the house of Israel the depth thereof He said was to have forty 40 chapters which the Lord declared represented Israel s forty years in the wilderness The length thereof He said was to be four hundred and eighty 480 pages signifying the four hundred and eighty years after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt until the building of the house of the Lord written in I Kings 6 1 This He said also represents the restoration of the children of God today whose time is now This word did the Lord give unto me by the mouth of his Holy Spirit sent to signify his love for his people This is why Jesus asked the question when the Son of Man cometh shall he find faith on the earth St Luke 18 8 This wasn t a question of FAITH but of LOVE
