Love, InshAllah Nura Maznavi, Ayesha Mattu, 2012-02-01 This book that strips off the traditional trappings of Islamic womanhood to expose the special strengths and vulnerabilities that lie beneath The Washington Post affirms the reality of the romantic lives of Muslim women Romance dating sex and Muslim women In this groundbreaking collection twenty five American Muslim writers sweep aside stereotypes to share their search for love openly for the first time showing just how varied the search for love can be from singles events and online dating to college flirtations and arranged marriages all with a uniquely Muslim twist These stories are filled with passion and hope loss and longing A quintessential blonde California girl travels abroad to escape suffocating responsibilities at home only to fall in love with a handsome Brazilian stranger she may never see again An orthodox African American woman must face her growing attraction to her female friend A young girl defies her South Asian parents cultural expectations with an interracial relationship And a Southern woman agrees to consider an arranged marriage with surprising results These compelling stories of love and romance create an irresistible balance of heart warming and tantalizing always revealing and deeply relatable A beautiful collection that reminds us all not only of the diversity of the American Muslim community but the universality of the human condition especially when it comes to something as magical and complicated as love Reza Aslan 1 New York Times bestselling author of God A Human History Portraits of private lives that expose a group in some cases kept literally veiled yet that also illustrate that American Muslim women grapple with universal issues The New York Times

Black Heart and White Heart and other stories H. Rider Haggard, 2016-09-23 Sir Henry Rider Haggard was an English writer of adventure novels set in exotic locations predominantly Africa and the creator of the Lost World literary genre His stories situated at the lighter end of the scale of Victorian literature continue to be popular and influential He was also involved in agricultural reform and improvement in the British Empire Black Heart and White Heart is a story of the courtship trials and final union of a pair of Zulu lovers in the time of King Cetshwayo Excerpt from Wikipedia Under the Mistletoe & Other Stories Manali Desai, 2022-12-01 Diana is all set to welcome her loved ones for Christmas An unexpected and uninvited guest shows up at her door spoiling her festive mood All her attempts to thwart Dylan's intrusion go in vain as he keeps dropping in again and again insisting that she join his family for Christmas Eve dinner Against her better judgment she finally gives in just to get him off her back As they stand under the mistletoe after the dinner Diana and Dylan know things have changed for the better for both A group of passengers is stranded at the airport together on New Year's Eve Their plans were to celebrate the last day of the year and then ring in the new year with their loved ones by their side But a delayed flight mars their plans and their happiness They end up talking to each other exchanging their New Year's Eve plans and how they celebrated it these many years so far As they all welcome the new year together at midnight their combined resolutions are to stay in touch with each other They also resolve to make the best out of whatever life throws their way Because as they have seen and experienced not all things go as planned always Samantha is visiting her native Benakatti after many years Even though it's Christmas time it's not a happy occasion in the family As friends and family drop in for a visit Samantha recalls the many winter breaks she spent in this village as a child An unexpected guest shows up one day bringing forth a cherished memory they had made on a foggy winter day many years ago These and 10 other stories encompass this festive special anthology These are stories of hope love healing new beginnings acceptance and everything that the holidays represent British Books, 1906 The Publisher, 1905 India Today, 2004 Book Bulletin, 1920 Monthly Bulletin St. Louis Public Library, 1903 Elizabeth Bowen Neil Corcoran, 2004-09-16 Elizabeth Bowen is a writer who is still too little appreciated Neil Corcoran presents here a critical study of her novels short stories family history and essays and shows that her work both inherits from the Modernist movement and transforms its experimental traditions Elizabeth Bowen The Enforced Return explores how she adapts Irish Protestant Gothic as a means of interpreting Irish experience during the Troubles of the 1920s and the Second World War and also as a way of defining the defencelessness of those enduring the Blitz in wartime London She employs versions of the Jamesian child as a way of offering a critique of the treatment of children in the European novel of adultery and indeed implicitly of the Jamesian child itself Corcoran relates the various kinds of return and reflex in her work notably the presence of the supernatural but also the sense of being haunted by reading to both the Freudian concept of the return of the repressed and to T S Eliot's conception of the auditory imagination as a return to the origin Making greater interpretative use of extra fictional materials than previous Bowen critics notably her wartime reports from neutral Ireland to Churchill's government and the diaries of her wartime lover the Canadian diplomat Charles Ritchie Corcoran reveals how her fiction merges personal story with public history Employing a wealth of original research his radical new readings propose that Bowen is as important as Samuel Beckett to twentieth century literary studies a writer who returns us anew to the histories of both her time and ours Sons
