Lowcal Country:

Local Government Financial Reform in Developing Countries J. Boex, J. Martinez-Vazquez, 2006-07-07 This book analyzes recent local government finance reforms in Tanzania including the introduction of a formula based system of intergovernmental grants Due to the scope and speed of Tanzania's local government finance reforms the country is becoming one of the best practice examples of fiscal decentralization reform in Africa

Local Governance in Industrial Countries Anwar Shah, 2006 The information revolution in recent years has worked as a catalyst to create a globalized yet localized world with local governments playing an ever increasing role in the domestic and global economy How these governments will be able to shoulder their responsibilities especially the delivery of local services more effectively is the concern of this book The book edited by Anwar Shah provides a comparative perspective on international practices in local governance and draws lessons from these experiences to guide future reform Case studies include the following countries Argentina B

Local Governance in Developing Countries Anwar Shah, 2006 This book provides a new institutional economics perspective on alternative models of local governance offering a comprehensive view of local government organization and finance in the developing world The experiences of ten developing transition economies are reviewed to draw lessons of general interest in strengthening responsive responsible and accountable local governance The book is written in simple user friendly language to facilitate a wider readership by policy makers and practitioners in addition to students and scholars of public finance economics and politics

Transnational Corporations and Local Firms in Developing Countries Michael W. Hansen, Henrik Schaumburg-Müller, 2006 This book studies the organization and effects of linkages between transnational corporations mainly Danish and local firms in developing countries It is based on a number of case studies of linkage collaborations and a survey of about ninety Danish firms and their relations to partners in developing countries The analyzed host countries are Ghana India Malaysia South Africa and Vietnam The book is a contribution to the emerging literature on firm strategy in developing countries offering new empirical evidence of the multi faceted and complex nature of cross border inter firm linkages It documents how even small firms in both developed and developing countries engage in and can benefit from cross border linkages

Fiscal Decentralization and Local Finance in Developing Countries Roy Bahl, Richard M. Bird, 2018-03-30 This book draws on experiences in developing countries to bridge the gap between the conventional textbook treatment of fiscal decentralization and the actual practice of subnational government finance The extensive literature about the theory and practice is surveyed and longstanding problems and new questions are addressed It focuses on the key choices that must be made in decentralizing on how economic and political factors shape the choices that countries make and on how by paying more attention to the need for a more comprehensive approach and the critical connections between different components of decentralization reform everyone involved might get more for their money

Local Government Reforms in Countries in Transition Frederick A. Lazin, Matt Evans, Vincent

Hoffmann-Martinot,2008-05-01 Local Government Reforms in Countries in Transition explores the impacts that the end of the Cold War and increased globalization have had on government around the world The decentralization of national governments has led to a greater role for local governments public administration and democratic representation are the new arena of local governments the world over Focusing not only on countries from the former Soviet Union but also on Israel China South Africa and Egypt the contributors to this volume present a truly global investigation of countries experiencing governmental transformation

Local Government and Metropolitan Regions in Federal Countries John Kincaid,Nico Steytler,2009-07-01 While local government is found in all federal countries its place and role in the governance of these countries varies considerably In some countries local government is considered an essential part of the federal nature of the state and recognized in the constitution as such whereas in others it is simply a creature of the subnational states provinces When referring to local government it is more correct to refer to local governments plural as these institutions come in all shapes and sizes performing widely divergent functions They range from metropolitan municipalities of mega cities to counties small town councils and villages Their focus is either multi purpose in the case of municipalities or single purpose in the case of special districts and school districts What unites these institutions of state is that there is no level of government below them That is also their strength and the source of their democratic claim they are the government closest to the people Political science experts from across the globe examine local governments by drawing on case studies of Australia Austria Brazil Canada Germany India Mexico Nigeria Switzerland Spain South Africa and United States Contributors include Martin Burgi Ruhr University Bochum Luis Cesar de Queiroz Ribeiro Federal University of Rio de Janeiro Jaap de Visser University of Western Cape Habu Galadima University of Jos Sol Garson Federal University of Rio de Janeiro Boris Graizbord National College of Mexico Rakesh Hooja HCM Rajasthan State Institute of Public Administration India Andreas Kiefer European Affairs Office of the Land Salzburg Andreas Ladner Swiss Graduate School of Public Administration George Mathew Institute of Social Sciences India Mike Pagano University of Illinois at Chicago Graham Sansom University of Technology Sydney Franz Schausberger Salzburg University Nico Steytler University of Western Cape Francisco Velasco Caballero Universidad Aut noma de Madrid and Robert Young University of Western Ontario

Local Governments' Fiscal Balance, Privatization, and Banking Sector Reform in Transition Countries Ernesto Crivelli,2012-06-01 Several transition economies have undertaken fiscal decentralization reforms over the past two decades along with liberalization privatization and stabilization reforms Theory predicts that decentralization may aggravate fiscal imbalances unless the right incentives are in place to promote fiscal discipline This paper uses a panel of 20 transition countries over 19 years to address a central question of fact Did privatization help to promote local governments fiscal discipline The answer is clearly no for privatization considered in isolation However privatization and subnational fiscal autonomy along with reforms to the banking system restraining access to soft financing may prove effective at improving fiscal balances among local governments FDI, Global Value Chains, and Local Sourcing in Developing Countries Vito

Amendolagine,Andrea Presbitero,Roberta Rabellotti,Marco Sanfilippo,Adnan Seric,2017-12-21 The local sourcing of intermediate products is one the main channels for foreign direct investment FDI spillovers This paper investigates whether and how participation and positioning in the global value chains GVCs of host countries is associated to local sourcing by foreign investors Matching two firm level data sets of 19 Sub Saharan African countries and Vietnam to country sector level measures of GVC involvement we find that more intense GVC participation and upstream specialization are associated to a higher share of inputs sourced locally by foreign investors These effects are larger in countries with stronger rule of law and better education Local Content Requirements Lili Yan Ing,Gene Grossman,2023-11-06 As anti globalization and geopolitical tensions continue to rise the use of local content requirements LCRs around the world has become more noticeable than ever before The reasons for adopting LCRs range from ensuring domestic supply availability job creation and increasing value added to safeguarding national security Ing and Grossman examine country specific as well as firm product level exercises to explain how LCRs reduce fair competition resulting in lower trade and productivity which ultimately lowers world economic output and overall human welfare Countries around the world are investigated with specific attention to the US China Indonesia and resource intensive countries including mining intensive ones The book also presents product and firm level analyses answering the question of why countries adopted LCRs and how LCRs actually affect the world economy This book is a useful resource that will interest policymakers researchers and advanced undergraduates interested in international trade industrial policy political economy labour economics and development economics
