Punk Productions Stacy Thompson,2012-02-01 Stacy Thompson's Punk Productions offers a concise history of punk music and combines concepts from Marxism to psychoanalysis to identify the shared desires that punk expresses through its material productions and social relations Thompson explores all of the major punk scenes in detail from the early days in New York and England through California Hardcore and the Riot Grrrls and thoroughly examines punk record collecting the history of the Dischord and Lookout record labels and zines produced to chronicle the various scenes over the years While most analyses of punk address it in terms of style Thompson grounds its aesthetics and particularly its most combative elements in a materialist theory of punk economics situated within the broader fields of the music industry the commodity form and contemporary capitalism While punk's ultimate goal of abolishing capitalism has not been met the punk enterprise that stands opposed to the music industry is still flourishing Punks continue to create aesthetics that cannot be readily commodified or rendered profitable by major record labels and punks remain committed to transforming consumers into producers in opposition to the global economy's increasingly rapid shift toward oligopoly and monopoly

The Roaring Twenties - When the Roar Wasn't Loud Enough Bernard C. Beaudreau,2019-05-23 The decade of the 1920s is colloquially known as the Roaring Twenties when modernity came to the U S and the World ushering in a decade of unbounded growth and new found optimism GDP growth was particularly strong as was employment and investment However as counterintuitive as it may sound or appear the 1920s were also years of stagnation stagnation that owed to the fact that the new greater potential was not being fully exploited In other words while things were great they still fell short of the potential that had been created resulting in a form of growth stagnation That is stagnation in the midst of what was exceptional growth Bernard C Beaudreau is Professor of Economics at Universit Laval in Quebec Canada
