The book challenges the notions of a singular place that is described in a neighbourhood plan It examines conceptual thematic strategic and performative constructions of place and the capacity for neighbourhood plans to be developed within this context. It explores the value of connecting the formulation of a neighbourhood plan with the emergence of a relevant local plan allowing for more meaningful local influence on strategic policymaking With first hand insights on neighbourhood planning this book offers a novel contribution to the fields of planning urban studies and urban geography Architectural Publications Index ,2001 Improvements, Between Milpitas and Northern San Jose and Mountain View and Sunnyvale, Santa Clara County Effective Business Relocation William N.
