woman who sat in a corner alone neither speaking nor spoken to her whole aspect repelling any rash advance Prescott always had a keen eye for woman and beauty and owing to his long absence in armies where both these desirable objects were scarce his vision had become acute but he judged that this lone type of her sex had no special charm Tall she certainly was and her figure might be good but no one with a fair face and taste would dress as plainly as she nor wrap herself so completely in a long brown cloak that he could not even tell the colour of her eyes Beautiful women as he knew them always had a touch of coquetry and never hid their charms wholly Prescott's attention wandered again to the landscape rushing past but finding little of splendour or beauty it came back by and by to the lone woman He wondered why she was going to Richmond and what was her name She too was now staring out of the window and the long cloak hiding her seemed so shapeless that he concluded her figure must be bad His interest declined at once but rose again with her silence and evident desire to be left alone

A Complete Edition of the Poets of Great Britain, 1794 The Marriage between Perfume and the Lyric Stage Mary May Robertson, 2023-09-22 But what is this scent of balmy air What this ray of light in my tomb I seem to see an angel amid a scent of roses sings Florestan in Fidelio Beethoven's only opera The role of scents smells fragrances and odours in opera has long been neglected just as how much opera and its stars have influenced the world of perfumery from the nineteenth century to the present day In the first book length study on the topic Professor Mary May Robertson explores the relationship between opera perfumes and their respective protagonists in order to map out the previously undiscussed connection between the two Through compelling close readings of librettos and rigorous research through thousands of bottles of perfume the reader will come to appreciate and recognise the influences and exchanges between operas and perfumes and their ultimate marriage in the previously unrecognised genre of Operatic Perfumes which is to say perfumes named after operas composers and their divas The Voice of the Century Massimo Zicari, 2022-04-29 The fields of performance studies empirical musicology and the musicology of recordings have seen a tremendous development in recent years shedding new light on the recent history of our performing tradition and conveying essential information to music practitioners critics and audiences This innovative work considers the notion of bel canto and the manner in which this vibrant tradition lives in the records of Luisa Tetrazzini 1871-1940 one of the most celebrated sopranos ever Tetrazzini whose discographic career includes about 120 recordings belongs to that generation of inspirational performers who heralded the dawn of a new era of music appreciation alongside such iconic figures as Enrico Caruso Adelina Patti and Nellie Melba Drawing on a vast body of scholarship and a number of contemporary reviews Massimo Zicari establishes Tetrazzini's role in the Italian operatic tradition and its much disputed set of performing conventions His transcriptions of her recorded interpretations from Rossini Donizetti Bellini and Verdi will prove invaluable to singers and conductors interested in a tradition that goes back to legendary figures such as Jenny Lind and Maria Malibran The author also discusses her voice quality and technique tempo flexibility her use of vibrato and portamento features of musical performance that question several widely held normative views about aesthetics and interpretative tradition The volume includes eighty eight musical examples and its closing section consists of the vocal scores of thirteen operatic arias The musical material both examples and transcriptions is entirely original This unique approach seeks to combine an academic perspective with the making of the music in the hope that the plea for originality may be enhanced by models from the past
