Stories Sön-jak Cho, 2003 Cho Sun Jak is a prolific South Korean writer of many novels and short stories. Many of his works have been adapted successfully as TV dramas and films but very few of his works have been available in English till now. He presents an honest and frank view of the reality behind the successful development of modern Korea with humor and sensitivity. The well-known novella The Preview depicts the Korean War through the eyes of a young boy and the other stories in this collection reflect the aftermath of the war, the desperate lives of the poor, the corruption of moral values and the pathos of the lives of good-hearted prostitutes. The translations capture well the atmosphere and values of the period in which the stories were written. Detailed notes clarify linguistic points and the social and cultural context. England, My

Still grieving the sudden death of his brother, reformed bad boy Sam Sunderland feels trapped managing his father's rundown apartment building. When the spunky beauty who unexpectedly kissed him moves in, full of ideas he can't help being intrigued that is until she starts changing things behind his back, endangering his position and the relationship with his father. Sam and Luna wrangle over rules and misunderstandings while fighting against the undeniable attraction between them. It's a hard lesson to learn that perfect can take many different forms. The first of several works in Arabic to deal with the way in which an individual tries to come to terms with two divergent cultures. Together with such figures as the scholar Taha Hussein, the playwright Tawfik al-Hakim, the short story writer Mahmoud Teymour and, of course, Naguib Mahfouz, Yahya Hakki belongs to that distinguished band of early writers who, midway through the last century, under the influence of Western literature, began to practice genres of creative writing that were new to the traditions of classical Arabic. In the first story in this volume, the very short Story in the Form of a Petition, Yahya Hakki demonstrates his ease with gentle humor, a form rare in Arabic writing. In the following two stories, Mother of the Destitute and A Story from Prison, he describes with typical sympathy individuals who, less privileged than others, somehow manage to scrape through life's hardships.
