Rooted David R. Pichaske, 2009-05 David Pichaske has been writing and teaching about midwestern literature for three decades In Rooted by paying close attention to text landscape and biography he examines the relationship between place and art His focus is on seven midwestern authors who came of age toward the close of the twentieth century their lives and their work grounded in distinct places Dave Etter in small town upstate Illinois Norbert Blei in Door County Wisconsin William Kloefkorn in southern Kansas and Nebraska Bill Holm in Minnesota Linda Hasselstrom in Hermosa South Dakota Jim Heynen in Sioux County Iowa and Jim Harrison in upper Michigan The writers intimate knowledge of place is reflected in their use of details of geography language environment and behavior Yet each writer reaches toward other geographies and into other dimensions of art or thought jazz music and formalism in the case of Etter gender issues in the case of Hasselstrom time past and present in the case of Kloefkorn ethnicity and the role of the artist in the case of Blei magical realism in the case of Heynen the landscape of literature in the case of Holm and the curious worlds of academia best selling novels and Hollywood films in the case of Harrison The result Pichaske notes is the growing away from roots the explorations and alter egos of these writers of place and the tension between the here and there that gives each writer's art the complexity it needs to transcend provincial boundaries Quoting generously from the writers Pichaske employs a practical jargon free literary analysis fixed in the text making Rooted interesting readable and especially useful in treating the literary categories of memoir and literary essay that have become important in recent decades

Leviathans at the Gold Mine Alex Golub, 2014-02-03 Leviathans at the Gold Mine is an ethnographic account of the relationship between the Ipili an indigenous group in Papua New Guinea and the large international gold mine operating on their land It was not until 1939 that Australian territorial patrols reached the Ipili By 1990 the third largest gold mine on the planet was operating in their valley Alex Golub examines how the mine and the Ipili were brought into being in relation to one another and how certain individuals were authorized to speak for the mine and others to speak for the Ipili Considering the relative success of the Ipili in their negotiations with a multinational corporation Golub argues that a unique conjuncture of personal relationships and political circumstances created a propitious moment during which the dynamic and fluid nature of Ipili culture could be used to full advantage As that moment faded away social problems in the valley increased The Ipili now struggle with the extreme social dislocation brought about by the massive influx of migrants and money into their valley
