"Example isn't the most important thing in influencing others, it is the only thing." - A. Lincoln

Everyone lives the reality of what they expect. Change your expectations in order to create different results.

In a constantly changing environment how do we continuously motivate and inspire others to excellence? By modeling for them the ability to create outstanding results based on beliefs, vision and passion. Anyone can observe reality when things are going well, but the visionaries are those who can imagine and create the reality they want when others only see economic downturns and challenges.

The Magic of Vision

Always remember when engaging others it's essential to help them see/believe part of the vision is theirs.

How do you create visionaries?

- Help them create their own video. Going back to Michael Phelps's coach Bob Bowman, he taught Michael to create the perfect scenario, and then play it over and over until it became reality. Repetition creates new habits, and therefore a change in beliefs.
- Help others feel the vision. It's not enough to talk about it, there must be emotion, which drives belief and creates action.
- Ask yourself what do you expect of others and yourself. We all live up and down to others' expectations.
- Don't forget the acronyms MMFI (Make Me Feel Important), WIFM (What's in it For Me) and WTPV (What's Their Point of View). Finding ways to create a sense of caring is more important to productivity and employee morale than money, perks, office style/space and anything that is in second place.
- And it's easy to do!

Campbell,John Maxwell Wood,Samuel Roberts Wells,Margaret Murray,2022-11-13 The Collected Works on Magic Witchcraft is a comprehensive anthology that weaves together the transformative journey of esoteric knowledge from the medieval era through the nineteenth century With a palette of literary styles ranging from Gothic narratives and historical treatises to philosophical discourses this collection provides a profound exploration of magic and witchcraft's enigmatic allure. The diversity of the anthology is underscored by its inclusion of pivotal pieces that examine the multifaceted nature of superstition, folklore, and the supernatural, creating a dialogue that reflects the zeitgeist of literary fascination with the otherworldly. Curated by a team of notable authors and scholars including Bram Stoker, Walter Scott, and Margaret Murray, The Collected Works on Magic Witchcraft assembles voices that span diverse cultural and historical backgrounds. These contributions span the Gothic revival, Enlightenment, rationalism, and Romanticism, unified by their quest to unearth and interrogate humanity's perpetual intrigue with the mystical and the arcane. This anthology aligns with and enriches the discourse on the cultural zeitgeist of each respective era, revealing magic and witchcraft as socio-political tools, reflections of societal fears, and as paths to personal enlightenment. Readers will find in this anthology a unique opportunity to delve into a rich tapestry of perspectives and literary interpretations. It caters to scholars, enthusiasts, and curious readers alike, offering invaluable insights into the myriad ways magic and witchcraft have influenced literature and society. This compendium stands as a significant repository of intellectual and cultural dialogue, highlighting the perennial nature of these themes and fostering a deeper understanding of their enduring power and influence across changing times and societies.

The Magic of Flowers Tess Whitehurst, 2013. It explores the subtle and whimsical realm of flower magic.

Creating Business Magic David Morey, Eugene Burger, John E. McLaughlin, 2018-05-15. Three experts from the worlds of magic and business strategy share the secrets to conjuring innovation and shattering expectations. Your organization may employ hundreds, even thousands. You may be experiencing growth and hitting your revenue targets. But unless you are creating magic for your customers like Disney, Apple, and Amazon, you are not the innovation leader you need to be in today's marketplace. In Creating Business Magic, a corporate strategist, a former acting CIA director, and a world-renowned magician share their secrets to success. Each chapter opens with a legendary magic act from Harry Houdini to Penn and Teller and explores how the same principles and techniques can be deployed to create a fertile environment for disruptive innovation and propel a company light years ahead of the competition. The authors illuminate the power of perception, ways to innovate, to think out of the box, break down conceptual barriers, and finally bring out the magician inside all of us from the introduction by David Copperfield.
