Magic Luke Alfred, 2023-05-01 Desiree Ellis has walked a remarkable journey The result is that young South African girls now know they can create their own future VERA PAUW former coach of Banyana Banyana Desiree Ellis has been associated with Banyana Banyana the South African women s national football team for 30 years initially making her mark as a player 1993 2002 before transitioning to coaching Taking the experience of 32 caps including captaining the team when South Africa won the inaugural Cosafa Women s Cup in 2002

she went on to become the most successful women's coach in South Africa. After a stint as assistant coach to Vera Pauw, Desiree was officially appointed head coach in 2018 and continued adding to her outstanding resume. A high point came in 2022 when she coached Banyana Banyana to the Wafcon title in Morocco. The win also earned the team automatic qualification for the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup. But Desiree's inspiring football journey began many years before on the streets of Salt River in Cape Town where she developed the strength and skills that earned her the nickname Magic on the field. Back then soccer boots were only dreamed of and it was her Bata Toughies school shoes that suffered the wear and tear, often to the despair of her hardworking parents. In the early days of the Athlone Celtic women's side, it was a family affair. Uncle Eddie took on the role of coach, Mom Natalie's seamstress skills saw them all kitted out, and Dad Ernest handled everything else from transport to scheduling games. When Desiree's talent and dedication saw her become a serious contender at league and then provincial level, and finally gave her a chance to play with and against the world's best, there was no stopping her. As South Africa emerged from sporting exile after the dark days of apartheid and stepped up to the international stage, Desiree proved to everyone who believed in her that dreams can come true.

The Honored Dead Joseph Braude, 2011-06-14. The Arab Islamic world is known for religious extremism, ethnic conflicts, and now the overthrow of seemingly unshakable regimes, but if anything has become clear, it's that our understanding of the region remains shrouded and incomplete. The seeds of revolution, radicalism, and possibly reform are buried in the individual stories of millions of people whose lives determine the fates of their societies, people whose motivations are as common and as strange as our own. Here is one of those stories and the story of how this world is being transformed, one life at a time. Joseph Braude is the first Western journalist ever to secure embed status with an Arab security force assigned to a hardened unit of detectives in Casablanca who handle everything from busting al Qaeda cells to solving homicides. One day he's given the file for a seemingly commonplace murder: a young guard at a warehouse killed in what appears to be a robbery gone wrong. Braude is intrigued by the details of the case, the sheer brutality of the murder, the identities of the accused, a soldier, and the victim, a shadowy migrant with links to a radical cleric and the odd location, a warehouse owned by a wealthy member of one of the few thriving Jewish communities in the Arab world. After interviewing the victim's best friend who tearfully insists that the true story of the murder has been covered up by powerful interests, Braude commits to getting to the bottom of it. Braude's risky pursuit of the shocking truth behind the murder takes him from cosmopolitan Marrakesh to the proud Berber heartland, from the homes of the wealthiest and most powerful people in the country to the backstreets of Casablanca where migrants come to make fortunes, jihad, and trouble, but often end up just trying to survive with dignity. The Honored Dead is a timely and riveting mystery about a society in transition, the power of the truth, and the irrepressible human need for justice.
