Freedom and Terror Gabriel Weimann, Abraham Kaplan, 2011-01-07 This book examines reason and unreason in the legal and political responses to terrorism Terrorism is often perceived as sheer madness unreasonable use of extreme violence and senseless futile political action These assertions are challenged by this book Combining traditional thought by Kaplan on reason and unreason in terrorism with empirical explorations of post modern terrorism and its use of communication platforms by Weimann the work uses interdisciplinary and cross disciplinary dimensions to provide a multidimensional picture of critical issues in current politics and a deeper examination of their implications than previously available The book looks at various aspects of modern politics from terrorism to protest from decision making to political discourse applying the perspective of philosophical thought To do so political issues and actions are examined by using concepts such as reason emotions madness magic morality absolutism extremism psychopathology rationality and others The analysis is rooted in theories and concepts derived from history philosophy religion art sociology psychology and political science This book which was mostly written by the late Abraham Kaplan an American philosopher and edited and updated by Gabriel Weimann will be of much interest to students of political violence terrorism philosophy war and conflict studies and political science in general The Magic Mirror Elizabeth M. Baeten,1996-10-17 In this book Elizabeth M Baeten analyzes the theories of myth propounded by Cassirer Barthes Eliade and Hillman and juxtaposes the insights of these very different perspectives to form a coherent account of myth She then shows that these theories perform the same function the authors ascribe to myth itself Moreover not only do the theories of myth function mythically the myth embedded in each theory is the same the telos of human existence is absolute freedom an unbounded power to constitute the subjective and objective features of existence The correlate of this myth of absolute creative freedom Baeten argues is that the truly human must transcend natural determinations Baeten understands this to be a dangerous myth and offers an alternative original account of myth making as an essential strand of cultural production demarcating the human process within the setting of broader natural processes The Great Book of Magical Art, Hindu Magic and East Indian Occultism Lauron William De Laurence,1915 Magic, Rhetoric, and Literacy William A. Covino,1994-07-28 This book presents a selective introductory reading of key texts in the history of magic from antiquity forward in order to construct a suggestive conceptual framework for disrupting our conventional notions about rhetoric and literacy Offering an overarching pointed synthesis of the interpenetration of magic rhetoric and literacy William A Covino draws from theorists ranging from Plato and Cornelius Agrippa to Paulo Freire and Mary Daly and analyzes the different magics that operate in Renaissance occult philosophy and Romantic literature as well as in popular indicators of mass literacy such as The Oprah Winfrey Show and The National Enquirer Magic Rhetoric and Literacy distinguishes two kinds of magic rhetoric that continue to affect our psychological and cultural life today Generative magic rhetoric creates novel possibilities for action within a broad sympathetic universe of signs and symbols Arresting magic rhetoric attempts to induce automatic behavior by inculcating rules and maxims that function like magic ritual formulas JUST SAY NO In this connection the literate individual is one who can interrogate arresting language and generate counter spells Spinegrinder Clive Davies,2015-03-06 First came video and more recently high definition home entertainment through to the internet with its streaming videos and not strictly legal peer to peer capabilities With so many sources available today s fan of horror and exploitation movies isn t necessarily educated on paths well trodden Universal classics 1950s monster movies Hammer as once they were They may not even be born and bred on DAWN OF THE DEAD In fact anyone with a bit of technical savvy quickly becoming second nature for the born clicking generation may be viewing MYSTICS IN BALI and S S EXPERIMENT CAMP long before ever hearing of Bela Lugosi or watching a movie directed by Dario Argento In this world H G Lewis so called godfather of gore carries the same stripes as Alfred Hitchcock master of suspense SPINEGRINDER is one man s ambitious exhaustive and utterly obsessive attempt to make sense of over a century of exploitation and cult cinema of a sort that most critics won t care to write about One opinion
