Mai 68 Lhritage Impobible:

The Imaginary Revolution Michael Seidman, 2004-07-01 The events of 1968 have been seen as a decisive turning point in the Western world The author takes a critical look at May 1968 and questions whether the events were in fact as revolutionary as French and foreign commentators have indicated He concludes the student movement changed little that had not already been challenged and altered in the late fifties and early sixties The workers strikes led to fewer working hours and higher wages but these reforms reflected the secular demands of the French labor movement May 1968 was remarkable not because of the actual transformations it wrought but rather by virtue of the revolutionary power that much of the media and most scholars have attributed to it and which turned it into a symbol of a youthful renewed and freer society in France and beyond

Out of Ashes Konrad H. Jarausch, 2016-08-30 A sweeping history of twentieth century Europe that examines its unprecedented destruction and abiding promise A sweeping history of twentieth century Europe Out of Ashes tells the story of an era of unparalleled violence and barbarity yet also of humanity prosperity and promise Konrad Jarausch describes how the European nations emerged from the nineteenth century with high hopes for continued material progress and proud of their imperial command over the globe only to become embroiled in the bloodshed of World War I which brought an end to their optimism and gave rise to competing democratic communist and fascist ideologies He shows how the 1920s witnessed renewed hope and a flourishing of modernist art and literature but how the decade ended in economic collapse and gave rise to a second more devastating world war and genocide on an unprecedented scale Jarausch further explores how Western Europe surprisingly recovered due to American help and political integration Finally he examines how the Cold War pushed the divided continent to the brink of nuclear annihilation and how the unforeseen triumph of liberal capitalism came to be threatened by Islamic fundamentalism global economic crisis and an uncertain future A gripping narrative Out of Ashes explores the paradox of the European encounter with modernity in the twentieth century shedding new light on why it led to cataclysm inhumanity and self destruction but also social justice democracy and peace

Dreams of Peace and Freedom J. M. Winter, 2006-01-01 In the wake of the monstrous projects of Hitler Stalin Mao and others in the twentieth century the idea of utopia has been discredited Yet historian Jay Winter suggests alongside the major utopians who murdered millions in their attempts to transform the world were disparate groups of people trying in their own separate ways to imagine a radically better world This original book focuses on some of the twentieth century s minor utopias whose stories overshadowed by the horrors of the Holocaust and the Gulag suggest that the future need not be as catastrophic as the past The book is organized around six key moments when utopian ideas and projects flourished in Europe 1900 the Paris World s Fair 1919 the Paris Peace Conference 1937 the Paris exhibition celebrating science and light 1948 the Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1968 moral indictments and student revolt and 1992 the emergence of visions of global citizenship Winter considers the dreamers and the nature of their dreams as well as their connections to one another and to the history of utopian thought By restoring minor utopias to their rightful place in the recent past Winter fills an important gap in the history of social thought and action in the twentieth century Jean-Paul Sartre Jean-Pierre Boulé, 2011-05-25 Jean Paul Sartre Mind and Body Word and Deed celebrates Sartre's polyvalence with an examination of Sartrean philosophy literature and politics In four distinct yet related sections twelve scholars from three continents examine Sartre's thought writing and action over his long career Sartre and the Body reappraises Sartre's work in dialogue with other philosophers past and present including Maine de Biran Maurice Merleau Ponty and Didier Anzieu Sartre and Time offers a first hand account by Michel Contat of Sartre and Beauvoir working together and a philosophy in practice analysis by François Noudelmann Ideology and Politics uses Sartrean notions of commitment and engagement to address modern and contemporary politics including insights into Castro De Gaulle Sarkozy and Obama Finally an important but neglected episode of Sartre's life the visit that he and Beauvoir made to Japan in 1966 is narrated with verve and humour by Professor Suzuki Michihiko who first met Sartre during that visit and remained in touch subsequently Taken together these twelve chapters make a strong case for the continued relevance of Sartre today Understanding European Movements Cristina Flesher Fominaya, Laurence Cox, 2013-07-18 European social movements have been central to European history politics society and culture and have had a global reach and impact Yet they have rarely been taken on their own terms in the English language literature considered rather as counterpoints to the US experience This has been exacerbated by the failure of Anglophone social movement theorists to pay attention to the substantial literatures in languages such as French German Spanish or Italian and by the increasing global dominance of English in the production of news and other forms of media This book sets out to take the European social movement experience seriously on its own terms including the European tradition of social movement theorising particularly in its attempt to understand movement development from the 1960s onwards the extent to which European movements between 1968 and 1999 became precursors for the contemporary anti globalisation movement the construction of the anti capitalist movement of movements within the European setting the new anti austerity protests in Iceland Greece Spain 15 M Indignados and elsewhere This book offers a comprehensive interdisciplinary perspective on the key European social movements in the past forty years It will be of interest for students and scholars of politics and international relations sociology history European studies and social theory Engaging Heritage, Engaging Communities Bryony Oniciul, Michelle L. Stefano, Stephanie Hawke, 2017 International multi disciplinary perspectives on the key question of community engagement in theory and practice in a diverse range of heritage settings Across the global networks of heritage sites museums and galleries the importance of communities to the interpretation and conservation of heritage is increasingly being recognised Yet the very term meaningful community engagement betrays a myriad of contrary approaches and understandings Who is a community How can they engage with heritage and why would they want to How do communities and heritage professionals perceive one another What does it mean to engage These questions unsettle the very foundations of community engagement and indicate a need to unpick this important but complex trend Engaging Heritage Engaging Communities critically explores the latest debates and practices surrounding community collaboration By examining the different ways in which communities participate in heritage projects the book questions the benefits costs and limitations of community engagement Whether communities are engaging through innovative initiatives or in response to economic political or social factors there is a need to understand how such engagements are conceptualised facilitated and experienced by both the organisations and the communities involved Bryony Onciul is Lecturer in History at the University of Exeter Michelle Stefano is the Co Director of Maryland Traditions the folklife program for the state of Maryland and Visiting Assistant Professor in American Studies at the University of Maryland Baltimore County Stephanie Hawke is a project manager and fundraiser working on a range of projects aiming to engage communities with cultural heritage Contributors Gregory Ashworth Evita Busa Helen Graham Julian Hartley Stephanie Hawke Carl Hogsden Shatha Abu Khafajah Nicole King Bernadette Lynch Billie Lythberg Conal McCarthy Ashley Minner Wayne Ngata Bryony Onciul Elizabeth Pishief Gregory Ramshaw Philipp Schorch Justin Sikora Michelle Stefano Helen Tully John Tunbridge The Wind From the East Richard Wolin, 2017-11-14 How Maoism captured the imagination of French intellectuals during the 1960s Michel Foucault Jean Paul Sartre Julia Kristeva Phillipe Sollers and Jean Luc Godard During the 1960s a who's who of French thinkers writers and artists spurred by China's Cultural Revolution were seized with a fascination for Maoism Combining a merciless exposé of left wing political folly and cross cultural misunderstanding with a spirited defense of the 1960s The Wind from the East tells the colorful story of this legendary period in France Richard Wolin shows how French students and intellectuals inspired by their perceptions of the Cultural Revolution and motivated by utopian hopes incited grassroots social movements and reinvigorated French civic and cultural life Wolin's riveting narrative reveals that Maoism's allure among France's best and brightest actually had little to do with a real understanding of Chinese politics Instead it paradoxically served as a vehicle for an emancipatory transformation of French society Recounting the cultural and political odyssey of French students and intellectuals in the 1960s The Wind from the East illustrates how the Maoist phenomenon unexpectedly sparked a democratic political sea change in France Berlusconi o il '68 realizzato Mario Perniola, 2023-07-21 T00:00:00+02:00 Berlusconi ha realizzato gli ideali del Sessantotto Questo libro non parte da una provocazione ma da un'attenta analisi senza paura di scandalizzare Come solo un grande filosofo può fare Mario Perniola mostra in Berlusconi tutti gli obiettivi da cui il Sessantotto fu pervaso fine del lavoro e della famiglia distruzione dell'università deregolamentazione della sessualità discredito delle competenze mediche ostilità nei confronti delle istituzioni giudiziarie vitalismo giovanilistico trionfo della comunicazione massmediatica e oblio della storia Ed ecco che tutto ciò con Berlusconi è diventato realtà Mai 68, l'affiche en heritage Michel Wlassikoff, 2008 Military Necessity in International Cultural Heritage Law Berenika Drazewska, 2021-12-13 This book offers the first comprehensive scholarly analysis of the current meaning and scope of military necessity a key concept in the international legal framework for the protection of cultural heritage during armed conflicts since the adoption of the 1954 Hague Convention Academic discussions commonly view military necessity uniquely through the lens of international humanitarian or international criminal law In her book Berenika Drazewska presents a more comprehensive perspective examining developments across various strands of international law arisen since 1954 This novel approach demonstrates how international cultural heritage law affords a particularly strict meaning to military necessity As a result the relative waiver will only be available to belligerents very rarely in truly extraordinary circumstances Drazewska s Military Necessity in International Cultural Heritage Law engages a significant issue in this rapidly evolving field of international law the inclusion of necessity in regulation of the protection of cultural heritage during armed conflict after 1945 Its very inclusion was viewed as a major concession which is only multiplied because of the difficulties of its application on the ground This thorny issue has come to the fore again with large scale cultural losses inflicted during recent armed conflicts Elegantly written and scholarly in its approach this book places this question and possible answers to it within the broader sweep of international law and recent developments not only in international humanitarian law but state responsibility international criminal law and international criminal law It offers a significant and timely reexamination and reconceptualization of this important topic Prof Ana Filipa Vrdoljak UNESCO Chair in International Law Cultural Heritage Faculty of Law University of Technology Sydney
