Main Currents Of Marxism Its Rise Growth And Dissolution I Founders:

Main Currents of Marxism Leszek Kolakowski,1978 Modes of Production and Archaeology Robert M.

Rosenswig,Jeremy J. Cunningham,2017-05-15 This volume challenges the historical materialistic non capitalist modes that are used by archaeologists as not all that useful and instead considers how social labor is organized to transform nature into culturally refined and useful resources and how this can either maintain or change a culture Rather than describe what a society is using the theoretical framework of Marx and materialism a mode of production approach explores what a society does in a more dynamic sense Handbook of Critical Psychology Ian Parker,2015-04-17 Choice Recommended Read

Critical psychology has developed over time from different standpoints and in different cultural contexts embracing a variety of perspectives This cutting edge and comprehensive handbook values and reflects this diversity of approaches to critical psychology today providing a definitive state of the art account of the field and an opening to the lines of argument that will take it forward in the years to come The individual chapters by leading and emerging scholars plot the development of a critical perspective on different elements of the host discipline of psychology The book begins by systematically addressing each separate specialist area of psychology before going on to consider how aspects of critical psychology transcend the divisions that mark the discipline The final part of the volume explores the variety of cultural and political standpoints that have made critical psychology such a vibrant contested terrain of debate The Handbook of Critical Psychology represents a key resource for researchers and practitioners across all relevant disciplines It will be of particular interest to students and researchers in psychology psychosocial studies sociology social anthropology and cultural studies and to discourse analysts of different traditions including those in critical linguistics and political theory Mass Education, Global Capital, and the World T. Griffiths,R. Imre,2013-12-18 By presenting a series of intricate analyses of educational phenomena through the theoretical lenses offered by Immanuel Wallerstein and Istv n M sz ros the book engages readers and helps them to critically analyze their own participation in the global economy as citizens policy makers and academics or teachers Rationality

Standards of Social Life Zbigniew Drozdowicz,2013 The standards of rationality are treated in this book as certain regulators of social life They are compared to the rudders of the great vessels constituted by social communities The diversity exhibited by those standards do not only result from the differences of time and space of their implementation but also from the differences in the sets of ideas put forward by the leading social thinkers accompanied by the different characteristics of their designated audiences Series Development in Humanities Vol 7 The Political Economy of Marx (2nd Edition) Michael Charles Howard,1988-09 This edition of The political economy of Marx Second edition is published by arrangement with Longman Group UK Limited T p verso Cognition and Practice Rafal Banka,2022-07-01 This is the first book on the role of cognition in the aesthetic theory of Li Zehou 1930 2021 one of China s most important and influential contemporary philosophers The cognitive dimension and its integration with practice is discussed by examining one of Li s pivotal concepts subjectivity a human subject shaped by the world in which they live including beauty and aesthetic experience Li's theory is also contextualized in the threefold inspiration coming from Confucian Kantian and Marxist philosophies which differently conceptualize the aesthetic and cognitive dimensions in humans By referring to different aesthetic theories and interdisciplinary approaches to cognition the book aims to show how Li's cognitively oriented project can contribute to contemporary research into aesthetics Although primarily written for philosophers working in aesthetics Chinese and comparative philosophy the book is also addressed to anyone interested in contemporary Chinese thought

The Incarcerated Modern Golnar Nikpour, 2024-02-06 Iran's prison system is a foundational institution of Iranian political modernity The Incarcerated Modern traces the transformation of Iran from a decentralized empire with few imprisoned persons at the turn of the twentieth century into a modern nation state with over a quarter million prisoners today In policing the line between bad criminal and good citizen the carceral system has shaped and reshaped Iranian understandings of citizenship freedom and political belonging Golnar Nikpour explores the interplay between the concrete space of the Iranian prison and the role of prisons in producing new public cultures and political languages in Iran From prison writings of 1920s leftist prisoners and communists of 1950s militant Islamists to paintings of 1970s revolutionary guerrillas and mapping projects organized by contemporary dissident prisoners carceral confinement has shaped modern Iranian political movements Today mass incarceration is a global phenomenon The Incarcerated Modern connects Iranian history to transnational carceral histories to illuminate the shared architectures economies and techniques of modern punishment

The House in the Garden John Randolph, 2018-07-05 Aspiring thinkers require a stage for their performance and an audience to help give their actions distinction and meaning To be made durable and influential their charismatic stories have to be framed by supporting ideals practices and institutions Although the biographies of the Empire's most famous thinkers have a comfortable platform in modern Russia's printed record scholars have yet to explore fully the intimate context surrounding their activities in the early nineteenth century There is as a result a certain homeless quality to our understandings of Imperial Russian culture which this history of one extremely productive home will help us correct from

The House in the Garden The House in the Garden explores the role played by domesticity in the making of Imperial Russian intellectual traditions It tells the story of the Bakunins a distinguished noble family who in 1779 chose to abandon their home in St Petersburg for a rustic manor house in central Russia's Tver Province At the time the Russian government was encouraging its elite subjects to see their private lives as a forum for the representation of imperial virtues and norms Drawing on the family's vast archive Randolph describes the Bakunins attempts to live up to this ideal and to convert their new home Priamukhino into an example of modern civilization In particular Randolph shows how the Bakunin home fostered the development of a group of charismatic young students from Moscow University who in the 1830s sought to use their experiences at Priamukhino to reimagine themselves as agents of Russia's enlightenment Some of the story Randolph tells is familiar to historians The anarchist Mikhail Bakunin whose early philosophical evolution Randolph describes was born at Priamukhino while the radical critic Vissarion Belinsky claimed to have been transformed by his experiences there When Tom Stoppard sought to portray the spiritual history of the Russian intelligentsia in his trilogy The Coast of Utopia he chose Priamukhino as the scene for act 1 Yet Randolph's research allows us to watch this drama from a radically different perspective It shows how the culture of Russian Idealism so long presumed to be a product of alienation actually relied on the support provided by the cult of distinction that the Russian government had built around noble homes It also allows us to see the other actors and agents of private life and most notably the Bakunin women as participants in the creation of modern Russian social thought The result is a work that revises our understanding of Russian intellectual history while also contributing to the histories of women gender private life and memory in nineteenth century Russia

Postmodern Marx
Terrell Carver, 2010-11-01 Marx has changed What we read how we read and why we read Marx have all altered dramatically This book explores these multiple new Marxes In ten thematic chapters Carver examines unfamiliar texts and new aspects of Marx's writings ranging from vampires in Capital to his vision of communism in recently re-edited manuscripts Marx's career in democratic politics is re-evaluated and his relationship to the gender politics of his day and ours is explored Most importantly Carver re-assesses the strengths and weaknesses of Marx as a theorist and critic of capitalist society This book will appeal to anyone who wants a fresh perspective on Marx arising from a reconciliation of historical scholarship with the de-centredness of postmodern writing
