Edward Wang, Supriya Mukherjee, 2013-09-13 So far histories of historiography have concentrated almost exclusively on the West This is the first book to offer a history of modern historiography from a global perspective Tracing the transformation of historical writings over the past two and half centuries the book portrays the transformation of historical writings under the effect of professionalization which served as a model not only for Western but also for much of non Western historical studies At the same time it critically examines the reactions in post modern and post colonial thought to established conceptions of scientific historiography A main theme of the book is how historians in the non Western world not only adopted or adapted Western ideas but also explored different approaches rooted in their own cultures

Global History with Chinese Characteristics Manuel Perez-Garcia,2020-11-02 This open access book considers a pivotal era in Chinese history from a global perspective This book s insight into Chinese and international history offers timely and challenging perspectives on initiatives like Chinese characteristics The New Silk Road and One Belt One Road in broad historical context Global History with Chinese Characteristics analyses the feeble state capacity of Qing China questioning the so called High Qing sh ng q ng era s economic prosperity as the political system was set into a power paradox or supremacy dilemma This is a new thesis introduced by the author demonstrating that interventionist states entail weak governance Macao and Marseille as a new case study aims to compare Mediterranean and South China markets to provide new insights into both modern eras rising trade networks non official institutions and interventionist impulses of autocratic states such as China s Qing and Spain s Bourbon empires
