Rethinking World History Marshall G. S. Hodgson, 1993-05-28 Is the history of the modern world the history of Europe writ large Or is it possible to situate the history of modernity as a world historical process apart from its origins in Western Europe In this posthumous collection of essays Marshall G S Hodgson challenges adherents of both Eurocentrism and multiculturalism to rethink the place of Europe in world history He argues that the line that connects Ancient Greeks to the Renaissance to modern times is an optical illusion and that a global and Asia centred history can better locate the European experience in the shared histories of humanity Hodgson then shifts the historical focus and in a parallel move seeks to locate the history of Islamic civilisation in a world historical framework In so doing he concludes that there is but one history global history and that all partial or privileged accounts must necessarily be resituated in a world historical context The book also includes an introduction by the editor Edmund Burke contextualising Hodgson s work in world history and Islamic history

Methods in World History Arne Jarrick, Janken Myrdal, Maria Wallenberg Bondesson, 2016-01-07 Methods in World History is the first international volume that systematically addresses a number of methodological problems specific to the field of World History Prompted by a lack of applicable works the authors advocate a considerable sharpening of the tools used within the discipline Theories constructed on poor foundations run an obvious risk of reinforcing flawed assumptions and of propping up other more ideological constructions The dedicated critical approach outlined in this volume helps to mitigate such risks Each essay addresses a particular issue discussing its problems giving practical examples and offering solutions and ways of overcoming the difficulties involved The perspectives are varied the criticism focussed and a common theme of coalescence is maintained throughout This unique anthology will be of great use to advanced scholars of World History and to students entering the field for the first time

Confronting Mainstream Economics for Overcoming Capitalism Rémy Herrera, 2022-07-06 This book provides analytical arguments that demonstrate the necessity to go beyond not only mainstream economics but also and especially the capitalist economy itself It provides a radical critique of mainstream economics comparing it to an unscientific form of single thought and applies this criticism to the specific fields of growth development the institutions defense or the environment It targets both neoclassical economics and reformist soft heterodox currents from neoinstitutionalists to neo Keynesians including Thomas Piketty or Amartya Sen among others In doing so it rejects Keynes theories of money the crisis and the state It then offers a Marxist interpretation of the current crisis of capitalism considering it as a systemic crisis without solutions internal to its own logic and dynamics and emphasizes the links between this capitalist crisis and imperialist wars and the destruction of the environment and natural resources by capital The book concludes by arguing that we must find the necessary theoretical and practical alternatives in a Marxist perspective advocating for socialist transitions away from the capitalist economy to protect humanity and the environment

The Belt and Road Initiative and Australian Mainstream Media Jon Yuan Jiang, 2024-04-01 This book focuses on Australian mainstream media narratives about the Belt and Road Initiative BRI from 2013 to 2020 Set against the background of Sino Australian relations and taking into account the different media systems of China and Australia this book also critically investigates the Chinese public diplomacy narratives of the BRI Drawing on my analysis and semi structured interviews with prominent experts in this area the book addresses an important but under explored question how have Australian mainstream media narratives portrayed the BRI of the Chinese Government from 2013 to 2020 This book fills a gap regarding the portrayal of the BRI in Australian mainstream media and provides new insights into the reasons for narrative shifts in the coverage of the BRI More concretely the book finds that the public diplomacy narratives of the BRI were not explained well by Chinese officials thus allowing Australian journalists and commentators to project their own negative fearful narratives of China onto the BRI project particularly from 2017 onwards More importantly this book argues that the Australian Federal Government s policy towards China had a significant impact on the Australian media s coverage of the BRI that the media clearly followed the Australian Federal Government s lead and not vice versa Thus in many ways Australian mainstream media narratives of the BRI have had a similar outcome as China s ostensibly much more restrictive and propagandistic state dominated media system Noticeably this book not only has academic significance in the international research community but also holds practical importance in the real world benefiting Australian business leaders media professionals think tank specialists and policymakers
