Military Statecraft and the Rise of Shaping in World Politics Kyle J. Wolfley, 2021-06-29 Winner of the Andrew F Krepinevich Writing Award A 2022 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title Selected for the Irregular Warfare Initiative's Inaugural Reading List 2022 In today's complex international environment how do the United States China and Russia manage the return of great power competition as well as the persistent threat of violent non state actors This book explores shaping the use of military power to construct a more favorable environment by influencing the characteristics of other militaries altering the relationships between them or managing the behavior of allies As opposed to traditional strategies of warfighting or coercion shaping relies less on threats demonstrations and uses of violence and more on attraction persuasion and legitimacy Because shaping relies more on soft power than on hard power this approach contradicts the conventional wisdom of the purpose militaries serve Kyle J Wolfley explores the emergence of shaping in classical strategy and its increased frequency following the end of the Cold War when threats and allies became more ambiguous He illustrates the four logics of shaping attraction socialization delegation and assurance through five case studies of recent major military exercise programs led by the United States China India the United Kingdom and Russia Moreover the author reveals through sentiment analysis and statistics of over one thousand multinational exercises from 1980 to 2016 how major powers reacted to a complex international environment by expanding the number and scope of shaping exercises Illuminating an understudied but surprisingly common tool of military statecraft this book offers a fresh understanding of military power in today's competitive international system

American Exceptionalism and American Innocence Roberto Sirvent, Danny Haiphong, 2019-04-02 Fake news existed long before Donald Trump What is ironic is that fake news has indeed been the only news disseminated by the rulers of U S empire From American Exceptionalism and American Innocence According to Robert Sirvent and Danny Haiphong Americans have been exposed to fake news throughout our history news that slavery is a thing of the past that we don't live on stolen land that wars are fought to spread freedom and democracy that a rising tide lifts all boats that prisons keep us safe and that the police serve and protect Thus the only news ever reported by various channels of U S empire is the news of American exceptionalism and American innocence And as this book will hopefully show it's all fake Did the U S really save the world in World War II Should black athletes stop protesting and show more gratitude for what America has done for them Are wars fought to spread freedom and democracy Or is this all fake news American Exceptionalism and American Innocence examines the stories we're told that lead us to think that the U S is a force for good in the world regardless of slavery the genocide of indigenous people and the more than a century's worth of imperialist war that the U S has wrought on the planet Sirvent and Haiphong detail just what Captain America's shield tells us about the pretensions of U S foreign policy how Angelina Jolie and Bill Gates engage in humanitarian imperialism and why the

Broadway musical Hamilton is a monument to white supremacy The Ideology of Tyranny G. Preparata, 2007-09-14 The book ascribes the late state of paralysis affecting dissent in America to the adoption of a peculiar gospel of divisiveness which was promoted in the Eighties by importing from France the theories of philosopher Michel Foucault The Magma of War Edgar Illas, 2024-06-21 War from the conflicts in the Middle East and Russia Ukraine to Mexican narco violence from neocolonial land grabs in the Global South to racial border health and climate crises all over the planet defines the most extreme and contradictory expression of the global world In this fascinating exploration on the history of the thinking of conflict Edgar Illas departs from military and sociological analyses to propose a theoretical exploration of war as the ontological force that produces political orders Magma is used as a geological metaphor to theorize the mixtures of politics and war that organize and disorganize global society Divided into two parts Illas study begins by surveying some of the most important thinkers of war moving from classical antiquity to the twentieth century Each thinker provides a different inflection in the historical evolution of the being of war The second part turns to a theorization of the twenty first century to claim that conflictive relations between capital state power political movements and social life in globalization culminate and at the same time reiterate the paradoxes of war as an ontological event The Magma of War is an energizing contribution to the task of rethinking politics in relation to war and an invaluable resource to all those conscious of the unstable forms of contemporary social and political life Masculinity and Monstrosity in Contemporary Hollywood Films K. Combe, B. Boyle, 2013-11-11 In film Men are good and Monsters are bad In this book Combe and Boyle consider the monstrous body as a metaphor for the cultural body and regard gendered behavior as a matter of performativity Taken together these two identity positions manliness and monsterliness offer a window into the workings of current American society

Environmental Anarchy? Mark Beeson, 2021-07-23 What does it mean to be secure in the 21st century Mark Beeson argues that some of the most influential ideas about national and even global security reflect untenable anachronistic strategic views that are simply no longer appropriate for contemporary international circumstances At a time when climate change poses an existential threat to the continuation of life itself Beeson argues that there is an urgent need to rethink security priorities while we still can Providing an explanation of the failures and dangers of the conventional wisdom he outlines the case for a new approach that takes issues like environmental and human security seriously Mass Media, Mass Propaganda Anthony DiMaggio, 2008-04-28 Mass Media Mass Propaganda analyzes a wide range of issues domestic and international concerning American and global news coverage of the U S War on Terror Topics reviewed include media coverage of the invasion and occupation of Iraq the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction Iraqi civil war and resistance to occupation September 11th and Operation Enduring Freedom in Afghanistan human rights violations in Iraq domestic anti way dissent and censorship and potential future targets in the War on Terror This work approaches the study of media through a political economy analysis examining the ways in which the American corporate media works to reinforce official views and propaganda and the ways in which it challenges official pro war platforms A comparative approach is taken in contrasting the American mass media with other media institutions from the Progressive Left American press the British and Australian press and Arab electronic media Major models analyzed and evaluated throughout this work include the Propaganda Model developed by Noam Chomsky and Edward Herman and the Indexing Model elaborated upon by scholars such as W Lance Bennett Steven Livingston and Jonathan Mermin

A Century of Media, a Century of War Robin Andersen, 2006 Topics include the arms supply scandal involving Lieutenant Colonel Oliver North in 1987 the Gulf War and TV channel CNN the films Black hawk down Courage under fire Three kings Saving Private Ryan

Globalisms Manfred B. Steger, 2008-12-16 This new edition of Manfred Steger s award winning book explores the three principal ideologies of our time the dominant market globalism based on a neoliberal vision of the world as a single marketplace the justice globalism developed over the last decade by a transnational coalition of global civil society forces and the jihadist globalism of radical Islamists seeking to galvanize their global community of believers into violent action Market globalism has responded to these challengers by turning into imperial globalism a political belief system that marries the capitalist language of the 1990s with the security concerns of our post 9 11 world Steger one of the world s leading scholars on these subjects explores globalization s central questions What exactly are the core claims of these conflicting globalisms How does the imperial globalism of the 2000s differ from the market globalism of the 1990s How has justice globalism managed to mature into a coherent ideology What are the most likely future trajectories of this great ideological struggle of the twenty first century Written with impressive historical and theoretical breadth this groundbreaking work is essential reading for all those concerned with the key questions that our shrinking world must face

Against Religion, Wars, and States Andrew Fiala, 2013-08-15 In Against Religion Wars and States The Case for Enlightenment Atheism Just War Pacifism and Liberal Democratic Anarchism Andrew Fiala argues that societally we must radically redefine our goals A renewed focus on global justice a heightened criticism of religion and a fuller embrace of enlightened humanism and the sciences are just some of the ways in which we can begin to address some of the problems endemic to our society and ultimately bring about more lasting peace Fiala argues both theoretically and empirically moving from analyses of theology ethics and political philosophy to case studies and data mined from these respective disciplines and from the fallout of recent world events involving all three Fiala attempts to wean us off of our deferral to the oppressive forces that spark movements like Occupy and the Arab Spring forces that manifest themselves in the brutal drug wars along our borders and in the currently fractious and bigoted rhetoric of some of our most powerful political and religious leaders Against Religion Wars and States provides a provocative unified and revolutionary critical theory for all who are skeptical of the religious political and military powers that be and points the way towards a more peaceful just and reasoned future

Gender and American Politics Sue Tolleson-Rinehart, Jyl J Josephson, 2016-09-16 Studies of gender and American political life most often focus only on women This book fills the gap by examining and comparing the roles and behavior of both men and women in political decision making public policy and political institutions Now updated and expanded the book presents a full complement of empirical studies of real and imagined gender gaps New to this edition are chapters on the media legislative behavior foreign policy and the future of the gender dimension in American politics The book is structured to parallel the typical course on the American political system

Martial Culture, Silver Screen Matthew Christopher Hulbert, Matthew E. Stanley, 2020-11-04 Martial Culture Silver Screen analyzes war movies one of the most popular genres in American cinema for what they reveal about the narratives and ideologies that shape U S national identity Edited by Matthew Christopher Hulbert and Matthew E Stanley this volume explores the extent to which the motion picture industry particularly Hollywood has played an outsized role in the construction and evolution of American self definition Moving chronologically eleven essays highlight cinematic versions of military and cultural conflicts spanning from the American Revolution to the War on Terror Each focuses on a selection of films about a specific war or historical period often foregrounding recent productions that remain understudied in the critical literature on cinema history and cultural memory Scrutinizing cinema through the lens of nationalism and its invention of tradition Martial Culture Silver Screen considers how movies possess the power to frame ideologies provide social coherence betray collective neuroses and fears construct narratives of victimhood or heroism forge communities of remembrance and cement tradition and convention Hollywood war films routinely present broad identifiable narratives such as that of the rugged pioneer or the good war through which filmmakers invent representations of the past establishing narratives that advance discrete social and political functions in the present As a result cinematic versions of wartime conflicts condition and reinforce popular understandings of American national character as it relates to violence individualism democracy militarism capitalism masculinity race class and empire Approaching war movies as identity forging apparatuses and tools of social power Martial Culture Silver Screen lays bare how cinematic versions of warfare have helped define for audiences what it means to be American

We Kill Because We Can Laurie Calhoun, 2015-09-15 Welcome to the Drone Age Where self defense has become naked aggression Where courage has become cowardice Where black ops have become standard operating procedure In this remarkable and often shocking book Laurie Calhoun dissects the moral psychological and cultural impact of remote control killing in the twenty first century Can a drone operator conducting a targeted killing be likened to a mafia hitman What difference if any is there between the Trayvon Martin case and the drone killing of a teen in Yemen We Kill Because We Can takes a scalpel to the dark heart of Western foreign policy in order to answer these and many other troubling questions

The Political Ideas of Thorstein Veblen Sidney Plotkin, Rick Tilman, 2011-12-06 Thorstein Veblen is best known for his authorship of The Theory of the Leisure Class and The Theory of Business Enterprise which made him a celebrated figure in the fields of economics and sociology at the turn of the twentieth century In this book Sidney Plotkin and Rick Tilman argue that in addition to his well known work in these fields Veblen also made important and until now overlooked statements about politics While Veblen s writings seldom mention politics they are saturated with political ideas about the relationship among war executive power and democracy about the similarities between modern executive positions and monarchy about the political influence of corporate power about the symbolism of politics and about many other issues By demonstrating the deep relevance of Veblen s writings to today s political troubles The Political Ideas of Thorstein Veblen offers an important reconsideration of a major American thinker Immovable Object A. Abrams,2020-10-01 North Korea and the United States have been officially at war for over 70 years one of the longest lasting and most unbalanced conflicts in world history in which a small East Asian state has held its own against a Western superpower for over three generations With the Western world increasingly pivoting its attention towards Northeast Asia and the region likely to play a more central role in the global economy North Korea s importance as a strategically located country potential economic powerhouse and major opponent of Western regional hegemony will only grow over the coming decades This work is the first fully comprehensive study of the ongoing war between the two parties and covers the history of the conflict from the first American clashes with Korea s nationalist movement in 1945 and imposition of its military rule over southern Korea to North Korea s nuclear deterrence program and ongoing tensions with the U S today The nature of the antagonism between the two states one profoundly influenced by both decolonisation and wartime memory and the other uncompromising in its attempts to globally impose its leadership and ideology is covered in detail Northern Korea is one of very few inhabited parts of the world never to have been placed under Western rule and its fiercely nationalist identity as a deeply Confucian civilization state has made it considerably more difficult to tackle than almost any other American adversary This work elucidates the conflicting ideologies and the discordant designs for the Korean nation which have fueled the war and explores emerging fields of conflict which have become increasingly central in recent years such as economic and information warfare Prevailing trends in the conflict and its global implications including the multiple wars that have been waged by proxy are also examined in detail An in depth assessment of the past provides context key to understanding the future trajectories this relationship could take and how a continuing shift in global order away from Western unipolarity is likely to influence its future To understand where the Korean Peninsula might go in the rest of the 21st century Abrams telling of the story of how the two countries got to where they are today is essential ANKIT PANDA senior editor The Diplomat even those who find his conclusions unpalatable will be forced to weigh them carefully JOHN EVERARD former British Ambassador to North Korea Killer Robots Armin Krishnan,2016-04-22 Military robots and other potentially autonomous robotic systems such as unmanned combat air vehicles UCAVs and unmanned ground vehicles UGVs could soon be introduced to the battlefield Look further into the future and we may see autonomous micro and nanorobots armed and deployed in swarms of thousands or even millions This growing automation of warfare may come to represent a major discontinuity in the history of warfare humans will first be removed from the battlefield and may one day even be largely excluded from the decision cycle in future high tech and high speed robotic warfare Although the current technological issues will no doubt be overcome the greatest obstacles to automated weapons on the battlefield are likely to be legal and ethical concerns Armin Krishnan explores the technological legal and ethical issues connected to combat robotics examining both the opportunities and limitations of autonomous weapons He also proposes solutions to the future regulation of military robotics through international law

The assassination of Patrice Lumumba Dr Ley G. Ikpo & Miss Jackline Seka Sahlberg, Congo a former Belgian colony at the beginning of the independence of the territory a brave and dedicated leader Patrice Emery Lumumba won the election and was appointed Prime Minister As the first Prime Minister of a democratic Congo the newly elected representative of the country filled with devotion had in mind to providing Congolese with a better future He therefore fought on behalf of Congolese His methods were disliked by the former colonizers for whom he became a danger to their interests in Congo after his speech on independence day on June 30 1960 Since then various plots were arranged against him to be killed Those conspiracies never succeeded against him since they were unfortunately aborted for the most The country fell into a state of incredible disrepair due to recurrent oppositions since September 14 of that year Soon Mobutu's forces backed by the CIA arrested Lumumba on December 1 1960 and he was guarded by the UN troops Later Lumumba was sent to Elizabethville in the Katanga the territory of his rival Moïse Tshombe At his arrival he was beaten by both Katanga's and Belgians forces to death On January 17 1960 Patrice Emery Lumumba the first Prime Minister of the Democratic Republic of Congo was assassinated in cold blood by various perpetrators After 61 years in Belgium the remaining teeth were sent back to the DRC for burial on June 30 2022
