Dice Have No Memory William Bonner, 2011-03-10 Right now Congress the Fed and the Treasury are all gambling with your future and your money And it's contagious Economies around the globe are suffering from the biggest multitrillion dollar bets ever wagered on big governments and miraculous financial interventions in pretend free markets One man saw it all coming and told his readers well in advance of today's crisis Bill Bonner reports on the true health and well being of the world's largest economy to over half a million readers each day in The Daily Reckoning His newsletter is to the mainstream financial press what the Gnostic Gospels are to the King James Bible Back in 2000 Bill Bonner sounded like a prophet crying in the wilderness While everyone scrambled to purchase shares of the latest and hottest dot com Bill announced his Trade of the Decade Sell dollars buy gold Back in 2000 you could get an ounce for around 264 Today you could pay as much as 1 400 for that same ounce Finally some of Bonner's best pronouncements predictions and profitable analysis are collected in one place Dice Have No Memory gather's Bonner's richest insights from August 1999 through November 2010 to form a chronological narrative of economics in America Here's a fraction of what you'll find inside Gold says I Told You So Three out of Four Economists Are Wrong Imperial Overstretch Marks Why Debt Does Matter Economic Zombies Shuffle Towards Bankruptcy Bonner's Dice Have No Memory offers elegies for economists tips for investors tirades against wasteful warfare past and present and practical guides to modern finance with graceful prose well earned intelligence and riotous irreverence Bill Bonner's common sense genius rips the window dressing off modern finance a world normally populated by misguided do gooders corrupt politicians and big bankers empowered by dubious mathematical truths The investing game is rigged just like Monte Carlo Instead of giving you magic formulas this archcontrarian teaches you how to think clearly And Dice Have No Memory gives today's investor the next moves he should make before it's too late Possessed by Memory Harold Bloom, 2020-03-17 Wonderful Spectacular You feel the pulse of life what poetry can bring to us if we let it The Philadelphia Inquirer This audacious personal odyssey offers readers a cosmos of possibilities when contemplating what happens once we shuffle off this mortal coil The Christian Science Monitor An elegiac meditation on a life lived through books O The Oprah Magazine The great critic revisits the literature that has meant most to him The New York Times Book Review Here is the daringly original literary critic's most personal book a four part spiritual autobiography in the form of brief luminous readings of poetry drama and prose much of which he has known by heart since childhood As one of his own mentors M H Abrams has said to read Bloom's commentaries is like reading classic authors by flashes of lightning Gone are the polemics here Bloom argues elegiacally with nobody but himself In A Voice she Heard Before the World Was Made he offers startling meditations on foundational concerns of Biblical study In the Elegy Season finds him coming to terms movingly from a new vantage with writers on whom he has brooded for much of his life And with brio and bravura in The Imperfect Is Our Paradise Bloom ranges dazzlingly through twentieth century American poetry from Wallace Stevens to Amy Clampitt Possessed by Memory in short is essential Bloom Renaissance Clothing and the Materials of Memory Ann Rosalind Jones, Peter Stallybrass, 2000 During the late sixteenth century fashion first took on the sense of restless change in contrast to the older sense of fashioning or making As fashionings clothes were perceived as material forms of personal and social identity which made the man or woman In Renaissance Clothing and the Materials of Memory Jones and Stallybrass argue that the making and transmission of fabrics and clothing were central to the making of Renaissance culture Their examination explores the role of clothes as forms of memory transmitted from master to servant from friend to friend from lover to lover This 2001 book offers a close reading of literary texts paintings textiles theatrical documents and ephemera to reveal how clothing and textiles were crucial to the making and unmaking of concepts of status gender sexuality and religion in the Renaissance The book is illustrated with a wide range of images from portraits to embroidery Delight and power in speech Leonard G. Nattkemper, George Wharton James, 2025-03-02 Delight and Power in Speech is a vibrant anthology that traverses the vast landscape of oratory and eloquence exploring the myriad ways in which language can inspire persuade and empower This collection offers a rich tapestry of literary styles from the rhythmic and timeless beauty of classic speeches to the dynamic and engaging narratives of contemporary oratory Within its pages the anthology celebrates the diversity and significance of speech making as an art form with standout pieces that resonate with the power of words while embodying a range of human experiences and emotions Edited by Leonard G Nattkemper and George Wharton James this collection hails speech as both an art and a catalyst for change reflecting a deep understanding of its transformative impact throughout history The contributors to Delight and Power in Speech are a distinguished assembly of voices each bringing their unique perspective and expertise to the theme of eloquence Their collective oeuvre is a testament to the enduring influence of historical and cultural movements that have shaped the art of speech By blending insights from varied backgrounds from literature to social activism this anthology encapsulates the vast potency of spoken word as a communal experience that transcends time and place This anthology is highly recommended for readers who wish to immerse themselves in the art of speech and gain a deeper appreciation of its dynamic power and impact Delight and Power in Speech invites audiences to explore the interplay of voices styles and themes providing a comprehensive understanding that is both educational and profound It encourages a dynamic dialogue between the past and the present offering readers an enriching experience that highlights the intricacies and beauty of oratory within a single captivating volume

Television History, the Peabody Archive, and Cultural Memory Ethan Thompson, Jeffrey P. Jones, Lucas Hatlen, 2019 Television History the Peabody Archive and Cultural Memory is the first edited volume devoted to the Peabody Awards Collection a unique repository of radio and TV programs submitted yearly since 1941 for consideration for the prestigious Peabody Awards The essays in this volume explore the influence of the Peabody Awards Collection as an archive of the vital medium of TV turning their attention to the wealth of programs considered for Peabody Awards that were not honored and thus have largely been forgotten and yet have the potential to reshape our understanding of American television history Because the collection contains programming produced by stations across the nation it is a distinctive repository of cultural memory many of the programs found in it are not represented in the canon that dominates our understanding of American broadcast history The contributions to this volume ask a range of important questions What do we find if we look to the archive for what s been forgotten How does our understanding of gender class or racial representations shift What different strategies did producers use to connect with audiences and construct communities that may be lost This volume s contributors examine intersections of citizenship and subjectivity in public service programs compare local and national coverage of particular individuals and social issues and draw our attention to types of programming that have disappeared Together they show how locally produced programs from both commercial and public stations have acted on behalf of their communities challenging representations of culture politics and people

The British Slave Trade and Public Memory Elizabeth Kowaleski Wallace,2006-01-11 How does a contemporary society restore to its public memory a momentous event like its own participation in transatlantic slavery What are the stakes of once more restoring the slave trade to public memory What can be learned from this history Elizabeth Kowaleski Wallace explores these questions in her study of depictions and remembrances of British involvement in the slave trade Skillfully incorporating a range of material Wallace discusses and analyzes how museum exhibits novels television shows movies and a play created and produced in Britain from 1990 to 2000 grappled with the subject of slavery Topics discussed include a walking tour in the former slave trading port of Bristol novels by Caryl Phillips and Barry Unsworth a television adaptation of Jane Austen s Mansfield Park and a revival of Aphra Behn s Oroonoko for the Royal Shakespeare Company In each case Wallace reveals how these works and performances illuminate and obscure the history of the slave trade and its legacy While Wallace focuses on Britain her work also speaks to questions of how the United States and other nations remember inglorious chapters from their past
