Men Made New An Exposition Of Romans 5 8:

Men Made New John R. W. Stott, 1984 The Epistle to the Romans Douglas J. Moo, 1996-09-30 Paul's letter to the Romans has been called the quintessence and perfection of saving doctrine. Perhaps the most challenging and thoroughly doctrinal book of the entire New Testament, Romans deals with many issues that are basic to Christian theology and practice. In The Epistle to the Romans, respected New Testament scholar Douglas Moo provides a superb study of Paul's letter to the Roman Christians and restates the enduring message of Romans for Christians today. Originally written for the Wycliffe Exegetical Commentary series, this work has been substantially expanded and adapted for the NICNT series; it now treats the entire book of Romans rather than the first half. Based on the English text but bringing into the discussion the underlying Greek at every point, this commentary focuses both on theological meaning and on contemporary significance. Moo makes a contribution to the continuing debate regarding Paul's teaching on such issues as Jewish law and the relationship between the Jews and Gentiles in the people of God. He also critically interacts with the new perspective on Paul, highlights Romans's emphasis on practical divinity, and traces the theme of gospel throughout the epistle. A Commentary on Romans John D. Harvey, 2019-03-26 An exegetical and practical commentary for pastors and teachers. This volume in the Kregel Exegetical Library combines up-to-date scholarship and concrete application to serve as an ideal guide for preaching and teaching the foundational New Testament book of Romans. After an in-depth introduction that surveys the book's key elements, reception history, literary devices, and current scholarly debates, John D. Harvey provides a thorough explanation of every verse of Romans, followed by theological insights and hands-on takeaways. Readers will benefit from Harvey's approach, which asks and answers three questions about each verse: 1. What did Paul say? 2. Why did he say it? 3. What should I do with it? Outlines and summaries provide useful homiletical and pedagogical tools, while footnotes point to resources for further study. A Theology of Paul and His Letters Douglas J. Moo, 2021-10-26 A landmark study of the apostle's writings by one of the world's leading Pauline scholars. Winner of the 2022 ECPA Christian Book Award for Bible Reference Works, this highly anticipated volume gives pastors, scholars, and all serious students of the New Testament exactly what they need for in-depth study and engagement with one of Christian history's most formative thinkers and writers. A Theology of Paul and His Letters is a landmark study of the apostle's writings by one of the world's leading Pauline scholars, Douglas J. Moo. Fifteen years in the making, this groundbreaking work is organized into three major sections. Part 1 provides an overview of the issues involved in doing biblical theology in general and a Pauline theology in particular. Here Moo also sets out the methodological issues, formative influences, and conceptual categories of Paul's thought. Part 2 moves on to Paul's New Testament writings, where Moo describes each Pauline letter with particular relevance to its theology. Part 3 offers a masterful synthesis of Paul's theology under the overarching theme of the gift of the new realm in Christ. Engaging, insightful, and wise, this substantive evangelical treatment of Paul's theology offers extensive engagement with the latest Pauline scholarship without sacrificing

A New Identity of Obligation: Metaphors and Paul's Ethical Argument in Romans 6:1-14 Andrés D. Vera, 2025-06-19 In Romans 6 1 14 Paul corrects an erroneous ethical conclusion drawn from the narrative of God's grace in Romans 3 5 This innovative study employs tools from cognitive linguistics to unveil Paul's sophisticated rhetorical strategy for resolving the indicative imperative tension By moving beyond traditional theological frameworks the book shows how Paul presents believers new identity as defined by a new obligation illuminating the metaphorical narrative that undergirds Paul's logic Readers will better understand the importance of conceptual spaces like in sin and in Christ and how Paul conceptualizes the relationship between believers and their old selves who have been crucified
