Douek, 2020 Probes the underbelly of early post apartheid South Africa and the destabilization and assassination campaign unleashed as white rule ended Cold War Britain M. Hopkins, M. Kandiah, G. Staerck, 2002-12-13 Britain and the Cold War 1945 1964 offers new perspectives on ways in which Britain fought the Cold War and illuminates key areas of the policy formulation process It argues that in many ways Britain and the United States perceived and handled the threat posed by the Communist bloc in similar terms nevertheless Britain's continuing global commitments post war economic problems and domestic considerations obliged her on occasion to tackle the threat rather differently

The Unspoken Alliance Sasha Polakow-Suransky, 2011-06-14 Prior to the Six Day War Israel was a darling of the international left vocally opposed to apartheid and devoted to building alliances with black leaders in newly independent African nations South Africa for its part was controlled by a regime of Afrikaner nationalists who had enthusiastically supported Hitler during World War II But after Israel's occupation of Palestinian territories in 1967 the country found itself estranged from former allies and threatened anew by old enemies As both states became international pariahs a covert and lucrative military relationship blossomed between these seemingly unlikely allies Based on extensive archival research and exclusive interviews with former generals and high level government officials in both countries The Unspoken Alliance tells a troubling story of Cold War paranoia moral compromises and startling secrets

Architecture Post Mortem Donald Kunze, David Bertolini, Simone Brott, 2016-04-15 Architecture Post Mortem surveys architecture's encounter with death decline and ruination following late capitalism As the world moves closer to an economic abyss that many perceive to be the death of capital contraction and crisis are no longer mere phases of normal market fluctuations but rather the irruption of the unconscious of ideology itself Post mortem is that historical moment wherein architecture's symbolic contract with capital is put on stage naked to all Architecture is not irrelevant to fiscal and political contagion as is commonly believed it is the victim and penetrating analytical agent of the current crisis As the very apparatus for modernity's guilt and unfulfilled drives modernity's debt architecture is that ideological element that functions as a master signifier of its own destruction ordering all other signifiers and modes of signification beneath it. It is under these conditions that architecture theory has retreated to an Alamo of history, a final desert outpost where history has been asked to transcend itself. For architecture's hoped-for utopia always involves an apocalypse. This timely collection of essays reformulates architecture's relation to modernity via the operational death drive: architecture is but a passage between life and death. This collection includes essays by Kazi K Ashraf, David Bertolini, Simone Brott, Peggy Deamer, Didem Ekici, Paul Emmons, Donald Kunze, Todd McGowan, Gevork Hartoonian, Nadir Lahiji, Erika Naginski, and Dennis Maher. Eye on the Money Terry Crawford-Browne, 2011-05-27. The clerk of the court called all rise as judge Blignaut swept in dressed in his black gown. He sat down and moments later we rose again as he swept out having pronounced the verdict. The clerk handed my lawyer a copy of the judgment. I received my own copy by e-mail that afternoon. My lawyer commented that it was being awarded against me in an issue brought in the public interest. The issue was the South African arms deal scandal. The costs were almost a million rand. The plaintiff was Terry Crawford Browne. As the scandal around the arms deal gathered force during the late 1990s, Crawford Browne launched a campaign against an armaments acquisition programme that has locked South Africa into twenty years of debt repayment. With no discernible foreign enemy, he asked why did we need such sophisticated weaponry. The answer was simple: in any arms deal, the commissions are huge. With considerable courage, the man who acted for Archbishop Desmond Tutu during the banking sanctions campaign of the 1980s has taken on the post-apartheid government for its betrayal of the struggle against apartheid. In a poignant telling account, he describes the ANC's slide from moral high ground of the sanctions campaign to the corrupted lowlands where weapons of war are traded. From Defence to Development Jacklyn Cock, Penny McKenzie, 1998. Remember the global peace dividend, the budget surpluses that were supposed to result from the raising of the Iron Curtain and the end of the arms race. As war-torn societies in the Middle East, Latin America, and parts of Africa found peace and began building democratic societies, governments were supposed to use the money they once spent on the military to better meet basic human needs. But has it happened? Eye on the Diamonds Terry Crawford-Browne, 2012-09-28. In 2007, Terry Crawford Browne published the explosive Eye On The Money. It was primarily an account of the international banking sanctions campaign against apartheid during the 1980s but also dealt with the early stages of the now well-documented South African arms deal scandal. Eye On The Diamonds is a sequel to the earlier book and provides updated information on the uncovering of the scandal. Its purpose is to keep the arms deal saga and the venality of the war business in public focus. In 2008, Crawford Browne was asked to lead a public interest application to the South African Constitutional Court after huge volumes of evidence confirmed how BAE and other arms companies paid massive bribes to politically well-connected members of the African National Congress, the so-called black diamonds, to secure their contracts. His application forced President Jacob Zuma's reluctant appointment in October 2011 of a judicial commission.

of inquiry to investigate the scandal Eye On The Diamonds focus on diamonds links the colonial and apartheid histories of South Africa with the close histories of Israel and Palestine It demonstrates how De Beers the South African originated company which dominated the diamond cartel for more than a century is fast losing control to far more ruthless Israeli players Crawford Browne suggests that the diamond trade which is critical to the twenty first century war business makes every diamond a blood diamond Blood diamonds provide the ultimate money laundering opportunity for organised crime while the Israeli war business thwarts efforts at peaceful resolution of conflict Israel itself has become a promised land for organised crime where assassinations money laundering and other criminal activities are justified in the national interest Crawford Browne shows in this well researched and hard hitting book that the international war business and the corruption it unleashes is completely out of control Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals ,1996 Hitler's Suppressed and Still-Secret Weapons Henry Stevens,2011-08-11 Now we know what spooked the Allies in the closing months of the war and why they were in such a panic to win quickly The Allies assembled intelligence reports of supermetals electric guns and ray weapons able to stop the engines of Allied aircraft in addition to their worst fears of x ray and laser weaponry Then there were the bombs Contained in this book are reports of structured bombs of nipolit N stoff bombs cold bombs oxygen bombs which destroyed all life atomic bombs and rumors of the mysterious molecular bomb The true history of the fuel air bomb is revealed by our own military There is even a probability that the SS black alchemists of the 3rd Reich were experimenting with red mercury bomb technology This book documents very large mystery rockets under development in Germany far beyond the V 2 Technological history is also examined Guess who invented the computer magnetic tape and computer programs How about refining crude oil using sound waves or producing gasoline for 11 cents per gallon or the synthetic penicillin substitute 3065 Very exotic technologies are also discussed including German experiments in time sustained fusion reactions zero point energy and travel in deep space Chapters include The Kammler Group German Flying Disc Update Witness to a German Flying Disc The Electromagnetic Vampire Liquid Air Synthetic Blood German Free Energy Research German Atomic Tests Project Hexenkessel The Fuel Air Bomb Supermetals Red Mercury Means To Stop Engines Magnetic Wave Motorstopmittel Death Rays Distillation of Crude Oil Using Sound Waves What is Happening in Antarctica Large German Mystery Rockets Experiments in Time tons more The Woman from Mossad Peter Hounam,1999 After three years military service Mordechai Vanunu answered an ad for a control room job at the nuclear research center near Dimona In 1976 he was assigned to Mochon 2 where he discovered the nuclear weapons program that he later divulged to Peter Hounam Before his story could be published however Vanunu met Cindy a beautiful American woman who lured him to Rome Caught in a trap he was attacked by agents from Mossad the Israeli secret service drugged and smuggled to Israel to stand trial for treason Since then Vanunu has spent more than 12 years in solitary confinement In The Woman from Mossad Hounam details the kidnapping and what happened to Cindy when she was exposed by the author He also names
