Screenwriters José Guilherme Correa, 2016-07-13 Screen writing is a unique literary form Screenplays are like musical scores in that they are intended to be interpreted on the basis of other artists performances rather than serving as finished products for the enjoyment of their readers They are written using technical jargon and tight spare prose to describe set directions Unlike a novella a script focuses on describing the literal visual aspects of the story rather than on its characters internal thoughts In screen writing the aim is to evoke those thoughts and emotions through subtext action and symbolism Prominent Hollywood script doctors include Steve Zaillian William Goldman Robert Towne Mort Nathan Quentin Tarantino etc while many up and coming screenwriters work as ghost writers This book is a modest catalogue of some of the most prominent screenwriters listed from A to Z The good are sometimes bad and they can be even Ugly Many comments herein included were googled in deference to the multiplicity of information available today yet they reflect exactly or almost what I thought An amazing thing today is how anonymous commentators on the Internet rival and even surpass the poor quality of professional media and specialised literature It all comes down to watching the truth 24 times per second to quote Jean Luc Godard s phrase Not to mention that such truth may include sex scenes violence pedophilia etc We know that a literary masterpiece like Henry James Portrait of a Lady became a film of very poor quality as scripted by Laura Jones We know conversely that a mediocre writer like Mickey Spillane inspired at least one film as remarkable as Kiss Me Deadly thanks to A I Bezzerides script Asa former screenwriter Mr Correa must avow that he found the job most gratifying Writing that looks effortless is often hellish to write and revise It was something he did have to slog through but it proved particularly pleasing Editing discussing finishing your work is particularly gratifying Identifying your flaws and working to mitigate them is also gratifying It is a general perception that creative careers are more interesting and fun than others But the privilege of earning money through imagination and creativity is effectively hard won Please comment at will Please disagree at will Be facetious in your remarks but please be neither vicious nor mean spirited Exploring Seriality on Screen Ariane

Dialogues With Marcel Duchamp Pierre Cabanne, 2025-05-01 With an introduction by Robert Motherwell and an appreciation by Jasper Johns Marcel Duchamp one of this century's pioneer artists moved his work through the retinal boundaries which had been established with Impressionism into a field where language thought and vision act upon one another There it changed form through a complex interplay of new mental and physical materials heralding many of the technical mental and visual details to be found in more recent art In the 1920s Duchamp gave up quit painting He allowed perhaps encouraged the attendant mythology One thought of his decision his willing this stopping Yet on one occasion he said it was not like that He spoke of breaking a leg You don't mean to do it he said The Large Glass A greenhouse for his intuition Erotic machinery the Bride held in a see through cage a Hilarious Picture Its cross references of sight and thought the changing focus of the eyes and mind give fresh sense to the time and space we occupy negate any concern with art as transportation No end is in view in this fragment of a new perspective In the end you lose interest so I didn't feel the necessity to finish it He declared that he wanted to kill art for myself but his persistent attempts to destroy frames of reference altered our thinking established new units of thought a new thought for that object The art community feels Duchamp's presence and his absence He has changed the condition of being here Jasper Johns from Marcel Duchamp An Appreciation
