Mining Ventures In Developing Countries Part 2 Analysis Of Project Agreements:

Mining Ventures in Developing Countries. Part 2 Erich Schanze, 1981 Arbitration and Renegotiation of International Investment Agreements: A Study with Particular Reference to Means of Conflict Avoidance Under Natural Resources Investment Agreements Wolfgang Peter, Jean-Quentin de Kuyper, Bénédict de Candolle, 1995-06-08 This book is a second revised edition of the original 1986 publication Since then the issue of contract change has increasingly challenged the business community and legal practitioners The world wide recession may well have accelerated the need to secure contractual relationships by reasonable flexibility Successful foreign investment a relentless challenge is subject to many unpredictable errors Of all these variables however successful investment is most dependent on the investor host country relationship which is the object of the present study In particular the pressure by host countries for contract change and its counterpart the investor's defence of contract stability The book is essentially a reference handbook for legal practitioners It analyzes a variety of increasingly important questions concerning international investment agreements that come under pressure for change by one of the contracting parties either a transnational corporation or a host country government The seven case studies and the analytical chapters which follow are based on the author's research and the assistance of corporate and government officials experts from the United Nations and other organizations and members of academic research institutes A Joint Venture Agreement for Seabed Mining G. Jaenicke, 2013-11-11 The Third United Nations Conference on the Law of the Sea is preparing rules for the establishment of an international legal regime governing the exploration and exploitation of the resources of the international seabed The Draft Convention on the Law of the Sea Informal Text of 27 August 1980 which has so far been the result of the negotiations during the preceding sessions of the Conference provides for a so called parallel system under which an international Enterprise as well as national private or state owned companies will be granted access to the resources of the international seabed under the control of an International Seabed Authority The Draft Convention also envisages the conclusion of joint venture agreements between the international Enterprise and national companies or consortia and encourages such cooperation through granting various incentives Such joint ventures will probably play an important part in making the international Enterprise operative in the early years of its existence At the Conference concerns have been expressed whether and when the Enterprise as a newcomer would be in a position to start seabed mining and to compete effectively with the national companies The Draft Convention provides for a number of ways and means to enable the Enterprise to develop its technological and financial capabilities for deep sea mining as early as possible Contract and Organisation Terence Daintith, Gunther Teubner, 2011-08-30 No detailed description available for Contract and Organisation New Institutional Arrangements for the World Economy Hans-Jürgen Vosgerau, 2012-12-06 New Institutional Arrangements for the World Economy Hans Jürgen Vosgerau Konstanz I The Problem During the first days of July 1987 the newly established Sonderforschungsbereich 178

Internationalisierung der Wirtschaft held its first symposium in Konstanz Bodensee New Institutional Arrangements for the World Economy were discussed by a group of economists and lawyers working in the fields of international trade international monetary economics international finance international public choice and international economic law Cooperation between these areas of research is an important condition for attaining the long term aim of the Sonderforschungsbereich viz analysis of the complex interdependencies between international economic transactions of various kinds and international economy related institutions in a broad sense The nature of these interdependencies seems to be crucial for the world economy s further development A better understanding of their characteristics will be helpful for the solution of most imminent international economic problems Four problem areas were especially addressed during the conference each consisting of three or four contributions The revised papers are presented in this volume each followed by a comment of the invited discussant or by a summary of the discussion The last contribution is meant as a summary conclusion and has no comment The four problem areas discussed were 1 Exchange rate stabilization and economic policy coordination 2 International financial markets and their regulation 3 Protectionism and the Uruguay GAIT round and 4 The institutional framework for international production
