A Sequel to Ministering Children Maria Louisa Charlesworth,1867      Children's Ministry in the Way of Jesus David M. Csinos,Ivy Beckwith,2013-10-04 Attract kids to church the logic often goes and you get parents in the pews All that s left is to get the kids out of the way Here children s ministers David Csinos and Ivy Beckwith draw on research in human development and spiritual formation to show how children become disciples and churches become centers of lifelong discipleship      Ministering Children Children,Maria Louisa Charlesworth,1854      The Ministry of Children's Education Margaret A. Pomfret, 2015-12-16 This is the first study of its kind to provide such a broadly comparative and in depth analysis of children and empire Youth and Empire brings to light new research and new interpretations on two relatively neglected fields of study the history of imperialism in East and South East Asia and more pointedly the influence of childhood and children's voices on modern empires By utilizing a diverse range of unpublished source materials drawn from three different continents David M Pomfret examines the emergence of children and childhood as a central historical force in the global history of empire in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries This book is unusual in its scope extending across the two empires of Britain and France and to points of intense impact in tropical places where indigenous immigrant and foreign cultures mixed Hong Kong Singapore Saigon and Hanoi It thereby shows how childhood was crucial to definitions of race and thus European authority in these parts of the world By examining the various contradictory and overlapping meanings of childhood in colonial Asia Pomfret is able to provide new and often surprising readings of a set of problems that continue to trouble our contemporary world Meeting

Place Elizabeth Sinn, 2017-11-01 Meeting Place Encounters across Cultures in Hong Kong 1841-1984 presents detailed empirical studies of day to day interactions between people of different cultures in a variety of settings The broad conclusion that there was sustained and multilevel contact between men and women of different cultures will challenge and complicate traditional historical understandings of Hong Kong as a city either of rigid segregation or of pervasive integration Given its geographical location its status as a free port and its role as a center of migration Hong Kong was an extraordinarily porous place People of diverse cultures met and mingled here often with unexpected results The case studies in this book draw both on previously unused sources and on a rigorous rereading of familiar materials They explore relationships between and within the Japanese Eurasian German Portuguese British Chinese and other communities in areas of activity that have often been overlooked from the schoolroom and the family home to the courtroom and international trading concern from the gardens of Government House to boarding houses for destitute sailors In their diverse experiences we see not just East meeting West but also East meeting East and South meeting North in fact a range of complex and dynamic processes that seem to render obsolete any simplistic conception of East meets West Hong Kong's people have too often been ignored in histories of this colonial port This important volume restores them through a series of fascinating case studies of connections collaborations and conflicts across diverse cultures languages and interests Here we have the bedroom law court restaurant school dockyard and offices amongst the other places where Hong Kong's history was really made Robert Bickers author of Out of China How the Chinese Ended the Era of Western Domination With richly researched studies of heretofore little known aspects of Hong Kong society and history Meeting Place offers perceptive insights into the city's vital role as a focal point for the intersection of diverse cultures social classes institutions and practices Taking us far beyond the hackneyed stereotype of East meets West this volume provides a kaleidoscopic view of the rich multiplicity multi directionality and hybridity of this global hub Emma J Teng author of Eurasian Mixed Identities in the United States China and Hong Kong 1842-1943 Resilient Ministry Bob Burns, Tasha D. Chapman, Donald C. Guthrie, 2012-11-30 Why does one well equipped well meaning person in ministry succeed while another fails Bob Burns Tasha Chapman and Donald Guthrie undertook a five year intensive research project on the frontlines of pastoral ministry to answer that question What they found was nothing less than the DNA of thriving ministry today
