preference for another ministry or due to serious conflict pastors who relinquish parish ministry face misunderstanding and even hostility Pastors in Transition brings clarity to this little examined aspect of the pastorate by examining the main reasons why pastors in five Protestant denominations have left parish ministry The fruit of careful sociological research Pastors in Transition presents the findings of the largest ever study of recently ended ministries More than 900 ex ministers representing the Assemblies of God the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod the Presbyterian Church USA and the United Methodist Church were surveyed or interviewed Besides gathering facts and figures the book contains personal stories forthright opinions and concrete recommendations from former pastors for strengthening parish ministry in the future

Policy Analysis in Germany Sonja Blum,Klaus Schubert,2018-03-01 This comprehensive study part of the International Library of Policy Analysis brings together for the first time a systemic overview of policy analysis activities in Germany Written by leading experts in the field including informed practitioners it outlines the development of the discipline identifies its role in academic education and research and examines its styles and methods The book also focuses on the role of policy analysis for governments and parliaments for parties social partners and interest groups By offering a rich and timely analysis of policy analysis in Germany this book is a valuable resource for academic exchange and for teaching particularly in the fields of political science social sciences economics and geography Moreover by its broad comprehensive understanding of policy analysis the book will be of practical relevance and shape the debate for the future development of policy analysis in Germany and the different spheres where it is practised

Ministries of Education Kathryn Gladys Heath,1962 Institution and Human Resource Capacity Building in ASEAN United Nations. Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific,1999 Most southeast Asian countries have until recently had a long period of rapid and reasonably equitable growth This remarkable performance was achieved largely because sound policies were implemented effectively by capable institutions with competent staff This is especially true in key policy areas such as macroeconomic management product transformations trade and investment promotion and infrastructure development Many developing economies in Asia and the Pacific including the new and potentially new members of ASEAN namely Cambodia Lao People's Democratic Republic Myanmar and Viet Nam which are facing enormous challenges resulting from domestic economic reforms and exposure to the international economy could benefit from the experiences of institution and human resource capacity building in older ASEAN countries This publication contains an overview and four country studies of Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines and Thailand
