Accountability for Mass Starvation Bridget Conley, Alex de Waal, Catriona Murdoch, Wayne Jordash QC, 2022-09-01 Famine is an age old scourge that almost disappeared in our lifetime Between 2000 and 2011 there were no famines and deaths in humanitarian emergencies were much reduced The humanitarian agenda was ascendant Then in 2017 the United Nations identified four situations that threatened famine or breached that threshold in north eastern Nigeria Somalia South Sudan and Yemen Today this list is longer Each of these famines is the result of military actions and exclusionary authoritarian politics conducted without regard to the wellbeing or even the survival of people Violations of international law including blockading ports attacks on health facilities violence against humanitarian workers and obstruction of relief aid are carried out with renewed impunity Yet there is an array of legal offenses ranging from war crimes and crimes against humanity to genocide available to a prosecutor to hold individuals to account for the deliberate starvation of civilians However there has been a dearth of investigations and accountability for those violating international law The reasons for this neglect and the gaps between the black letter law and practice are explored in this timely volume It provides a comprehensive overview of the key themes and cases required to catalyze a new approach to understanding the law as it relates to starvation It also illustrates the complications of historical and ongoing situations where starvation is used as a weapon of war and provides expert analysis on defining starvation early warning systems gender and mass starvation the use of sanctions journalistic reporting and memorialization of famine

Baptism and the Baptists Anthony R. Cross, 2017-06-20 Since its first publication in 2000 Baptism and the Baptists has become the definitive work on the subject It examines the theology and practice of believers baptism among twentieth century Baptists associated with the Baptist Union of Great Britain and identifies the major influences which have led to its development In the nineteenth and early twentieth century the majority of Baptists concentrated predominantly on the mode and subjects of baptism immersion and believers understanding the rite merely as an ordinance the believer's personal profession of faith in Christ However in continuity with a tradition of Baptists going back as far as the first Baptists in the second and third decades of the seventeenth century there were also a significant number of ministers and scholars who saw the inadequacy of this view of baptism both biblically and theologically This sacramental view developed and grew throughout the twentieth century and influenced a resurgence of baptismal sacramentalism in the early twenty first century among Baptists not just in Britain but also in North America Europe and further afield Voices Together Worship Leader Edition, 2020-11-01 The worship leader edition is a must have for anyone involved in planning or leading worship through prayer music spoken words visuals and more This simple accessible volume is filled with theological grounding practical suggestions and words for worship It includes quick introductions to topics like the Christian year and the use of technology in worship as well as easy to use suggestions for preparing prayers It also includes worship resources for the practices central to our faith and life including baptism communion child blessing and funerals This worship leader edition is an essential guide for preparing worship that is intentionally crafted and theologically Anabaptist This product includes supplemental resources to accompany the hymns from Voices Together but does not include the hymns themselves It is designed to use in tandem with the Voices Together Hymnal Product specifications Paperback 6 W x 9 H Customary International Humanitarian Law Jean-Marie Henckaerts, Louise Doswald-Beck, 2005 In 1996 the International Committee of the Red Cross alongside a range of renowned experts embarked upon a major international study into current state practice in international humanitarian law in order to identify customary law in this area This book is the result of that study a comprehensive analysis of the customary rules of international humanitarian law applicable in international and non international armed conflicts Given that important treaties in this area have not yet been universally ratified this is a publication of major importance carried out at the express request of the international community In so doing this study identifies the common core of international humanitarian law binding on all parties to all armed conflicts
