Ministries of Deception Tim Slessor, 2002 Conspiracy cock up cover up There have been numerous cases where the government seems to have shot itself in the foot by attempting to gloss over or misinform the public over delicate matters only for those matters to disagreeably come to light some time later This text examines the anatomy of misinformation mostly originating from the MOD explores the extent and technique of the official deceptions and asks why these cover ups took place

The Psychology of Chronic Fatigue Syndrome R. Paul Gregory, 2010 Historical Dreadnoughts Barry Gough, 2010-07-05 An account of Arthur Marder his famous sparring partner Captain Stephen Roskill and their enduring quest for pre eminence in the naval history field This is the story of the remarkable intersecting careers of the two greatest writers on British naval history in the twentieth century the American professor Arthur Marder son of immigrant Russian Jews and Captain Stephen Roskill who knew the Royal Navy from the inside Between them these contrasting characters were to peel back the lid of historical secrecy that surrounded the maritime aspects of the two world wars based on the privileged access to official papers they both achieved through different channels Initially their mutual interests led to a degree of friendly rivalry but this was to deteriorate into a stormy academic feud fought out in newspaper columns and the footnotes of their books much to the bemusement and sometimes amusement of the naval history community Out of it surprisingly emerged some of the best historical writing on naval themes and a central contribution of this book is to reveal the process by which the two historians produced their literary masterpieces Anyone who has read Marder s From the Dreadnought to Scapa Flow or Roskill s The War at Sea and they were both bestsellers in their day will be entertained and enlightened by this story of the men A J P Taylor called our historical dreadnoughts A book about naval historians and their differing approaches to writing history might be dry and dull but in the author s capable hands makes a fascinating read Warship 2012

Master of Deception Alan Ogden, 2022-02-24 Master of Deception is a biography of Peter Fleming elder brother of Ian Fleming creator of James Bond Peter Fleming worked as a travel writer and journalist serving with distinction throughout World War II and played a crucial role in British intelligence operations in the Far East This biography ranges from the personal life of Fleming such as his marriage to Celia Johnson a famous actor of the time to his extensive military intelligence career which took him from Norway and Greece to the Far East Framed through the life of Peter Fleming this book offers an in depth study of British intelligence operations in the Far East during World War II The Rise of Political Lying Peter Osborne, 2005 Tracing the history of political falsehood back to its earliest days but focusing specifically on the exponential rise of the phenomenon during the Major and Blair governments the author demonstrates that the truth has become an increasingly slippery concept in recent years The Mystery of Operation Alphabet Elaine Merrikin Trimlett Glover, 2022-11-30 For many years my knowledge of my grandfather John Thomas Merrikin was very limited All I knew of him was that he came from Amber Hill Lincolnshire and was for many years a police officer in Leicester At the beginning of WW2 my grandfather was called up into the Naval Reserve first of all on HMS Devonshire and then Stoker First Class on HMS Acasta 8th June 1940 grandad John Thomas Merrikin died in the Norwegian fjords after the Scharnhorst and Gneisenau blew up HMS Acasta and as they sank into the cruel freezing cold sea Nick Carter launched a torpedo at the Scharnhorst and damaged her quite badly It wasn't until I joined the GLARAC Glorious Ardent Acasta Association in 2008 that I realised that HMS Ardent and HMS Aircraft Carrier Glorious were also bombed by the two German battleships both the pride of Nazi Germany The two British destroyers were accompanying HMS Glorious on convoy I also became aware of a huge conspiracy as to why 1531 servicemen were killed and only 43 servicemen survived without Admiralty intervention During the lockdown of 2020-2021 I decided to do some of my own research on the worst British naval catastrophe of WW2 and I began to write The Mystery Of Operation Alphabet to bring to life 8th June 1940 I did this by putting photographs on as many names of the war dead and survivors as possible to bring them to life too I also wrote down stories from books and articles of what happened to the war dead and survivors in their own words and also of their loved ones rather than writing using my own words as I wanted the servicemen to have their own voice The Mystery of Operation Alphabet has endless photos of the different ships lists of the war dead and also I have written down as many explanations and conspiracy theories as possible as to why the three ships were blown up and 1531 men were killed I did this by bringing to light the opinions and theories of Admiralty naval historians government officials and members of the GLARAC Association so you can make up your own minds as to what happened One of my main aims is to bring to light the bravery of commanders Barker and Glasford of HMS Ardent and HMS Acasta plus Nick Carter leading seaman of HMS Acasta the man who shot the Scharnhorst to hopefully get the government to give these men military honour and recognition for what they did on 8th June 1940 Amazingly even the commanders of the German battleships saluted the British ships HMS Glorious HMS Ardent and especially HMS Acasta as they sunk in the Norwegian fjords to honour their bravery Last but not least I would like to uncover why the government has kept the ships records under lock and key since 1940 and why they aren't going to be made public until 2040-41 So why not read this interesting and intriguing book to find out more Elaine Merrikin Trimlett Glover Atoll Diego Garcia Peter H.

Miraflor,2009 This book is one of several highly revealing historical subjects researched and written by husband and wife collaborative authors Ian Ward and Norma Miraflor Since its initial publication Slaughter and Deception at Batang Kali has spearheaded a quite relentless legal pursuit for justice This will be reaching its climax within the next few months The book has so far been central to evidence presented at two previous British High Court hearings At the conclusion of this second session in High Court in May 2012 the presiding judges finally proclaimed there was indeed a case to answer The Batang Kali massacre now moves to the Supreme Court in London where once again Slaughter and Deception at Batang Kali will figure as a key factor of evidence      A Genius for Deception Nicholas Rankin,2009-11-10 In February 1942 intelligence officer Victor Jones erected 150 tents behind British lines in North Africa Hiding tanks in Bedouin tents was an old British trick writes Nicholas Rankin German general Erwin Rommel not only knew of the ploy but had copied it himself Jones knew that Rommel knew In fact he counted on it for these tents were empty With the deception that he was carrying out a deception Jones made a weak point look like a trap In A Genius for Deception Nicholas Rankin offers a lively and comprehensive history of how Britain bluffed tricked and spied its way to victory in two world wars As Rankin shows a coherent program of strategic deception emerged in World War I resting on the pillars of camouflage propaganda secret intelligence and special forces All forms of deception found an avid sponsor in Winston Churchill who carried his enthusiasm for deceiving the enemy into World War II Rankin vividly recounts such little known episodes as the invention of camouflage by two French artist soldiers the creation of dummy airfields for the Germans to bomb during the Blitz and the fabrication of an army that would supposedly invade Greece Strategic deception would be key to a number of WWII battles culminating in the massive misdirection that proved critical to the success of the D Day invasion in 1944 Deeply researched and written with an eye for telling detail A Genius for Deception shows how the British used craft and cunning to help win the most devastating wars in human history      Prime Ministers and the Media Colin Seymour-Ure,2008-04-15 This book looks at the ways in which prime ministers manage and fail to manage their public communication A timely examination of the ways in which prime ministers manage and fail to manage their public communication Original in scope covering political rumours political
