Mink and Red Herring Abbott Joseph Liebling, 1949      Mink and Red Herring Abbott Joseph Liebling, 1949      CBS's Don Hollenbeck Loren Ghiglione, 2011 Loren Ghiglione recounts the fascinating life and tragic suicide of Don Hollenbeck the controversial newscaster who became a primary target of McCarthyism's smear tactics Drawing on unsealed FBI records private family correspondence and interviews with Walter Cronkite Mike Wallace Charles Collingwood Douglas Edwards and more than one hundred other journalists Ghiglione writes a balanced biography that cuts close to the bone of this complicated newsman and chronicles the stark consequences of the anti Communist frenzy that seized America in the late 1940s and 1950s Hollenbeck began his career at the Lincoln Nebraska Journal marrying the boss's daughter before becoming an editor at William Randolph Hearst's rip roaring Omaha Bee News He participated in the emerging field of photojournalism at the Associated Press assisted in creating the innovative ad free PM newspaper in New York City reported from the European theater for NBC radio during World War II and anchored television newscasts at CBS during the era of Edward R Murrow Hollenbeck's pioneering prize winning radio program CBS Views the Press 1947-1950 was a declaration of independence from a print medium that had dominated American newsmaking for close to 250 years The program candidly criticized the prestigious New York Times the Daily News then the paper with the largest circulation in America and Hearst's flagship Journal American and popular morning tabloid Daily Mirror For this honest work Hollenbeck was attacked by conservative anti Communists especially Hearst columnist Jack O Brian and in 1954 plagued by depression alcoholism three failed marriages and two network firings and worried about a third Hollenbeck took his own life In his investigation of this amazing American character Ghiglione reveals the workings of an industry that continues to fall victim to censorship and political manipulation Separating myth from fact CBS's Don Hollenbeck is the definitive portrait of a polarizing figure who became a symbol of America's tortured conscience      Shame the Devil Wayne J. Guglielmo, 2023-04-15 When the press loses sight of truth and falls prey to bias American press critics push back to safeguard our free and democratic nation Journalists are no strangers to criticism and some have even seen disagreements turn to outrage and acts of violence There is another history of press criticism though This one as a rule doesn't resort to physical threat or denunciation Nevertheless it can be merciless when critics think the press has become too slanted in one direction has fallen short of some ideal is too concentrated for its own good or seems to be underreporting or ignoring some critical story of the day Shame the Devil is a sweeping look at this other history Beginning with Walter Lippmann rightly regarded as the first modern press critic Shame the Devil provides a chapter by chapter profile and analysis of his successors Many critics work within the profession of journalism while some consider it from the outside These include George Seldes A J Liebling Ben Bagdikian Reed Irvine Neil Postman and Noam Chomsky A concluding chapter brings together a diverse group of contemporary critics including Sharyl Attkisson Brooke Gladstone Eric Deggans Amy Goodman Janine Jackson and Candace Owens Merging history biography and a candid analysis of various critical points of view Shame the Devil moves from press commentary in the bitter aftermath of World War I to the head spinning paradoxes of the post truth era Throughout some of America s best critics contend with both the big events of their day and the big issues of journalism to ask the always vital question How can the press help to create and sustain a more democratic society      Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier,2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies

Only Victims Robert Vaughn,1996 In a dramatic change of role the noted television and film star has written a vivid and incisive account of the House Committee on Un American Activities probe of the entertainment industry from 1938 to 1958 Formed to investigate alleged subversives by the late fifties the committee had succeeded in ruining the careers and sometimes the lives of many of Hollywood and Broadway s top writers and performers Quoting generously from transcripts of its hearings Vaughn shows how the committee s primary purpose was punitive rather than legislative and concludes that its most serious damage to American theatre and film is not easily documented the loss of all the words never written or spoken because of the impact and the fear of the committee s misdeeds      Social Meanings of News Daniel A.

Berkowitz,1997-03-05 What is news and why does it turn out the way it does These questions are addressed in this Reader Classic news studies representing several methodologies and approaches are presented to guide students in their initial exploration into the topics Berkowitz provides an orientation for a social approach to studying news departing from the premise that news is a human construction that gains its characteristics through the social world from which it emerges The first section of readings introduces a theoretical background for analyzing the sections that follow Each of the eight sections are clearly and concisely introduced by Berkowitz enabling students to interpret the salient points from and implications of representative articles in the field      *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
