The Retrospective Review (1820-1828) and the Revival of Seventeenth Century Poetry Jane Campbell, 2006-01-01
This essay had its beginning in an investigation of changing attitudes to seventeenth century Pre Restoration poetry during the English Romantic period In the course of that research Jane Campbell discovered that a relatively little known periodical the Retrospective Review which was published in London from 1820 to 1828 appeared to have played an interesting part in the rehabilitation of the poets of the earlier period This book then is an attempt to outline the history of this review to place it against its literary background and to assess its role in the critical re evaluation of the poets of the earlier seventeenth century an age to which the Retrospective s contributors and their contemporaries looked with fascination as well as with an affectionate feeling of kinship Minor Poets of the Caroline Period ...: General introduction. William Chamberlayne: Pharonnida; England's jubilee. Edward Benlowes: Theophila; The summary of wisdom; A poetic descant upon a private music-meeting. Katherine Philips: Poems. Patrick Hannay: Philomela; Sheretine and Mariana; A happy husband; Elegies on the death of our late sovereign Queen Anne, with epitaphs; Songs and sonnets , 1905 Minor Poets of the Caroline Period ... George Saintsbury, 1905 Fault Lines and Controversies in the Study of Seventeenth-century English Literature Claude J. Summers, Ted-Larry Pebworth, 2002 Written by various experts in the field this volume of thirteen original essays explores some of the most significant theoretical and practical fault lines and controversies in seventeenth century English literature The turn into the twenty first century is an appropriate time to take stock of the state of the field and as part of that stocktaking the need arises to assess both where literary study of the early modern period has been and where it might desirably go Hence many of the essays in this collection look both backward and forward They chart the changes in the field over the past half century while also looking forward to more change in the future
