Minorities And Girls In School:

Minorities and Girls in School David Johnson, 1997-07-28 Although this country has a stake in educating its citizens well for much of our history we have not known in any scientific way what helps and what hinders the academic success of girls and minority group members This book gives voice to four psychologists Schofield Slaughter Defoe Eccles and Betz who use scientific inquiry to understand what helps and what hinders the academic and life performance of minority students and girls These are scientists who approach their subject matter with technical skill and personal passion to ask such questions as What has desegregation accomplished Can beneficial parent child interactions be facilitated so as to improve school related performance Why are we seeing such low levels of achievement for girls and minorities in math and science What stops women and minorities from choosing and completing majors in science and engineering Each chapter represents an effort to communicate a vital area of scientific investigation to those in political life who could use that knowledge to formulate effective public policy Near the end of each chapter are the questions that each of the authors was asked following the original briefing These interchanges will show how policy makers begin to think about the use of scientific information in a political context

State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples 2009 Preti Taneja, 2009-07-16 Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world Nelson Mandela Education for all is a goal that has been reaffirmed by states the world over many times in the last decade It is meant to be achieved by 2015 But as this book clearly shows a quality education is not reaching the world's most vulnerable communities minorities and indigenous peoples In Central Africa the great majority of indigenous Batwa and Baka have not had access even to primary education In South Asia Dalit girls are prevented from pursuing their education not just because of poverty but through discrimination and sexual violence In many countries in Europe Roma children continue to be placed in segregated classes or in special schools for those with learning disabilities just because of their ethnicity In Latin America millions of indigenous and African descendant children instead of being in school work in fields and plantations in the mines or at home In a unique collaboration with UNICEF Minority Rights Group International reports on what minority and indigenous children around the world face in their struggle to learn State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples 2009 profiles the programmes that are being developed to help them from better bilingual education to meeting the needs of nomadic populations giving examples of what works and why It describes efforts to overcome exclusion so that education is available accessible acceptable and adaptable for minorities and indigenous peoples and shows how far there is still to go It includes An analysis of available statistics that show that minorities and indigenous peoples are the most likely to suffer discrimination and exclusion in education worldwide First hand accounts of the difficulties and challenges facing minority and indigenous children in every major world region Coverage of the key issues for promoting the right to education including overcoming the double discrimination faced by minority and indigenous girls the need to collect data by ethnicity and the importance of bilingual or plurilingual

2010 Preti Taneja,2010-07-01 A decade into the new century sees religious minorities confronting serious violations of their rights around the globe Following the violent attacks of 11 September 2001 governments of every political hue have used war on terror rhetoric to justify the repression of religious communities Other religious minorities have faced a violent backlash often unjustly accused of siding with belligerents In Africa the Middle East Asia and Latin America armed conflict and land seizures have forced minority and indigenous communities away from locations central to their religious beliefs Europe has witnessed gains by extreme right wing political parties which are targeting religious minorities with their inflammatory language In Central Asia governments have introduced tough new registration requirements for religious communities and prevented the building of places of worship In State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples 2010 Minority Rights Group International offers a comprehensive overview of the situation faced by minorities in a world increasingly divided along religious lines It includes An analysis of government initiatives that contribute to the marginalisation of religious minorities such as religious profiling and registration laws First hand accounts from around the world of the discrimination and exclusion faced by those belonging to minorities who wish to exercise their right to freedom of religion and belief An exploration of grassroots efforts through interfaith dialogue to ease tensions overcome conflicts and promote peaceful and equitable development An overview of the human rights situation of minorities and indigenous peoples in every major world region The unique statistical ranking and analysis Peoples under Threat 2010 An invaluable reference for policy makers academics journalists and everyone who is interested in the human rights situation of minorities and indigenous peoples around the world State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples 2011 Joanna

Hoare,2011-07-06 In the year that saw the establishment of UN Women the new United Nations entity for gender equality and women's empowerment minority and indigenous women continued to face violence discrimination and marginalization stemming both from their identity as women and as members of disadvantaged minority groups In Latin America despite the election of women as heads of state in several countries African descendant and indigenous women remain virtually invisible in public and political life They are also the population group that has borne the brunt of armed conflict in the region subjected to rape and sexual violence As elsewhere they have little hope of redress against those who assaulted them In Europe and Oceania migrant women face economic and social marginalization and are often unable to access support services because of their immigration status leaving them trapped in abusive relationships In 2010 women belonging to Muslim minorities in the global North choosing to wear the face veil also faced increasing pressure with bans under discussion in many countries In the Middle East and Africa minority and indigenous women continue to be subjected to religious and customary legal systems that deny them their rights while Iraqi refugee women many of whom belong to religious minorities elsewhere in the Middle East are increasingly vulnerable to trafficking and sexual exploitation In Asia sexual violence against women has again been used as a weapon against minority women while land seizures are resulting in further economic marginalization of indigenous groups This year's edition of State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples presents an overview of the situation of minority and indigenous women today and includes Discussions of gender based violence and armed conflict including the violence that indigenous and minority women experience within their own communities and the difficulties that they face in accessing justice and support from outside Consideration of the lack of progress made towards achieving the Millennium Development Goals for minority and indigenous women with special focus on reproductive rights and maternal mortality Interviews and special reports on trafficking intersectional discrimination land seizures and women's political representation Overviews of the human rights situation of minorities and indigenous peoples in every major world region Peoples Under Threat 2011 MRG's unique statistical analysis and ranking of countries An invaluable reference for policy makers academics journalists and everyone who is interested in the human rights situation of minorities and indigenous peoples around the world Routledge International Handbook of Schools and Schooling in Asia

Double Standards Pertaining to Minority Protection Kristin Henrard, 2010-10-05 While allegations of double standards are mostly voiced in relation to the EU this book takes a multidimensional approach to the use of differential standards concerning minorities and minority protection Not only do academics from different disciplines contribute to the volume but the multidimensionality also resides in the fact that several international organisations active in the field of minority protection are included in the analysis Furthermore differential standards are also discussed in relation to the ongoing debate about the status and rights of new minorities Finally the challenge of protecting minorities and other vulnerable groups within minorities is addressed In the process the book revisits the fundamental tenets of minority protection as well as the basic rationale of the international organisations concerned South Asia State of Minorities Report 2018 The South Asia Collective, 2018-01-01 South Asia's minorities religious and linguistic groups especially women and
