Minority Education And Caste The American System In Cross Cultural Perspective:

Minority Education and Caste John U. Ogbu, 1978      Muslim Uyghur Students in a Chinese Boarding School Yangbin Chen, 2008-01-01 Chen employs social capital as a conceptual tool to explore the life experience of a group of young Muslim students within the Han Chinese mainstream society      Kids Don't Want to Fail Angel L. Harris, 2011-06-13 Kids Don't Want to Fail uses empirical evidence to refute the widely accepted hypothesis that the black white achievement gap in secondary schools is due to a cultural resistance to schooling in the black community The author finds that inadequate elementary school preparation not negative attitude accounts for black students underperformance      History of Multicultural Education Volume 5 Carl A. Grant, Thandeka K. Chapman, 2013-10-23 This benchmark 6 volume set documents analyzes and critiques a comprehensive body of research on the history of multicultural education in the U S The volumes reflect the tenets of multicultural education its history its present and individuals whose work has contributed significantly to equity and social justice for all citizens By collecting and providing a framework for key publications spanning the last 30 40 years this set provides a means of understanding and visualizing the development implementation and interpretation of multicultural education in American society The volumes do not promote any one scholar s or group s vision of multicultural education but include conflicting ideals that inform multiple interpretations Each volume contains archival documents organized around a specific theme Conceptual Frameworks and Curricular Content Foundations and Stratifications Instruction and Assessment Policy and Governance Students and Student Achievement Teachers and Teacher Education The historical time line within each volume illustrates the progression of research and theory on its theme and encourages readers to reflect on the changes in language and thinking concerning educational scholarship in that area      Adolescent Identity and Schooling Cynthia Hudley, 2015-07-24 Adolescent Identity and Schooling Diverse Perspectives examines a range of issues related to student adjustment and achievement through research on student identity Drawn from leading experts in psychology and sociology it attends to important contemporary topics in educational and developmental psychology With special attention to how students assess and relate to their own identities this book features chapters on pertinent but under represented identities such as parental identity immigrant identity and model minority identity It blends these new topics with chapters containing the most current perspectives on traditionally covered topics such as race and social class In ten chapters this book provides readers with a comprehensive set of perspectives on the relationship between student identity and success in school making it ideal for education courses on identity in education educational psychology and human development      Implications of Marginalization and Critical Race Theory on Social Justice Chandan, Harish C., 2023-07-19 Critical race theory is an emerging transdisciplinary race equity methodology that originated in legal studies and is grounded in social justice Critical race theory questions the very foundation of the liberal order including equality theory legal reasoning enlightenment rationalism and neutral principles of the constitutional law It deals with a broad perspective that includes economics history context group and self interest feelings and the unconscious Further study on this theory is required to understand its various implications across fields Implications of Marginalization and Critical Race Theory on Social Justice raises awareness of racial justice and social equity by discussing the history and future directions of critical race theory across disciplines The book considers how the theory can be applied in various areas such as education psychology political science and law Covering topics such as dehumanization social discrimination and victimization this reference work is ideal for social psychologists lawyers political scientists researchers scholars historians academicians practitioners instructors and students

Race, Crime, and Criminal Justice Anita Kalunta-Crumpton, 2025-07-10 One of the most controversial topics on the subject of race crime and criminal justice is the disproportionate representation of Blacks in the criminal justice system as offenders and prison inmates Rather than portraying Blacks as perpetual victims of racism in which societal institutions are solely responsible for reform this book seeks to put the power of change in the hands of Blacks It focuses on the preventative role that Blacks might play and considers solution oriented ways to stop this vicious cycle

Counterrevolution Stephen Steinberg, 2022-01-18 In Black Reconstruction W E B Du Bois wrote The slave went free stood for a brief moment in the sun then moved back again toward slavery His words echo across the decades as the civil rights revolution marked by the passage of landmark civil rights laws in the 60s has seen those gains steadily and systematically whittled away As history testifies revolution nearly always triggers its antithesis counterrevolution In this book Steinberg provides an analysis of this backlash tracing the reverse flow of history that has led to the current national reckoning on race Steinberg puts counterrevolution into historical and theoretical perspective exploring the victim blaming and colorblind discourses that emerged in the post segregation era and undermined progress toward racial equality and led to the gutting of affirmative action This book reflects Steinberg s long career as a critical race scholar culminating with his assessment of our current moment and the possibilities for political transformation

Preparing for College William G. Tierney, Zoe B. Corwin, Julia E. Colyar, 2005-01-01 Analyzes and defines the parameters of effective college outreach programs

The New Immigrants and American Schools Marcelo M. Suárez-Orozco, Carola Suárez-Orozco, Desirée Qin-Hilliard, 2022-01-26 This six volume set focuses on Latin American Caribbean and Asian immigration which accounts for nearly 80 percent of all new immigration to the United States The volumes contain the essential scholarship of the last decade and present key contributions reflecting the major theoretical empirical and policy debates about the new immigration The material addresses vital issues of race gender and socioeconomic status as they intersect with the contemporary immigration experience Organized by theme each volume stands as an independent contribution to immigration studies with seminal journal articles and book chapters from hard to find sources comprising the most important literature on the subject The individual volumes include a brief preface presenting the major themes that emerge in the materials and a bibliography of further recommended readings In its coverage of the most influential scholarship on the social economic educational and civil rights issues revolving around new immigration this collection provides an invaluable resource for students and researchers in a wide range of fields including contemporary American history public policy education sociology political science demographics immigration law ESL linguistics and more Migrant, Roma and Post-Colonial Youth in Education across Europe J. Szalai, C. Schiff, 2014-06-25 This book compares the educational experiences of adolescents from a variety of visible ethnic minority groups across Europe Focusing on underprivileged urban contexts it reveals the structural inequalities as well as the often conflicting inter ethnic relations which develop in classrooms playgrounds and larger communities The Oppositional Culture Theory Paul C. Mocombe, Carol Tomlin, 2010-10-11 Mocombe and Tomlin explore the black white achievement gap in America and Great Britain gaining understanding through black bourgeois living and the labeled pathologies of the black underclass Within the class dualism of capitalist social relations blacks throughout the Diaspora attempt to exist in the world Furthermore blacks must construct their identities and be in the world by choosing between the discursive practices of the Protestant and capitalist ideology of the black Protestant bourgeoisie or the beliefs of the black underclass which appear to dismiss these practices as acting white John Ogburn's term Presently the practical consciousness constituted as hip hop culture of the black underclass supported by finance capital have dominated the American and global social structure and one of its dys functions is the black white achievement gap which is a global phenomenon emanating from black America and affecting blacks around the globe Although the histories of blacks in America and in Great Britain are fundamentally different Mocombe and Tomlin argue in this work that during the age of globalization the social functions of the dominating black consciousness hip hop culture coming out of America are the locus of causality for the black white achievement gap in America and Great Britain Tomlin highlights this problematic by analyzing effective strategies employed by high achieving blacks in Great Britain and Mocombe does the same through an analysis of an effective reading curriculum in an American inner city after school program Encyclopedia of Early Childhood Education Leslie R. Williams, Doris Pronin Fromberg, 2012 This Encyclopedia is a reference work about young children in the USA designed for use by policy makers community planners parents of young children teacher and early childhood educators programme and school administrators among others The field of early childhood education has been affected by changes taking place in the nation's economy demographics schools communities and families that influence political and professional decisions The Encyclopedia provides an opportunity to define the field against the background of these influences and relates the field of early childhood education to its diverse contexts and to the cultural and technological resources currently affecting it Coming of Age in U.S. High Schools Annette B. Hemmings, 2004-05-20 Coming of Age in U S High Schools Economic Kinship Religious and Political Crosscurrents takes readers into the lives of urban and suburban adolescents for a close up look at how they navigate the conflicting discourses and disciplinary practices of American cultural crosscurrents that flow through economic kinship religious and political domains of American life The book is distinctive in how it combines classic anthropological theory and contemporary post anthropological perspectives into an innovative framework for understanding adolescent coming of age processes in U S public high schools Coming of age is conceived as a dual process of community integration and identity formation In this expansive multi site ethnography of high school students representing diverse racial ethnic social class gender and sexual backgrounds coming of age is described and analyzed as it unfolded in the classrooms and corridors of three high schools a racially desegregated urban school a suburban school serving middle class students and a school with a majority of Black youth living in impoverished inner city neighborhoods The study goes well beyond issues of academic achievement to recognize and explore the function of U S high schools in smoothing adolescent transitions into the multiple domains of American life Graduating seniors in the final analyses are heralded as absorbers of traditions barometers of trends and harbingers of change Of interest to a broad range of researchers teachers and educational policymakers this book is particularly relevant for scholars faculty and graduate students in social foundations of education educational anthropology secondary teacher education qualitative educational research and related fields Faculty Diversity JoAnn

Moody,2013-06-17 Why do we see so little progress in diversifying faculty at America s colleges universities and professional schools This book explores this important question and provides steps for hastening faculty diversity Drawing on her extensive consultant practice and expertise as well as research and scholarship from several fields Dr Moody provides practical and feasible ways to improve faculty recruitment retention and mentorship especially of under represented women in science related fields and non immigrant minorities in all fields The second edition of Faculty Diversity offers new insights strategies and caveats to the current state of faculty diversity This revised edition includes New strategies to prevent unintended cognitive bias and errors that damage faculty recruitment and retention Expanded discussion on the importance of different cultural contexts political and historical experiences inhabited and inherited by non immigrant faculty and students Increased testimonials and on the ground reflections from faculty administrators and leaders in higher education with new attention to medical and other professional schools Updated Appendix with Discussion Scenarios and Practice Exercises useful to search and evaluation committees department chairs deans faculty senates and diversity councils Expanded chapter on mentoring that dispels myths about informal mentoring and underlines essential components for formal programs Moody provides an essential reliable and eye opening guide for colleges medical and other professional schools that are frustrated in their efforts to diversify their faculty Research Method in the Postmodern James Joseph
