Minority Peoples In The Age Of Nation St:

Minority Peoples in the Age of Nation-states Gérard Chaliand, 1989 Genocide in the Age of the Nation State Mark Levene, 2005-08-26 How should we understand genocide in the modern world As an aberration from the norms of a dominant liberal international society Or rather as a guide to the very dysfunctional nature of the international system itself The Meaning of Genocide is the first work of its nature to consider the phenomenon within a broad context of world historical development In this book Mark Levene sets out the conceptual issues in the study of genocide addressing the fundamental problems of defining genocide and understanding what we mean by perpetrators and victims before placing the phenomenon in the context of world history In an original and compelling argument Levene seeks to explain how state violence against a range of groups has emerged in tandem with the rise of the West to global dominance and the emergence of increasingly streamlined homogenous states Levene contends that it is in the relationship of these nation states to each other that we will find the well springs of some of the most poisonous tendencies in the modern world Thought provoking and beautifully constructed The Meaning of Genocide is the first of a major four volume survey Genocide in the Age of the Nation State which examines its subject within an extensive global and historical framework and which will become the definitive work on the subject Outsiders Panikos Panayi, 1998-07-01 The oppression of minorities has been a theme in the history of Europe

It has been a cause of dispute over territory often resulting in war With nation states demanding undivided loyalty of its citizens there has been discrimination and racism which has often led to persecution at its most extreme in the Nazi crusade against the Jews This is a history of European minority communities It deals with the dispersed minorities the Jews and the gypsies as well as the muslims of the Balkans and the diaspora of Germans in eastern Europe from the Middle Ages to 1945 Almost all countries have disadvantaged ethnic and linguistic minorities whether minorities without their own states such as the Breton Scots Vlachs and Kurds or those such as the Russians in Estonia or the Greeks in Turkey who form linguistic groups different from the native majorities During wars the existence of alien communities often led to persecution in turn bringing huge refugee migrations The result has been the resettlement of European populations Since World War II the demand for cheap labour has led to an influx of immigrants from outside Europe This followed a wave in which workers from the poor Mediterranean countries travelled north to industrial heartlands Although all EEC countries now operate strict controls on immigrants there is pressure from the east following the fall of Communism and from the Third World where birth rates outstrip that of Europe The existence of this pressure is a determinant of Europe s history in the 21st century

Religious Minorities, Nation States and Security Mario Apostolov, 2020-10-07 This title was first published in 2001 Why in this contemporary secular age does violent conflict among confessional communities still occur Covering several key conflicts of recent years in one of the most dynamic areas of the world the Eastern Mediterranean and the Balkans Mario Apostolov uses both interpretative and comparative analysis to answer this question His versatile approach makes for an engaging account that makes an important contribution to the current debate surrounding such conflicts The author focuses on five case studies taken from the traditional zone of contact between Christianity and Islam The Copts The Palestinian Christians The Lebanese communities The Pomaks The communities of Bosnia Herzegovina The book examines the relationship between these issues and communal mobilisation the collective use of violence and the problems of international security An informative study for students academics policy makers and personnel in international organizations with an interest in communal conflict and security China's National Minority Education Gerard A. Postiglione, 2013-10-15 This volume focuses on policies and practices in the education of China's national minorities with the purpose of assessing the goals and impact of state sponsored education for China's non Han people's The essays in the four sections of this book examine cultural challenges to state schooling the extent of educational provision in minority areas the perspectives of Tibetan and Uyghur minorities toward state education along with providing case studies of four national minorities The book makes the point that despite the authoritarian character of China's state schooling diversity reigns Responding to the Human Rights Deficit Paschal Mihyo, Karin Arts, 2021-10-25 Despite the existence of a wide range of human rights instruments and procedures human rights violations still abound The authors of this book address this so called human rights deficit and the possible responses to it from various disciplinary angles and mostly in the context of development They explore the reasons for the continuation of economic social and or political exclusion and human rights violations at large They also present keys for redressing the human rights deficit The role of law and questions of universality inclusion and exclusion are central themes in this book The need to take up civil and political rights and economic social and cultural rights on equal footing is recognized by several of the authors and so is that of bridging the public private divide Specific contributions address among others the importance of human rights training and education the role of NGO's in a globalizing world minorities gender and women's rights accountability of multinational corporations and the problem of human trafficking An Ethnic History of Europe since 1945 Panikos Panayi, 2018-10-08 The first history of Europe since 1945 which examines the continent from a mainly ethnic perspective Panikos Panayi has drawn on years of research to produce this comparative and exploratory account of the experience of ethnic minorities in post war Europe The coverage encompasses all categories of minorities including immigrants and refugees localised ethnic groupings and dispersed peoples Geographically the scope of the book ranges from the Atlantic to the Urals and the Mediterranean to the Arctic looking in particular at the Soviet Union Britain France Germany Romania Cyprus and the former Yugoslavia The Postdiaspora Condition Michel S. Laguerre, 2017-06-28 This book aims to fill a void in the literature on the contributions of the state to the social protection educational training and human security of its overseas citizens Additionally Michel S Laguerre seeks to explain the rise of the postdiaspora condition an emancipatory metamorphosis of diaspora status Laguerre pays particular attention to the crossborder services that the state provides transfrontier mechanisms developed by various institutions as well as extraterritorial forms of management and governance He sheds light on complex crossborder arrangements and management the multiplicity of crossborder agencies and organizations and the promulgation of new laws that provide a legal basis for these extraterritorial undertakings by the state The ability of emigrants to hold citizen status and to enjoy access to the same rights and privileges as those offered to residents of the homeland sets the cosmopolitan context for the performance of the postdiaspora condition

Kurdish Diasporas Ö. Wahlbeck,1999-03-08 In this important theoretical contribution to the area of refugee studies based on ethnographic field work among Kurdish refugees the author has uniquely combined empirical evidence and contemporary sociological theories of diasporas and transnationalism The book provides essential reading for anybody looking for a comprehensive view of refugee resettlement issues and it will be of special interest to anybody concerned with the topical Kurdish question The North Caucasus: Minorities at a Crossroads Helen Liesl Krag,Lars Funch,1994-12-14

The North Caucasus region stretches along the high peaks of the Caucasian mountains from the shores of the Black Sea in the north west to the coast of the Caspian Sea in the south east For centuries it has represented the literal and symbolic frontier between Europe and Asia Today the region forms part of the Russian Federation bordering Georgia and Azerbaijan Following the breakup of the USSR the North Caucasus has become a border region of renewed geopolitical interest This is one of Europe s most ethnically diverse regions and is home to over 40 distinct ethnic groups As the peoples of the North Caucasus seek to redefine their identities in the current political arrangements a multitude of latent and manifest conflicts have emerged In The North Caucasus Minorities at a Crossroads Dr Helen Krag and Lars Funch give an overview of the region s history the peoples of the North Caucasus and the claims and conflicts past and present This report is one of the first publications to examine the North Caucasus and its peoples in depth alerting the public and governments to a potentially volatile situation and suggesting ideas for possible action Please note that the terminology in the fields of minority rights and indigenous peoples rights has changed over time MRG strives to reflect these changes as well as respect the right to self identification on the part of minorities and indigenous peoples At the same time after over 50 years work we know that our archive is of considerable interest to activists and researchers Therefore we make available as much of our back catalogue as possible while being aware that the language used may not reflect current thinking on these issues Empire, Colony, Genocide A. Dirk Moses,2008-06-01 In 1944 Raphael Lemkin coined the term genocide to describe a foreign occupation that destroyed or permanently crippled a subject population In this tradition Empire Colony Genocide embeds genocide in the epochal geopolitical transformations of the past 500 years the European colonization of the globe the rise and fall of the continental land empires violent decolonization and the formation of nation states It thereby challenges the customary focus on twentieth century mass crimes and shows that genocide and ethnic cleansing have been intrinsic to imperial expansion The complexity of the colonial encounter is reflected in the contrast between the insurgent identities and genocidal strategies that subaltern peoples sometimes developed to expel the occupiers and those local elites and creole groups that the occupiers sought to co opt Presenting case studies on the Americas Australia Africa Asia the Ottoman Empire Imperial Russia and the Nazi Third Reich leading authorities examine the colonial dimension of the genocide concept as well as the imperial systems and discourses that enabled conquest Empire Colony Genocide is a world history of genocide that highlights what Lemkin called the role of the human group and its tribulations Migration, Globalisation and Human Security David T. Graham,Nana K. Poku,2005-08-04 Migration Globalisation and Human Security looks at a range of security and human security issues related to the displacement of civilian populations and shows how the tenuous existence of migrants can lead to a myriad of human security threats Providing major theoretical analyses of recent migration trends and in depth case studies this book shows that a redefinition of the notion of human security is now needed As If Peoples Mattered Zelim Skurbaty,2021-11-22 Ours is an era of decline for the nation state and one of world wide concern for the problems surrounding sub state groups minorities peoples and indigenous populations The often violent resurgence of conflicts between these groups and States in even the stable democracies poses a challenge to international law as well as to liberal political principles In this volume an expert in international minority rights provides not only significant clarification of the legal issues involved but also trenchant insights taken from a wide range of humanitarian disciplines from philosophy and systems theory to neuro linguistic programming NLP and transactional analysis TA The result is a meticulously researched book exploring from a variety of perspectives the terms peoples and minorities in international law as well as relationships between minorities peoples and indigenous rights individuation and self determination Of special interest is the attempt of the author to explain the existence of double standards in international minority rights dubbing them games with the help of transactional analysis and to redefine and reframe the basic terms such as international law sovereignty self determination etc The straightforward claim of the author is that the proposed theories can help both members of minorities and those in executive positions to gain insights on the cognitive level and make more congruent community oriented decisions on the practical level The book will hold particular appeal for all those interested in the international law of human rights politics and philosophy as well as students seeking a multi disciplinary perspective on these much debated areas Global Minority Rights Joshua Castellino,2017-05-15 This important volume brings together a range of material in different areas of law and the social sciences that address questions concerning the rights of minorities The discipline is arguably one of the oldest branches of public international law and owes its heritage to those who struggled to create standards to protect the numerically inferior and non dominant communities from the excesses of the majority While reflecting this rich heritage the works contained in this volume show the extent to which policy constructs especially in law have begun to pay heed to the need to include minorities in different domestic settings across the globe To provide readers with a structured approach to understanding global minority rights law the editor divides the issues into six main headings namely Historical Development Conceptual Development Contemporary Challenges Fundamental Norms of Minority Protection Specific Rights of Minorities

Human Rights and Minority Rights At the Edge of the State: Indigenous Peoples and Self Determination Maivân Lãm, 2021-10-25 Focusing on issues raised by the U N Working Group on Indigenous Peoples this study reveals the obstacles to self determination for these peoples in all parts of the world The author argues using both legal and social theory that the right of self determination can be available to indigenous peoples and proposes measures that the UN might institute to oversee the realization of this right Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint Global Indigenous Media

Pamela Wilson, Michelle Stewart, 2008-08-27 Explores how indigenous peoples are entering using and creating new social spaces in a globalizing media environment mapping this emergent trend across the globe Minority Peoples in the Age of Nation-states Gerard Chaliand, 1990 Encyclopedia of Human Rights Edward H. Lawson, 1996 Preface to the first edition The Minorities of Cyprus Nicholas Coureas, Marina Elia, Andrekos Varnava, 2009-05-27 This book examines the various minorities living in the island of Cyprus from the early modern late Venetian and early Ottoman period down to the present day It charts their history with special emphasis on their relations with the powers ruling Cyprus and with the two dominant Christian Greek and Muslim Turkish communities The theme running through the book is that despite being significant members of Cyprus society the three historical minorities Maronites Armenians and Latins were only included in society to a certain extent by the two major communities This was formalised in the post independence 1960 period when they were compelled to become members of either dominant community and thus they suffered internal exclusion by being regarded as religious sub groups of one of the two dominant communities rather than national minorities in their own right Within this general context the social legal and political roles customs culture and language of the various minorities are examined as they evolved through time and in response to internal and external developments affecting Cyprus in the political economic and global spheres They are discussed not as static entities but as evolving groups that have adapted with greater or lesser degrees of success to the radical and at times painful changes Cyprus has undergone especially over the last 150 years in all walks of life Finally the question of what the future holds for the minorities of the island in the light of Cyprus EU membership and the prospect of reunification are also analysed This book is a product of the conference Minorities of Cyprus Past Present and Future which was held on 24 and 25 November 2007 at the European University Cyprus Religious Minorities in Iran Eliz Sanasarian, 2000-04-13 Eliz Sanasarian s book explores the political and ideological relationship between non Muslim religious minorities in Iran and the state during the formative years of the Islamic Republic to the present day Her analysis is based on a detailed examination of the history and experiences of the Armenians Assyrians Chaldeans Jews Zoroastrians Bahais and Iranian Christians and describes how these communities have responded to state policies regarding minorities Many of her findings are constructed out of personal interviews with members of these communities While the book is essentially an empirical study it also highlights more general questions associated with exclusion and marginalization and the role of the state in defining these boundaries This is an important and original book which will make a significant contribution to the literature on minorities and to the workings of the Islamic Republic
