models of the labyrinth and explores their formal implications the unicursal model with no false turnings found almost universally in the visual arts and the multicursal model with blind alleys and dead ends characteristic of literary texts This paradigmatic clash between the labyrinths of art and of literature becomes a key to the metaphorical potential of the maze as Doob s examination of a vast array of materials from the classical period through the Middle Ages suggests She concludes with linked readings of four labyrinths of words Virgil s Aeneid Boethius Consolation of Philosophy Dante s Divine Comedy and Chaucer s House of Fame each of which plays with and transforms received ideas of the labyrinth as well as reflecting and responding to aspects of the texts that influenced it Doob not only provides fresh theoretical and historical perspectives on the labyrinth tradition but also portrays a complex medieval aesthetic that helps us to approach structurally elaborate early works Readers in such fields as Classical literature Medieval Studies Renaissance Studies comparative literature literary theory art history and intellectual history will welcome this wide ranging and illuminating book Gothic Literary Travel and Tourism Alex Bevan,2023-05-15 Gothic tourism is a growing phenomenon and a medium through which Gothic fictions and folkloric tales are re imagined and generated This book examines the complex relationship between contemporary English Gothic attractions and storytelling uncovering how works of Gothic fiction can both inspire Gothic tourism and emerge from the spaces of Gothic tourism contending that Gothic tourist attractions are multi layered storytelling experiences Contributing to the study of literature and place Gothic Literary Travel and Tourism draws together the study of literary Gothic tourism and spatial philosophy offering interdisciplinary analysis into the interface between Gothic narrative s and the spaces in which the tourist navigates The storytelling practices taking place in Gothic caves theme parks ghost tours and rural walks serve to reflect contemporary fears and anxieties This book situates the act of touring a Gothic site as a process of literary and social discovery The Philosophy of Film Noir Mark T.
