Minotaurs And Other Alphabets Poems:

Minotaurs & Other Alphabets Nicole Markotić, 1998 The poems in minotaurs other alphabets range from the prose poetry we were introduced to in her previous book Connect the Dots to a less referential exploration of female desire and mythological beasts

Minos and the Moderns Theodore Ziolkowski, 2008-07-17 Minos and the Moderns considers three mythological complexes that enjoyed a unique surge of interest in early twentieth century European art and literature Europa and the bull the minotaur and the labyrinth and Daedalus and Icarus All three are situated on the island of Crete and are linked by the figure of King Minos Drawing examples from fiction poetry drama painting sculpture opera and ballet Minos and the Moderns is the first book of its kind to treat the role of the Cretan myths in the modern imagination Beginning with the resurgence of Crete in the modern consciousness in 1900 following the excavations of Sir Arthur Evans Theodore Ziolkowski shows how the tale of Europa in poetry drama and art but also in cartoons advertising and currency was initially seized upon as a story of sexual awakening then as a vehicle for social and political satire and finally as a symbol of European unity In contrast the minotaur provided artists ranging from Picasso to Drenth with an image of the artist's sense of alienation while the labyrinth suggested to many writers the threatening sociopolitical world of the twentieth century Ziolkowski also considers the roles of such modern figures as Marx Nietzsche and Freud of travelers to Greece and Crete from Isadora Duncan to Henry Miller and of the theorists and writers including T S Eliot and Thomas Mann who hailed the use of myth in modern literature Minos and the Moderns concludes with a summary of the manners in which the economic aesthetic psychological and anthropological revisions enabled precisely these myths to be taken up as a mirror of modern consciousness The book will appeal to all readers interested in the classical tradition and its continuing relevance and especially to scholars of Classics and modern literatures

Wild Words Donna Coates, George Melnyk, 2009 As the first collection of literary criticism focusing on Alberta writers Wild Words establishes a basis for identifying Alberta fiction poetry drama and nonfiction as valid subjects of study in their own right The idea for this collection began with 100 years of literary tradition for Alberta's centenary However Alberta's literary roots go back much farther than that to the oration of First Nation's peoples and the colonizing exploration and travel literature of the 18th and 19th centuries

Writing Lovers Méira Cook, 2005 Is it possible to capture something as ephemeral as love with mere words Méira Cook draws on Lacan Derrida Barthes and Kristeva to wrestle with the theoretical problems of representing the unrepresentable In Writing Lovers she searches for a language adequate to articulating the discourse of passion desire and longing in the love poetry of Dionne Brand Elizabeth Smart Daphne Marlatt Dorothy Livesay Kristjana Gunnars and Nicole Markotić In writings by the French post structuralists rhetorical tropes such as speechlessness fragmentation and deflection testify to the writer's difficulty in broaching the subject of love Similarly Cook shows that love poetry proceeds out of a profound failure of language resulting from the opacity of discourse its lack of neutrality or the fugitive transparency of reference Writing Lovers also explores race ethnicity age and sexual identity within the context of the passionate excesses of amatory discourse Biting the Error Gail Scott, Robert Gluck, Camille Roy, 2000-11-19 What is the best way to tell a story In this anthology the first ever collection of essays by innovative cutting edge writers on the theme of narration forty of the continent's top experimental writers describe their engagement with language storytelling and the world The anthology includes renowned writers like Kathy Acker Dennis Cooper Nicole Brossard Daphne Marlatt Lydia Davis and Kevin Killian writers who have spent years pondering the meaning of storytelling and how storytelling functions in our culture as well as presenting a new generation of brilliant thinkers and writers like Christian B k Corey Frost Derek McCormack and Lisa Robertson Contemporizing the friendly anecdotal style of Montaigne and written by daring writers of different ages of different origins from many different regions of the continent from Mexico to Montreal these essays run the gamut of mirth prose poetry tall tales and playful explorations of reader writer dynamics They discuss aesthetics founded on new explorations in the field of narrative the mystery that is the body questions of how representation may be torqued to deal with gender and sexuality the experience of marginalized people the negotiation between different orders of time the performance of outlaw subject matter Brave energetic and fresh Biting the Error tells a whole new story about narrative Biting the Error is edited by Mary Burger Robert Gluck Camille Roy and Gail Scott the co founders of the Narrativity Website Magazine based at the Poetry Center San Francisco State University a sublime voyage into the heart of literary creation Foreword by Russell Morton Brown      Re:generations Di Brandt, Diana Brandt, Barbara Godard, 2005      Post-prairie Jon Paul Fiorentino, Robert Kroetsch, 2005 Twenty five authors come together in this groundbreaking collection to recreate prairie poetry as it was known in the 20th century      Open Letter, 2004

Windsor Review, 2005      University of Toronto Quarterly University of Toronto, 1895      West Coast Line, 2000

Minotaur Tom Paulin, 1992 One of the most powerful poets of his generation consolidates his reputation as an exceptionally forthright and astringent critic in this book that analyzes the relationship between English language literature especially poetry and nineteenth and twentieth century politics Tom Paulin's criticism stays on track always responsive to a work's characteristic genius and sensitive to its social setting Each of these essays on poets ranging from Robert Southey and Christina Rossetti to Philip Larkin from John Clare to Elizabeth Bishop and Ted Hughes with a few excursions into the poetry of Eastern Europe for contrast is informed by a love for poetry and a lively attention to detail At every turn Paulin demonstrates the intricate connection between the private imagination and society at large simultaneously illuminating the kinship between the literature of the past and of the present He also relates the poetry to themes of nationhood and to ideas about orality speech rhythms and vernacular background Minotaur exemplifies the sort of general accessible criticism of the arts that will interest a wide range of readers      Canadian Book Review Annual, 1999
