Mipam, the Lama of the Five Wisdoms. A Tibetan Novel by Lama Yongden [or Rather, by Lama Yongden and L.A.E.M. David-Neel]. (English Version by Percy Lloyd and Bernard Miall.). Albert Arthur Yongden, Alexandra David-Néel, Percy Robert LLOYD, Arthur Bernard MIALL, 1938      Mipam Lama Yon Ldan, 1938      Mipam: The Lama of the Five Wisdoms Albert Arthur Yongden, Lama Yongden, Percy Lloyd, 1987-01-01 This story drawn from old Tibetan folk tales has the psychological depth of a western novel It is a love story woven around the search for the missing reincarnation of a great Lama Along the way we glimpse a people whose spirituality is as exalted as the Himalayas There is humor as well when the hero encounters a bewildering group of Christian missionaries In the depiction of Chinese culture and the Chinese merchants of Tibet there is a foreshadowing of the country's tragic fate      Mipam Lama Yongden, 1938      Nietzsche's Zarathustra C. G. Jung, 2014-12-18 As a young man growing up near Basel Jung was fascinated and disturbed by tales of Nietzsche's brilliance eccentricity and eventual decline into permanent psychosis These volumes the transcript of a previously unpublished private seminar reveal the fruits of his initial curiosity Nietzsche's works which he read as a student at the University of Basel had moved him profoundly and had a life long influence on his thought During the sessions the mature Jung spoke informally to members of his inner circle about a thinker whose works had not only overwhelmed him with the depth of their understanding of human nature but also provided the philosophical sources of many of his own psychological and metapsychological ideas Above all he demonstrated how the remarkable book Thus Spoke Zarathustra illustrates both Nietzsche's genius and his neurotic and prepsychotic tendencies Since there was at that time no thought of the seminar notes being published Jung felt free to joke to lash out at people and events that irritated or angered him and to comment unreservedly on political economic and other public concerns of the time This seminar and others including the one recorded in Dream Analysis were given in English in Zurich during the 1920s and 1930s      The English Catalogue of Books Published from January, 1835, to January, 1863, 1864      Hats Hilda Amphlett, 2012-11-16 An illustrated view of 2 000 years of head coverings this engaging and literate survey features over 800 drawings depicting the headgear of both genders all classes and many nationalities      Asia in Western fiction Robin Winks, 2017-03-01 Any reader who has ever visited Asia knows that the great bulk of Western language fiction about Asian cultures turns on stereotypes This book a collection of essays explores the problem of entering Asian societies through Western fiction since this is the major port of entry for most school children university students and most adults In the thirteenth century serious attempts were made to understand Asian literature for its own sake Hau Kioou Chooan a typical Chinese novel was quite different from the wild and magical pseudo Oriental tales European perceptions of the Muslim world are centuries old originating in medieval Christendom's encounter with Islam in the age of the Crusades There is explicit and sustained criticism of medieval mores and values in Scott's novels set in the Middle Ages and this is to be true of much English language historical fiction of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Even mediocre novels take on momentary importance because of the pervasive power of India The awesome remote and inaccessible Himalayas inevitably became for Western writers an idealised setting for novels of magic romance and high adventure and for travellers tales that read like fiction Chinese fictions flourish in many guises Most contemporary Hong Kong fiction reinforced corrupt mandarins barbaric punishments and heathens Of the novels about Japan published after 1945 two may serve to frame a discussion of Japanese behaviour as it could be observed or imagined by prisoners of war Black Fountains and Three Bamboos Alexandra David-Neel Infobase Holdings, Inc.,2004 Women Explorers chronicles the lives of six intrepid women whose hunger for adventure and knowledge compelled them on paths of discovery around the world Their discoveries not only brought stores of information on topics ranging from ancient dinosaur fossils to life in Tibet but also challenged the established roles of women in their fields From the age of five Alexandra David Neel longed for adventure and freedom from the societal expectations of women in nineteenth century Europe She traveled to Asia where she learned about Eastern religions and cultures and became the first non Asian woman to enter the forbidden Tibetan city of Lhasa Mipam Albert Arthur Yongden,1971 Forbidden Journey Barbara M.
