Mir Selected Paintings:

Henley's Twentieth Century Formulas, Recipes and Processes; Containing Ten Thousand Selected Household and Workshop, Formulas, Recipes, Processes and Money-saving Ideas Gardner Dexter Hiscox, 1924 Poets on Paintings Robert D. Denham, 2010-03-10 Ekphrasis the description of pictorial art in words is the subject of this bibliography More specifically some 2500 poems on paintings are catalogued by type of publication in which they appear and by poet Also included are 2000 entries on the secondary literature of ekphrasis including works on sculpture music photography film and mixed media Selected Papers Vasily Sesemann, 2010-01-01 The Baltic philosopher Vasily Sesemann 1884 1963 rooted in the Classics and influenced but not dominated by Kant Herder Bergson Husserl and Lossky was a first rate scholar in the fields of aesthetics epistemology logic and history of philosophy But he is still relatively unknown internationally because he wrote mostly in Lithuanian and some of his many works are only now being translated into English This successor volume to his Aesthetics collects eight noteworthy essays ranging from the scholarly to the popular on aesthetics aesthetic education national culture and theory of knowledge They reveal a sympathetic and responsive mind equally at home in Ancient Greek and modern French German and Russian philosophy and capable both of untendentiously expounding their dominant ideas and fruitfully anticipating newer developments even as the latter began to take shape in early to mid 20th century Western European philosophy Hallmarks of Sesemann's thought are the Heraclitean preference for becoming dynamism change over being stasis timelessness and the idea that any culture in order to survive and grow must be intellectually deep and open to foreign influences This insight has crucial relevance to the debates about multiculturalism today Selected Essays on Opera Ulrich Weisstein, 2006 Ulrich Weisstein an international authority in the fields of comparative literature and comparative arts has been a pioneer paving the way for present day intermedia studies Among his broad intermedial interests opera has always held a central place For the first time this volume makes available his major contributions to opera criticism in compact form thus meeting a serious scholarly demand The necessarily stringent selection of essays from Professor Weisstein's large output on opera reflecting fifty years of involvement with the genre is primarily governed by the wish to present texts that are representative of their author's work and at the same time are unlikely to be readily available through other channels The fourteen essays collected are arranged in chronological order some of them showing Ulrich Weisstein as an initiator of librettology others tracing adaptive processes extending from textual sources to final operas or investigating writer composer collaborations Further topics are satirical reflections on operatic activities in early eighteenth century Italy and practices of opera censorship artist operas or definitions of romantic and epic opera The essays are written in an accessible essentially non technical language and are expected to make both a profitable and a pleasurable reading for literary scholars as well as musicologists and general art lovers , A Selection of Late 18th & Early 19th Century Indian Botanical Paintings Recording the Indigenous and Introduced Flora of the Subcontinent, Commissioned by the

Wallace,1995 The volume begins with overviews of Michelangelo s life and work and contains more focused essays on the artist s political thought and his chief biographers Ascanio Condivi and Giorgio Vasari Other articles survey Michelangelo s early career and principal works including the Rome Piet the David the Doni Tondo and his commission to paint the Battle of Cascina in competition with Leonardo da Vinci Arts Digest ,1928 Select List of Recent Publications East-West Center. Library,1964 Selected Papers on Ancient Literature and its Reception Philip Russell Hardie,2023-08-21 This volume gathers together about two thirds of the articles and essays published between 1983 and 2021 by Philip Hardie whose work on ancient literature has been of seminal importance in the field The centre of gravity lies in late Republican and Augustan poetry in particular Lucretius Virgil and Ovid with important contributions on wider Augustan culture on Neronian and Flavian epic on the Latin poetry of late antiquity and on the reception of Latin poetry Early Mughal Painting Milo Cleveland Beach,1987 One of the minor miracles of art history is the extraordinary flowering of Indian painting that began in the mid sixteenth century under the early Mughal emperors of Indian notably Akbar the Great Only in recent decades has the consummate artistry of early Mughal painting come to be widely appreciated in the West Scholars have noted the innovations departures from both Islamic and native Indian tradition of the new highly distinctive school of painting among them natural history studies a concern for portraiture and the documentation of contemporary court events Milo Beach traces with an abundance of captivating illustrations the evolution of the Mughal style While acknowledging the influence of Akbar s interests and changing tastes related in turn to historical and biographical circumstances he shows that many of the new tendencies were evident during the short reign of Akbar's father the Emperor Humayun whose role as patron of the arts is thereby reassessed Beach also stresses the traditionalism of the individual painters who only gradually changed their concepts and compositions in response to foreign influences and to imperial taste Mughal art he affirms can no longer be regarded as simply a reflection of its imperial patrons The book takes account of recently discovered material and reproduces for the first time important paintings from unpublished manuscripts and albums It will appeal to the general reader as well as the scholar

Critical Perspectives on Classicism in Japanese Painting

Elizabeth Lillehoj, 2004-01-01 In the West classical art inextricably linked to concerns of a ruling or dominant class commonly refers to art with traditional themes and styles that resurrect a past golden era Although art of the early Edo period 1600-1868 encompasses a spectrum of themes and styles references to the past are so common that many Japanese art historians have variously described this period as a classical revival era of classicism or a renaissance How did seventeenth century artists and patrons imagine the past Why did they so often select styles and themes from the court culture of the Heian period 794-1185 Were references to the past something new or were artists and patrons in previous periods equally interested in manners that came to be seen as classical How did classical manners relate to other styles and themes found in Edo art In considering such questions the contributors to this volume hold that classicism has been an amorphous changing concept in Japan just as in the West Troublesome in its ambiguity and implications it cannot be separated from the political and ideological interests of those who have employed it over the years The modern writers who first

Analytical Chemistry for Cultural Heritage Rocco Mazzeo, 2017-01-25 The series Topics in Current Chemistry Collections presents critical reviews from the journal Topics in Current Chemistry organized in topical volumes The scope of coverage is all areas of chemical science including the interfaces with related disciplines such as biology medicine and materials science The goal of each thematic volume is to give the non specialist reader whether in academia or industry a comprehensive insight into an area where new research is emerging which is of interest to a larger scientific audience Each review within the volume critically surveys one aspect of that topic and places it within the context of the volume as a whole The most significant developments of the last 5 to 10 years are presented using selected examples to illustrate the principles discussed The coverage is not intended to be an exhaustive summary of the field or include large quantities of data but should rather be conceptual concentrating on the methodological thinking that will allow the non specialist reader to understand the information presented Contributions also offer an outlook on potential future developments in the field
