Fage, Roland Anthony Oliver, 1975 The period covered in this volume begins with the emergence of anti slave trade attitudes in Europe and ends on the eve of European colonial conquest Africa and the Africans in the Nineteenth Century: A Turbulent History Catherine Coquery-Vidrovitch, Mary Baker, 2015-02-12 Most histories seek to understand modern Africa as a troubled outcome of nineteenth century European colonialism but that is only a small part of the story In this celebrated book beautifully translated from the French edition the history of Africa in the nineteenth century unfolds from the perspective of Africans themselves rather than the European powers It was above all a time of tremendous internal change on the African continent Great jihads of Muslim conquest and conversion swept over West Africa In the interior warlords competed to control the internal slave trade In the east the sultanate of Zanzibar extended its reach via coastal and interior trade routes In the north Egypt began to modernize while Algeria was colonized In the south a series of forced migrations accelerated spurred by the progression of white settlement Through much of the century African societies assimilated and adapted to the changes generated by these diverse forces In the end the West's technological advantage prevailed and most of Africa fell under European control and lost its independence Yet only by taking into account the rich complexity of this tumultuous past can we fully understand modern Africa from the colonial period to independence and the Insurgency and Counterinsurgency in the Nineteenth Century Mark Lawrence, 2020-12-17 difficulties of today Insurgency and Counterinsurgency in the Nineteenth Century examines insurgency and counterinsurgency across the globe in the nineteenth century The volume includes chapters from distinguished and rising historians from Europe North and South America and covers irregular wars in Spain Ireland France Latin America China USA Africa Central Asia and Burma The authors explore links between insurgencies and nationalism including learning curves and emulation in counterinsurgency With a special emphasis on non Western warfare this volume includes case studies such as the Katanga and White Lotus rebellions largely unknown to Western readers The military history of the nineteenth century thus reveals much more than the symmetrical warfare of Napoleon Grant and Moltke This volume shows the commonalities of responses more than their differences and refracts these through themes which crop up repeatedly in different times and places These themes include common problems and solutions the challenge of commanding local intelligence networks public opinion millenarianism magic and religion technology hearts and minds the legal framework of state violence racial stereotypes and patterns of forgetting and remembering guerrilla conflicts The first recent study to examine Western and non Western warfare in equal measure stressing the prevalence of commonalities between guerrilla warfare and counterinsurgency across the globe Insurgency and Counterinsurgency in the Nineteenth Century will be of great interest to scholars of military and strategic studies as well as modern military history It was originally published as a special issue of Small Wars Insurgencies

The Fortunes of Africa Martin Meredith, 2014-10-14 Africa has been coveted for its riches ever since the era of the Pharaohs In past centuries it was the lure of gold ivory and slaves that drew fortune seekers merchant adventurers and conquerors from afar In modern times the focus of attention is on oil diamonds and other valuable minerals Land was another prize The Romans relied on their colonies in northern Africa for vital grain shipments to feed the population of Rome Arab invaders followed in their wake eventually colonizing the entire region More recently foreign corporations have acquired huge tracts of land to secure food supplies needed abroad just as the Romans did In this vast and vivid panorama of history Martin Meredith follows the fortunes of Africa over a period of 5 000 years With compelling narrative he traces the rise and fall of ancient kingdoms and empires the spread of Christianity and Islam the enduring guest for gold and other riches the exploits of explorers and missionaries and the impact of European colonization He examines too the fate of modern African states and concludes with a glimpse of their future His cast of characters includes religious leaders mining magnates warlords dictators and many other legendary figures among them Mansa Musa ruler of the medieval Mali empire said to be the richest man the world has ever known I speak of Africa Shakespeare wrote and of golden joys This is history on an epic scale Slavery in the Great Lakes Region of East Africa Henri Médard, Shane Doyle, 2007-11-16 Slavery in the Great Lakes Region of East Africa is a collection of ten studies by the most prominent historians of the region Slavery was more important in the Great Lakes region of Eastern Africa than often has been assumed and Africans from the interior played a more complex role than was previously recognized The essays in this collection reveal the connections between the peoples of the region as well as their encounters with the conquering Europeans The contributors challenge the assertion that domestic slavery increased in Africa as a result of the international trade Slavery in this region was not a uniform phenomenon and the line between enslaved and non slave labor was fine Kinship ties could mark the difference between free and unfree labor Social categories were not always clear cut and the status of a slave could change within a lifetime Contents Introduction by Henri M dard Language Evidence of Slavery to the Eighteenth Century by David Schoenbrun The Rise of Slavery Social Change in Unyamwezi 1860 1900 by Jan Georg Deutsch Slavery Forced Labour in the Eastern Congo 1850 1910 by David Northrup Legacies of Slavery in North West Uganda The One Elevens by Mark Leopold Human Booty in Buganda The Seizure of People in War c 1700 c 1900 by Richard Reid Stolen People Autonomous Chiefs in Nineteenth McDow, 2018-05-25 In Buying Time Thomas F McDow synthesizes Indian Ocean Middle Eastern and East African studies as well as economic and social history to explain how in the nineteenth century credit mobility and kinship knit together a vast interconnected Indian Ocean region That vibrant and enormously influential swath extended from the desert fringes of Arabia to Zanzibar and the Swahili coast and on to the Congo River watershed In the half century before European colonization Africans and Arabs from coasts and hinterlands used newfound sources of credit to seek out opportunities establish new outposts in distant places and maintain families in a rapidly changing economy They used temporizing strategies to escape drought in Oman join ivory caravans in the African interior and build new settlements The key to McDow's analysis is a previously unstudied trove of Arabic business deeds that show complex variations on the financial transactions that underwrote the trade economy across the region The documents list names genealogies statuses and clan names of a wide variety of people Africans Indians and Arabs men and women free and slave who bought sold and mortgaged property Through unprecedented use of these sources McDow moves the historical analysis of the Indian Ocean beyond connected port cities to reveal the roles of previously invisible people Catalog of Copyright Entries.
