Freedom's Plow Jim Fraser, Theresa Perry, 2013-10-15 Freedom's Plow is the first volume designed to provide teachers and teachers in training with the practical resources they need to make their teaching practice and classrooms more multicultural Parts II and III present the voices and experiences of teachers from first grade to college level who are actually engaged in multicultural teaching efforts The contributors examine what redefining their practice as multicultural has meant for their work in terms of content pedagogy power and indeed their own attitudes and values The volume concludes by focusing on the power arrangements perspectives and personnel policies needed if schools are to emerge as truly multicultural multiethnic democracies

Ethnic Studies and Youth Literature Marilisa Jiménez García, Sonia Alejandra Rodríguez, 2025-07-01 Brings together scholars and practitioners to present an ethnic studies framework for studying and teaching youth literature For decades youth literature has been reckoning with its role in systemic racism and oppression In this landmark edited volume Marilisa Jiménez García and Sonia Alejandra Rodríguez assemble a cadre of well known women of color scholars and practitioners to make a case for ethnic studies as a path for pursuing racial justice in the field Ethnic studies they argue demands that we go beyond seeing race ethnicity culture and diversity as questions of identity and difference Instead it shows us how marginalized positionalities create epistemologies that shape our understanding of age craft genre and knowledge production Multidisciplinary and intersectional in its approach Ethnic Studies and Youth Literature analyzes US imperialism through the lens of youth literature and vice versa shedding light on the roots of our current culture wars and curriculum battles

Reader Response in Elementary Classrooms Nicholas J. Karolides, 2020-03-09 Reading is a quest Likened to an adventure both metaphoric and real the quest is a journey of discovery The reader's search encompasses the sensations of the experience itself accompanying emotions sense and meaning engendered by the experience and understandings of the self others and the world around Out of curiosity readers also search for an extensive array of information The journey can be envisioned and contemplated again and again after the reading act itself is completed In a meaningful way the reader's quest and its discoveries are life enduring and life fulfilling The purpose of this volume is two fold to establish and explore the essential features of reader response theory and its rendering of the reading process and to acknowledge a philosophy of teaching and to illustrate teaching strategies to evoke and enhance readers responses Understanding the ways in which the reader affects the reading and how the reading happens will illuminate classroom pedagogy This text establishes and explores the essential features of reader response theory and its rendering of the reading process The essays acknowledge a philosophy of teaching and illustrate a spectrum of teaching strategies to evoke and enhance readers responses including whole and small group discussion story drama readers theatre journal writing scripts letters stories and other writings and body punctuation A case study format is used to illustrate these strategies in action in real classrooms
