Francis Bacon and the Loss of Self Ernst van Alphen, 1993 Since his death in April 12 Francis Bacon has been acclaimed as one of the very greatest of modern painters Yet most analyses of Bacon actually neutralize his work by discussing it as an existential expression and as the horrifying communication of an isolated individual ewhich simply transfers the pain in the paintings back to Bacon himself This study is the first attempt to account for the pain of the viewer It is also most challengingly an explanation of what Bacon e tm s art tells us about ourselves as individuals For during this very personal investigation the author comes to realize that the effect of Bacon e tm s work is founded upon the way that each of us carves our identity our eoeself e from the inchoate evidence of our senses using the conventions of representation as tools It is in his warping of these conventions of the senses rather than in the superficial distortion of his images that Bacon most radically confronts eoeart e and ourselves as individuals The Mirror and the Lamp W B 1866-1938 Maxwell, 2023-07-18 In this thought provoking work Maxwell explores the relationship between literature and reality Using examples from a wide range of authors and genres he argues that literature serves as both a mirror reflecting the world around us and a lamp illuminating aspects of the human experience that might otherwise be hidden A must read for anyone interested in the power of language and storytelling This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The Mirror and the Lamp W B 1866-1938 Maxwell, 2023-07-18 In this thought provoking work Maxwell explores the relationship between literature and reality Using examples from a wide range of authors and genres he argues that literature serves as both a mirror reflecting the world around us and a lamp illuminating aspects of the human experience that might otherwise be hidden A must read for anyone interested in the power of language and storytelling This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and

Mirrors and Mirroring from Antiquity to the Early Modern Period Maria Gerolemou, Lilia Diamantopoulou, 2020-01-09 This volume examines mirrors and mirroring through a series of multidisciplinary essays especially focusing on the intersection between technological and cultural dynamics of mirrors The international scholars brought together here explore critical questions around the mirror as artefact and the phenomenon of mirroring Beside the common visual registration of an action or inaction in a two dimensional and reversed form various types of mirrors often possess special abilities which can produce a distorted picture of reality serving in this way illusion and falsehood Part I looks at a selection of theory from ancient writers demonstrating the concern to explore these same questions in antiquity Part II considers the role reflections can play in forming ideas of gender and identity Beyond the everyday we see in Part III how oracular mirrors and magical mirrors reveal the invisible divine prosthetics that allow us to look where the eye cannot reach Finally Part IV considers mirrors roles in displaying the visible and invisible in antiquity and since

Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory Irene Rima Makaryk, 1993-01-01 The last half of the twentieth century has seen the emergence of literary theory as a new discipline As with any body of scholarship various schools of thought exist and sometimes conflict within it I R Makaryk has compiled a welcome guide to the field Accessible and jargon free the Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory provides lucid concise explanations of myriad approaches to literature that have arisen over the past forty years Some 170 scholars from around the world have contributed their expertise to this volume Their work is organized into three parts In Part I forty evaluative essays examine the historical and cultural context out of which new schools of and approaches to literature arose The essays also discuss the uses and limitations of the various schools and the key issues they address Part II focuses on individual theorists It provides a more detailed picture of the network of scholars not always easily pigeonholed into the categories of Part I This second section analyses the individual achievements as well as the influence of specific scholars and places them in a larger critical context Part III deals with the vocabulary of literary theory It identifies significant complex terms places them in context and explains their origins and use Accessibility is a key feature of the work By avoiding jargon providing mini bibliographies and cross referencing throughout Makaryk has provided an indispensable tool for literary theorists and historians and for all scholars and students of contemporary criticism and culture

Tradition and Fantasy in the Tales of Reb Nahman of Bratslav Ora Wiskind-Elper, 2012-02-01 One of the most radically innovative of Hasidic masters Reb Nahman of Bratslav transformed images and concepts basic to Jewish thought into new and compelling forms Tradition and Fantasy in the Tales of Reb Nahman of Bratslav uses comparative literary criticism a range of Hasidic commentary and original exegesis of the source texts to bring the complex artistry of Reb Nahman's thought to light making it accessible to a wider audience

John the Baptist in Life and Death Gary Yamasaki, 1998-11-01 In a narrative about Jesus a character like John the Baptist would not be expected to play a role much beyond that of providing a baptism for Jesus Yet the Matthaean narrator finds several other uses for John in the development of the narrative not only while he is still alive but also after he is dead In examining John's role Yamasaki deploys an audience oriented critical methodology an approach that chronicles the narrator's efforts to influence first time readers experience of the narrative as they proceed sequentially through the text He traces John's characterization as forerunner from a glowing introduction in ch 3 albeit with a slight flaw in his ideological point of view on Jesus through a progressive exacerbation of this flaw to a rehabilitation of John in ch 11 As a result of this rehabilitation the narrator is able to continue to use John in his role as forerunner in the second half of the narrative even after John's death has removed him from the story line High Romantic Argument

Lawrence Lipking, 2010-06-23 M H Abrams's writings on the Romantics have had an incalculable influence on the literary history of his time High Romantic Argument treating as it does various aspects of Abrams's work is in a sense an appraisal of that history Arising from a conference held in his honor at Cornell University in the spring of 1978 it is made up of essays by six distinguished contributors who explore important critical questions related directly or indirectly to Abrams's work and its broader implications The essays address Wordsworth as a prophet Geoffrey Hartman and as a poet of silence Jonathan Wordsworth history as metaphor Wayne C Booth the nature of the critical canon Thomas McFarland the personal element in literary history Lawrence Lipking and the relation of Abrams's work to current developments in literary criticism Jonathan Culler Two central themes run throughout the radically metaphorical nature of Romantic thought and the tendency of today's students to find Romanticism less rational than Abrams does While the contributors do not always agree with one another all are keenly aware of the contemporary challenge to humanistic values A highlight of this book is the text of Abrams's masterly reply delivered extemporaneously at the end of the conference Other elements include a bibliography by Stuart A Ende a preface by Stephen M Parish and an editor's note Contributors M H Abrams Wayne C Booth Jonathan Culler Stuart A Ende Geoffrey Hartman Lawrence Lipking Thomas McFarland Stephen M Parrish Jonathan Wordsworth

The Top Books of the Year Mirror And The Lamp The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Mirror And The Lamp : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
