Caught between the Lines Carlos Riobó, 2019-04-01 Caught between the Lines examines how the figure of the captive and the notion of borders have been used in Argentine literature and painting to reflect competing notions of national identity from the nineteenth to the twenty first centuries Challenging the conventional approach to the nineteenth century trope of civilization versus barbarity which was intended to criticize the social and ethnic divisions within Argentina in order to create a homogenous society Carlos Riob traces the various versions of colonial captivity legends He argues convincingly that the historical conditions of the colonial period created an ethnic hybridity a mestizo or culturally mixed identity that went against the state compulsion for a racially pure identity This mestizaje was signified not only in Argentina's literature but also in its art and Riob thus analyzes colonial paintings as well as texts Caught between the Lines focuses on borders and mestizaje both biological and cultural as they relate to captives specifically how captives have been used to create a national image of Argentina that relies on a logic of separation to justify concepts of national purity and to deny transculturation      Black Tommies Ray Costello,2015-12-04 Offers an overview of the role played by Black British soldiers in the First World War      Organizing the Organized Laura Ariovich,2010 This series publishes monographs and edited collections on the history present condition and possible future role of organised labour around the world Multidisciplinary in approach geographically and chronologically diverse this series is dedicated to the study of trade unionism and the undeniably significant role it has played in modern society      Mark 15:39 as a Markan Theology of Revelation Brian K. Gamel,2017-10-19 In the Gospel of Mark Jesus arrest trial and execution ends with the Roman centurion who oversees the death process proclaiming Jesus as God s son Gamel explores two key questions in relation to this moment what does the centurion mean when he says that Jesus is God s son and why does he say it The confession is not made on the basis of any signs nor from any indication that he perceives Jesus death as honourable or exemplary This apparent lack of motivation itself highlights a key Markan theme that this insight is revealed by an apocalyptic act of God signalled by the tearing of the temple veil Thus the confession which we can understand to be made sincerely and knowledgeably is the result of an act of God s revelation alone Gamel explores the theory of Mark depicting a story in which all human characters exhibit varying levels of blindness to the spiritual realities that govern their lives By making a thorough examination of Mark s Gospel while placing primary focus on the centurion the study is unlimited and presents a serious examination of the whole Gospel Gamel concludes his argument with the point that at the foot of the cross this blindness is decisively confronted by God s apocalyptic act The offer of sight to the centurion demonstrates the reconciliation of God and humanity which are otherwise in Mark s Gospel repeatedly presented as antagonistic spheres Finally the fact that revelation is offered to a Gentile highlights the inclusion of the nations into the promises of Israel
