Mirror Ann Sherif, 1999-06-01 Ann Sherif discusses the life and work of Koda in light of changes in critical horizons readerly communities and especially constructions of gender and the family in the latter half of the twentieth century Excellent translations of some of Koda's most provocative short works are included

The Father-Daughter Plot Rebecca L. Copeland, Esperanza Ramirez-Christensen, 2001-07-31 This provocative collection of essays is a comprehensive study of the father-daughter dynamic in Japanese female literary experience Its contributors examine the ways in which women have been placed politically ideologically and symbolically as daughters in a culture that venerates the father They weigh the impact that this daughterly position has had on both the performance and production of women's writing from the classical period to the present Conjoining the classical and the modern with a unified theme reveals an important continuum in female authorship a historical approach often ignored by scholars The essays devoted to the literature of the classical period discuss canonical texts in a new light offering important feminist readings that challenge existing scholarship while those dedicated to modern writers introduce readers to little known texts with translations and readings that are engaging and original Contributors Tomoko Aoyama Sonja Arntzen Janice Brown Rebecca L. Copeland Midori McKeon Eileen Mikals Adachi Joshua S. Mostow Sharalyn Orbaugh Esperanza Ramirez Christensen Edith Sarra Atsuko Sasaki Ann Sherif

The Columbia Anthology of Modern Japanese Literature: From restoration to occupation, 1868-1945 J. Thomas Rimer, Van C. Gessel, 2005 1870s continues through the years of social change preceding World War I and the bold and innovative writing of the interwar period and concludes with works written during World War II Each chapter includes a helpful critical introduction and biographical introductions for each writer

Global Cold War Literature Andrew Hammond, 2011-12-21 In countries worldwide the Cold War dominated politics society and culture during the second half of the twentieth century Global Cold War Literatures offers a unique look at the multiple ways in which writers from Asia Africa Europe and North and South America addressed the military conflicts revolutions propaganda wars and ideological debates of the era While including essays on western European and North American literature the volume views First World writing not as central to the period but as part of an international discussion of Cold War realities in which the most interesting contributions often came from marginal or subordinate cultures To this end there is an emphasis on the literatures of the Second and Third Worlds including essays on Latin American poetry Soviet travel writing Chinese autobiography African theatre North Korean literature Cuban and eastern European fiction and Middle Eastern fiction and poetry With the post Cold War era still in a condition of emergence it is essential that we look back to the 1945-89 period to understand the political and cultural forces that shaped the modern world The volume s analysis of those forces and its focus on many of the hot spots Afghanistan Iran North Korea that define the contemporary war on terror make this an essential resources for those working in Postcolonial American and English Literatures as well as in History Comparative Literature European Studies and Cultural Studies Global Cold War Literatures is a suitable companion volume to Hammond s Cold War Literature Writing the Global Conflict also available from Routledge

Cinematic Landscapes Linda C. Ehrlich, David Desser, 1994 On Chinese and Japanese art and cinema

The Cinema of Naruse Mikio Catherine Russell, 2008-09-08 The first English language book dedicated to an analysis of Naruse Mikio one of Japan s most prolific directors whose films provide unique insight into the representation of female subjectivity and modernity in Japan

An Open Window Linda Channah Ehrlich, 2000 The first book in English exclusively devoted to an analysis of the films of one of Spain s most important film directors V ctor Erice Drawing on original essays reprints and new translations from an international group of writers this anthology will help open a window into a deeper appreciation of Erice s three haunting feature length films

The Cinema of Víctor Erice Linda C. Ehrlich, 2007-02-01 To coincide with the recent DVD release of The Spirit of the Beehive this paperback collection of essays focuses on the work of acclaimed Spanish director V ctor Erice Originally published in hardcover under the title An Open Window this expanded edition draws on original essays reprints and new translations from an international group of writers New to this edition are four essays from noted film scholars including editor Linda C Ehrlich as well as three added essays from the filmmaker himself Both the original and new material provide a deeper appreciation of Erice s three feature length films The Spirit of the Beehive El esp ritu de la colmena 1973 El Sur 1982 and Dream of Light aka The Quince Tree Sun El sol del membrillo 1992 as well as his shorter works including his most recent accomplishment La morte rouge 2006 This anthology examines the aesthetic historical and sociological forces at work in Erice s films and includes an extensive interview with the director This broad array of writings provides insight into not only three unforgettable films but also into twentieth century Spanish society as well as world cinema The Cinema of V ctor Erice An Open Window will serve as an important resource to measure the career of this director who along with Bu uel Saura and Almod var has helped show the world the creative range of Spanish cinema With additional essays translations and illustrations this paperback edition explores new avenues of expression pursued by one of the most poetic of modern filmmakers

Ruptured Histories Sheila Miyoshi Jager, Rana Mitter, 2007-04-30 What has the end of the Cold War meant for East Asia and for how its people understand their recent history These thought provoking essays explore a vigorously contested area in public culture the wars of the modern era All the major East Asian states have undergone a profound reassessment of their experiences from World War II to Vietnam New and at times aggressive forms of nationalism in Japan China South Korea Vietnam and Taiwan have affected American security policy in the Pacific and posed a challenge to the post communist world order Japan has met fervent opposition to its premiers visits to the Yasukuni shrine honoring the wartime dead China has reclaimed a forgotten war history such as the positive contributions of Chiang Kai shek s Nationalists South Korea has embraced an interpretation of the Korean War that is hostile to the United States and sympathetic to its North Korean adversaries This volume not only illuminates regional and global changes in East Asia today but also underscores the need for rethinking the Cold War language that continues to inform U S East Asian relations

Lost Leaves Rebecca L. Copeland, 2000-06-01 Most Japanese literary historians have suggested that the Meiji Period 1868 1912 was devoid of women writers but for the brilliant exception of Higuchi Ichiyo 1872 1896 Rebecca Copeland challenges this claim by examining in detail the lives and literary careers of three of Ichiyo s peers each representative of the diversity and ingenuity of the period Miyake Kaho 1868 1944 Wakamatsu Shizuko 1864 1896 and Shimizu Shikin 1868 1933 In a carefully researched introduction Copeland establishes the context for the development of female literary expression She follows this with chapters on each of the women under consideration Miyake Kaho often regarded as the first woman writer of modern Japan offers readers a vision of the female vitality that is often overlooked when discussing the Meiji era Wakamatsu Shizuko the most prominent female translator of her time had a direct impact on the development of a modern written language for Japanese prose fiction Shimizu Shikin reminds readers of the struggle women endured in their efforts to balance their creative interests with their social roles Interspersed throughout are excerpts from works under discussion most never before translated offering an invaluable window into this forgotten world of women s writing
