The Allure of the Mirror Yanlong Guo, 2025-09-23 In Han China 202 BCE 220 CE few luxury objects were as widely coveted as bronze mirrors Typically circular and ranging from seven to thirty centimeters in diameter these mirrors were crafted from high tin bronze with highly reflective surfaces on the front and intricate designs and auspicious inscriptions on the reverse The Allure of the Mirror explores how and why these objects historically known as haowu fine things became so beloved throughout early imperial China Tracing their production and consumption from manufacture in imperial princely and private workshops to their roles in life and death Yanlong Guo uncovers the varied ways these seemingly trivial objects took on social and cultural significance Across social classes mirrors had a wide range of uses as status symbols personal tools romantic tokens family heirlooms auspicious amulets treasured gifts and funeral offerings Guo demonstrates how these fine things once exclusive to elites gradually became accessible to a wider segment of society Mirrors he argues connected people across the empire fostering a shared cultural community of aesthetic tastes and social values from royal courts to rural households Interdisciplinary and comprehensive The Allure of the Mirror offers fresh insights into the relationship among art society and ideology in the Han Empire revealing how decorative objects could bridge social divides and shape cultural identity
